A Private Couple Creates A Public Garden:

A Private Couple Creates a Public Garden Frances K. Bickelhaupt, 1999      From Damascus to Beirut Hazem Fadel, 2016-02-08

Notably studies on the Arabic novel tend to focus on canonical writers like the Egyptian novelist and Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz 1911 2006 and leave out or just mention en passant the work of others This book is not concerned with the ways in which the Arabic novel breaks away from or reproduces Mahfouz's approach and techniques but focuses instead on the way in which the authors in question engage with the phenomena of nationalism feminism post and neo colonialism civil war and social change in the Arab world using an urban scenario as their privileged point of observation The Arabic city is privileged as a focal point because it is the space where the struggles over issues of nation building gender religion and class as well as the patriarchal colonialist Zionist and sectarian violence linked to these issues manifest themselves most evidently To this end From Damascus to Beirut Contested Cities in Arab Writing brings together four novels published between 1969 and 1989 which have never been approached from this perspective nor put in this kind of dialogue before Ulfat Idilbi's Damascus Ghassan Kanafani's Haifa Ahlam Mosteghanemi's Constantine and Elias Khoury's Beirut are social and historical products and as such as Henri Lefebvre maintains are deeply rooted in politics and affected by ideology The cities discussed here in fact display the ebbs and flows of political and social life in their respective countries and in the Arab world in general Each city stands at a crucial point in the history of the Arab world and the way in which they are represented by their respective authors sets the stage for and sometimes even foreshadows an upcoming defeat or disappointment Albeit for different reasons Damascus Haifa Constantine and Beirut are all expressions of failures either on national political social or economic levels Paradoxically however they are also the repositories of their people's hopes and aspirations as well as of their disappointments Analysing these novels as such this book will be of particular interest to postcolonial readers and more importantly to English speaking readers who are interested in the study of modern Arabic literature Its close textual analysis offers the reader new tools not only for understanding themes and narrative techniques pertaining to the Arabic novel but also the contemporary political cultural and social issues that produced them

Japanese architecture especially in the case of Jutaku the small often intimate city home constitutes a quiet but powerful affirmation of design intelligence In an environment too often defined by scale and spectacle such buildings whisper rather than shout They are built not as refuge but as considered responses to space place and the human presence within them Infused with centuries of history but never stagnant Jutaku is the Japanese path of minimalism not just doing less but doing enough Every line surface and vacancy is intentional Vacancy is meaningful here and silence is structure Those homes effortlessly merge with nature not in grand flourishes but in soft convergences A small courtyard garden a framed view of sky or the gentle dance of light across the tatami mat binds people with the natural rhythms of the world outside This dialogue between the constructed and natural sounds on a deeper cultural level of reverence for impermanence and transience principles rooted in wabi sabi the aesthetics of the imperfect and impermanent Functionality too is important With not much space to go around especially in urban settings Japanese architects have mastered spatial economy Rooms that serve a multiplicity of purposes hidden storage spaces and well planned circulation pathways bear witness to an ingenuity that balances limitation with imagination Yet even within tight footprints these homes appear spacious airy and serene It is more than a study of form and function that Jutaku is a reflection of values restraint respect precision and profound love of the mundane As we move through these houses we discover not an architecture but a way of looking at the world where minimalism is nuanced and even the smallest of places can hold the most depth This collection spanning over 1 400 pages is the most extensive ever assembled on Japanese residential architecture With over 500 detailed projects and rich contextual insights it offers an unparalleled window into the soul of Jutaku celebrating its quiet brilliance on an unprecedented scale

Garden Plots Shelley Boyd, 2013-05-01 Canadian literature has long been preoccupied with the wilderness and the landscape but the garden has remained neglected terrain In Garden Plots Shelley Boyd focuses on private domestic gardens tended by individual gardeners to show how modest everyday spaces provide fertile grounds for the imagination Combining the history of gardening with literary analysis Garden Plots explores the use of the garden motif in the works of five authors Susanna Moodie Catharine Parr Traill Gabrielle Roy Carol Shields and Lorna Crozier With works spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries these writers reveal the associations between the arts of writing and gardening the evolving role of the female gardener and the changes that take place in Canada's literary gardens over time With the task of understanding our connection to the physical environment becoming increasingly important Garden Plots explores the subtle relations between place and narrative This fresh literary approach to Canada's gardening culture reveals that gardens grow and change not simply in the earth but also in the pages of our texts

Private Gardens in Public Spaces - Community Gardening Robert John Kirkby, 2003 A Topography Plagued by Marginality in Victorian Novels Catalina Balinisteanu-Furdu, 2022-04-12 The purpose of this book is to analyse how marginality is experienced by the Other women orphans children labourers in Victorian literature and how these individuals succeed in transgressing borders or attempt at doing this The Other uses many strategies to climb the social ladder and to preserve a certain social position marrying into a superior social class subverting the master's position and usurping him acquiring education and knowledge to become superior tempting the master into passionate love affairs approaching interpersonal communication or staying true to one's own self-defending one's moral values accepting lessons of domesticity becoming an angel in the house travelling to unknown territories exchanging reality for fictional worlds and so on On their way of achieving their goals the Others are shown in different spaces which contribute to the construction of their identity Our survey unfolds the complexity of the marginalization experience of the Victorian Others their individual or collective mentality and their agency Drawing on Otherness from six Victorian novels our book takes an interpretative approach The analysis of spaces revealed how the positionality of women or orphans or labourers in social hierarchies of gender race and legal status influences and even affects their legitimacy or access to a superior position Their agency has not always overcome their marginalization embedded within the structure of society but at least temporarily and gradually it has improved the women s living conditions by being rewarded with a beautiful family or by earning a living thus eluding the dependency on a man By contextualizing the six novels into the Victorian Age our survey will hopefully contribute to the understanding of women and of their attempts at emancipation by demonstrating how their positionality impacts their agency and their personality

American Gardening ,1896      At Home with Autism Steele, Kim,Ahrentzen, Sherry,2016

At Home with Autism Designing Housing for the Spectrum introduces readers to conditions and aspirations of adults on the autism spectrum that demand a new approach to how we provide locate design and develop homes in which they live The book argues that there is no singular stellar residential model just as there is no singular prototype of autism Grounded in an extensive array of research sources the book identifies resident focused quality of life goals and profiles design guidelines directed to those goals The book implores those involved in housing design production and policy to expand their exposure to what is possible what is desirable and to direct their efforts towards expanding residential choices for those on the spectrum
