The dramatic works of William Shakspeare, with notes original and selected by S.W. Singer, and a life of the poet by C. Symmons William Shakespeare, 1826 The Toho Studios Story Stuart Galbraith IV, 2008-05-16 Since its inception in 1933 Toho Co Ltd Japan s most famous movie production company and distributor has produced and or distributed some of the most notable films ever to come out of Asia including Seven Samurai Godzilla When a Woman

Ascends the Stairs Kwaidan Woman in the Dunes Ran Shall We Dance Ringo and Spirited Away While the western world often defines Toho by its iconic classics which include the Godzilla franchise and many of the greatest films of the legendary director Akira Kurosawa and actor Toshiro Mifune these pictures represent but a tiny fraction of Toho's rich history The Toho Studios Story A History and Complete Filmography provides a complete picture of every Toho feature the Japanese studio produced and released as well as foreign films that it distributed during its first 75 years Presented chronologically each entry in the filmography includes where applicable the original Japanese title a direct translation of that title the film's international U S release and alternate titles production credits including each film's producers director screenwriters cinematographers art directors and composers among others casts with character names production companies technical specs running times and release dates U S release data including distributor whether the film was released subtitled or dubbed and alternate versions domestic and international awards and plot synopses From a Scoundrel's Notes Gabriel Diradurian,1990 Notes and Queries ,1877 Novels and Miscellaneous Works Daniel Defoe,1884 Street Players Kinohi Nishikawa,2019-01-11 The uncontested center of the black pulp fiction universe for more than four decades was the Los Angeles publisher Holloway House From the late 1960s until it closed in 2008 Holloway House specialized in cheap paperbacks with page turning narratives featuring black protagonists in crime stories conspiracy thrillers prison novels and Westerns From Iceberg Slim's Pimp to Donald Goines's Never Die Alone the thread that tied all of these books together and made them distinct from the majority of American pulp was an unfailing veneration of black masculinity Zeroing in on Holloway House Street Players explores how this world of black pulp fiction was produced received and recreated over time and across different communities of readers Kinohi Nishikawa contends that black pulp fiction was built on white readers fears of the feminization of society and the appeal of black masculinity as a way to counter it In essence it was the original form of blaxploitation a strategy of mass marketing race to suit the reactionary fantasies of a white audience But while chauvinism and misogyny remained troubling yet constitutive aspects of this literature from 1973 onward Holloway House moved away from publishing sleaze for a white audience to publishing solely for black readers The standard account of this literary phenomenon is based almost entirely on where this literature ended up in the hands of black male working class readers When it closed Holloway House was synonymous with genre fiction written by black authors for black readers a field of cultural production that Nishikawa terms the black literary underground But as Street Players demonstrates this cultural authenticity had to be created promoted and in some cases made up and there is a story of exploitation at the heart of black pulp fiction's origins that cannot be ignored Street Lit Keenan Norris,2013-11-15 Over the last few decades the genre of urban fiction or street lit has become increasingly popular as more novels secure a place on bestseller lists that were once the domain of mainstream authors In the 1970s pioneers such as Donald Goines Iceberg Slim and Claude Brown paved the way for today's street fiction novelists poets and short story writers including Sister Souljah Kenji Jasper and Colson

Whitehead In Street Lit Representing the Urban Landscape Keenan Norris has assembled a varied collection of articles essays interviews and poems that capture the spirit of urban fiction and nonfiction produced from the 1950s through the present day Providing both critical analyses and personal insights these works explore the street lit phenomenon to help readers understand how and why this once underground genre has become such a vital force in contemporary literature Interviews with literary icons David Bradley Gerald Early and Lynel Gardner are balanced with critical discussions of works by Goines Jasper Whitehead and others With an introduction by Norris that explores the roots of street lit this collection defines the genre for today s readers and provides valuable insights into a cultural force that is fast becoming as important to the American literary scene as hip hop is to music Featuring a foreword by bestselling novelist Omar Tyree Flyy Girl and comprised of works by scholars established authors and new voices Street Lit will inspire any reader who wants to understand the significance of this sometimes controversial but unquestionably popular art form

