Canada While the United States model is the most longstanding there have now been sufficient judicial determinations under each of the studied jurisdictions to provide a constructive basis for comparison In the context of the drafting and application of a workable class action framework it is apparent that similar problems have been confronted across these jurisdictions which in turn promotes a search for assistance in the experience and legal analysis of others The book is presented in three Parts The first Part deals with the class action concept and its alternatives and also discusses and critiques the stance of England where the introduction of the opt out class action model has been opposed The second Part focuses upon the various criteria and factors governing commencement of a class action encompassing matters such as commonality superiority suitability and the class representative Part 3 examines matters pertaining to conduct of the action itself such as becoming a class member notice requirements settlement judgments and costs and fees The book is written to have practical utility for a wide range of legal practitioners and professionals such as academics and students of comparative civil procedure and multi party litigation litigation lawyers who may use the reference materials cited to the benefit of their own class action clients and those charged with law reform who look to adopt the most workable and avoid the unworkable features in class action models elsewhere

Beyond Elite Law Samuel Estreicher, Joy Radice, 2016-04-26 This book describes the access to justice crisis facing low and middle income Americans and the current reforms to address it Securities Litigation & Enforcement Institute, 2008 An Occupational Therapy Practitioner's Guide to School-Based Practice Karel L. Dokken, John S.

Luna, Susan E. Still, 2024-08-19 Using a practical nuts and bolts approach to school based occupational therapy services this unique text guides both entry level and experienced practitioners through the evaluation intervention and dismissal process in an educational setting Beginning with an overview of the purpose of school based interventions the authors map out current populations programs and legal and licensing standards to give school based practitioners the knowledge to practice safely and ethically The book then explores how to successfully navigate the referral process from eligibility to intervention incorporating helpful tips and references to help establish patterns of best practice It also features numerous examples of current and reliable evaluations so that practitioners can expand their repertoire of assessments while ensuring a holistic avenue of care to reflect the distinct value of occupational therapy Written by authors with a wealth of experience in this field the book will be essential reading for both new and more experienced occupational therapy practitioners as well as students training towards working in a school based context Securities Arbitration, 2010 Collective Redress and EU

Competition Law Eda Şahin, 2018-12-07 Exploring obstacles to effective compensation of victims of competition infringements this book categorises the types of victims harmed and the types of losses arisen from these infringements to identify to what extent there is a need for enhanced private competition law enforcement in the European Union EU and the best way to address this need It shows that there is a genuine need for facilitating consumer damages actions and that consumer claims are the only claims that can be pursued in a collective redress action In order to compensate consumers and overcome barriers to effective enforcement of their right to damages it structures a collective redress action for consumers by considering the following elements i the formation of the group ii the type of representative party iii funding mechanisms and iv calculation and distribution of damages Electronic Consumer Contracts in the Conflict of Laws Zheng Sophia Tang, 2015-10-22 The second edition of this highly recommended work addresses the interaction between conflict of laws dispute resolution electronic commerce and consumer contracts In addition it identifies specific difficulties that conflicts lawyers and consumer lawyers encounter in electronic commerce and proposes original approaches to balance the conflict of interest between consumers access to justice and business efficiency The European Union has played a leading role in this area of law and its initiatives are fully explored It pays particular attention to the most recent development in collective redress and alternative online dispute resolution By adopting multiple research methods including a comparative study of the EU and US approach historical analysis of protective conflict of laws doctrinal analysis of legal provisions and economic analysis of law it provides the most comprehensive examination of frameworks in cross border consumer contracts
