Oberman, 2008-10-01 In this last collection of his vital controversial and accessible writings Heiko A. Oberman seeks to liberate and broaden our understanding of the European Reformation from its origins in medieval philosophy and theology through the Puritan settlers who brought Calvin's vision to the New World Ranging over many topics Oberman finds fascinating connections between aspects of the Reformation and twentieth century history and thought most notably the connection to Nazism and the Holocaust He revisits his earlier work on the history of anti-Semitism rejects the notion of an unbroken line from Luther to Hitler to the Holocaust and offers a new perspective on the Christian legacy of anti-Semitism and its murderous result in the twentieth century Oberman demonstrates how the simplifications and rigidities of modern historiography have obscured the existential spirits of such great figures as Luther and Calvin He explores the debt of both Luther and Calvin to medieval religious thought and the impact of diverse features of the long fifteenth century including the Black Death nominalism humanism and the Conciliar Movement on the Reformation      In Pursuit of Purity, Unity, and Liberty Paul Chang-Ha Lim, 2004-01-01 This contextualised study illuminates the oft misunderstood aspects of Richard Baxter's ecclesiology purity unity and liberty In doing so it sheds further light on the nature of seventeenth century English Puritanism and the quest for the true church and the corresponding conflicts between the Laudians and Puritans

Calvin's Company of Pastors Scott M. Manetsch, 2015 In Calvin's Company of Pastors Scott Manetsch examines the pastoral theology and practical ministry activities of Geneva's reformed ministers from the time of Calvin's arrival in Geneva until the beginning of the seventeenth century During these seven decades more than 130 men were enrolled in Geneva's Venerable Company of Pastors as it was called including notable reformed leaders such as Pierre Viret Theodore Beza Simon Goulart Lambert Daneau and Jean Diodati Aside from these better known epigones Geneva's pastors from this period remain hidden from view cloaked in Calvin's long shadow even though they played a strategic role in preserving and reshaping Calvin's pastoral legacy Making extensive use of archival materials published sermons catechisms prayer books personal correspondence and theological writings Manetsch offers an engaging and vivid portrait of pastoral life in sixteenth and early seventeenth century Geneva exploring the manner in which Geneva's ministers conceived of their pastoral office and performed their daily responsibilities of preaching public worship moral discipline catechesis administering the sacraments and pastoral care Manetsch demonstrates that Calvin and his colleagues were much more than ivory tower theologians or quasi agents of the state concerned primarily with dispensing theological information to their congregations or enforcing magisterial authority Rather they saw themselves as spiritual shepherds of Christ's Church and this self understanding shaped to a significant degree their daily work as pastors and preachers
