The Empire's of J. G. Ballard's Surrealist Imagination Jeannette Baxter,2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard s fictional and non fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard s appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard s work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard s illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard s textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard s Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge The Atrocity Exhibition J. negotiate unreality a skill that the end of the millennium is making inevitably necessary Such strategies have long been the preserve of literary and cultural study and here a number of well regarded scholars and some new to the field make their contribution to an area that has become increasingly important in recent years From Mary Shelley to Philip K Dick Iain M Banks to J G Ballard taking in African American science fiction Jurassic Park and Kurt Vonnegut and exploring issues of alternative history and ideology feminism the holocaust characterisation and impossible geography this collection is an important source book for all those interested in the literature culture and philosophy of realistic impossible worlds

Flatline Constructs Mark Fisher, 2025-03-25 Mark Fisher's doctoral thesis a metaphysics of cybernetic realism's anti representation more than a blur between fiction and reality Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant J.G. Ballard Andrzej Gasiorek, 2024-07-30 This book offers a comprehensive account of the work of J G Ballard regarded by several critics as one of the most significant fiction writers of recent times Ballard's early science fiction writing earned him plaudits as one of the most innovative and individual voices in the field but his development as a writer has taken him far beyond the confines of any single genre This book traces Ballard's career from his early science fiction short stories and novels to his most recent work particularly his timely reflections on the role of violence in contemporary social life It argues that Ballard's writing is characterised by a distinctive vision of the post war world and its possible futures and suggests that his far reaching analyses of the present age make him one of the indispensable commentators of our time The Atrocity Exhibition J. G. Ballard, 2001 First published in 1970 and widely regarded as a prophetic masterpiece this is a groundbreaking experimental novel by the acclaimed author of Crash and Super-Cannes The irrational all pervading violence of the modern world is the subject of this extraordinary tour de force The central character's dreams are haunted by images of John F Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe dead astronauts and car crash victims as he traverses the screaming wastes of nervous breakdown Seeking his sanity he casts himself in a number of roles H bomber pilot presidential assassin crash victim psychopath Finally through the black perverse magic of violence he transcends his psychic turmoils to find the key to a bizarre new sexuality