Noir Affect Christopher Breu,Elizabeth A. Hatmaker,2020-06-02 Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir s negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative These are narratives centered on loss sadness rage shame guilt regret anxiety humiliation resentment resistance and refusal Moreover noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives especially the criminal the lost the compromised the haunted the unlucky the cast aside and the erotically perverse including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material bodily social and political economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition dissolution redundancy unmaking and decay It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism including those associated with racial gendered sexual and economic inequality Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re orient our understanding of noir Contributors Alexander Dunst Sean Grattan Peter Hitchcock Justus Nieland Andrew Pepper Ignacio S nchez Prado Brian Rejack Pamela Thoma Kirin Wachter Grene

Emotion, Race, and Space in Contemporary African American Literature Marijana Mikić, 2025-05-13 This open access book examines how selected African American authors Colson Whitehead Edward P Jones Toni Morrison Brit Bennett Percival Everett Maurice Carlos Ruffin Sherri L Smith and N K Jemisin narrate relationships between emotion race and space On the one hand they bear witness to the structural production of Black emotional pain at the confluence of racial and spatial discrimination On the other hand they reveal meaningful and subversive interlinkages between Black emotional experiences and Black spatial practices Weaving together insights from psychology narrative theory African American studies affect theory and Black Geographies Marijana Mikić interrogates fear hope shame guilt anger and grief in relation to the racial geographic projects of slavery Jim Crow segregation and their continued legacies Mikić draws attention to the narrative strategies contemporary African American authors employ to prompt their readers engagement with both the pain and the possibility that continues to shape Black lives in the twenty first century

Notes to Literature Theodor W. Adorno, 2019-10-01 Notes to Literature is a collection of the great social theorist Theodor W Adorno's essays on such writers as Mann Bloch H Iderlin Siegfried Kracauer Goethe Benjamin and Stefan George It also includes his reflections on a variety of subjects such as literary titles the physical qualities of books political commitment in literature the light hearted and the serious in art and the use of foreign words in writing This edition presents this classic work in full in a single volume with a new introduction by Paul Kottman

Story of My People Edoardo Nesi, 2013-05-07 Winner of the 2011 Strega Prize this blend of essay social criticism and memoir is a striking portrait of the effects of globalization on Italy's declining economy Starting from his family's textile factory in Prato Tuscany Edoardo Nesi examines the recent shifts in Italy's manufacturing industry Only one generation ago Prato was a thriving industrial center that prided itself on craftsmanship and quality But during the last decade cheaply made goods produced overseas or in Italy by poorly paid immigrants saturated the market making it impossible for Italian companies to keep up In 2004 his family was forced to sell the textile factory How this could have happened Nesi asks and what are the wider repercussions of losing businesses like his family's especially for Italian culture Story of My People is a denouncement of big business corrupt politicians the arrogance of economists and cheap manufacturing It's a must read for anyone seeking insight into the financial crisis that's striking Europe today

The Blue Period Jesse McCarthy, 2024-04-25 Addresses the political and aesthetic evolution of African American literature and its authors during the Cold War an era McCarthy calls the Blue Period In the years after World War II to be a black writer was to face a stark predicament The contest between the Soviet Union and the United States was a global one an ideological battle that dominated almost every aspect of the cultural agenda On the one hand was the Soviet Union espousing revolutionary communism that promised egalitarianism while being hostile to conceptions of personal freedom On the other hand was the United States a country steeped in racial prejudice and the policies of Jim Crow Black writers of this time were equally alienated from the left and the right Jesse McCarthy argues and they channeled that alienation into remarkable experiments in literary form Embracing racial affect and interiority they forged an aesthetic resistance premised on fierce dissent from both US racial liberalism and Soviet communism From the end of World War II to the rise of the Black Power movement in the 1960s authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Gwendolyn Brooks and Paule Marshall defined a distinctive moment in American literary culture that McCarthy terms the Blue Period In McCarthy s hands this notion of the Blue Period provides a fresh critical framework that challenges long held disciplinary and archival assumptions Black writers in the early Cold War went underground McCarthy argues not to depoliticize or liberalize their work but to make it more radical keeping alive affective commitments for a future time Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,2003
