Quicksand By Nella Larsen:

Quicksand Nella Larsen, 1928 Born to a white mother and an absent black father and despised for her dark skin Helga Crane has long had to fend for herself As a young woman Helga teaches at an all black school in the South but even here she feels different Moving to Harlem and eventually to Denmark she attempts to carve out a comfortable life and place for herself but ends up back where she started choosing emotional freedom that quickly translates into a narrow existence Quicksand Nella Larsen's powerful first novel has intriguing autobiographical parallels and at the same time invokes the international dimension of African American culture of the 1920s It also evocatively portrays the racial and gender restrictions that can mark a life Fine thoughtful and courageous It is on the whole the best piece of fiction that Negro America has produced since the heyday of Charles Chesnutt W E B Du Bois Quicksand & Passing Nella Larsen, 2014-05-22 Now a major motion picture starring Tessa Thompson Ruth Negga and Alexander Skarsgard A writer of the Harlem Renaissance Nella Larsen wrote just two novels published here and a handful of short stories Critically acclaimed both speak powerfully of the contradictions and restrictions experienced by black women at that time Quicksand written in 1928 is an autobiographical novel about Helga Crane a mixed race woman caught between fulfilling her desires and gaining respectability in her middle class neighbourhood Written a year later Passing tells the story of two childhood friends Clare and Irene both light skinned enough to pass as white Reconnecting in adulthood Clare has chosen to live as a white woman while Irene embraces black culture and has an important role in her community Nella Larsen's novels are moving characterful and important books She pioneered writing about the conflicts of sexuality race and the secret suffering of women in the early twentieth century

In Search of Nella Larsen George Hutchinson, 2009-07-01 Born to a Danish seamstress and a West Indian cook Larsen lived her life in the shadows of America's racial divide Hutchinson exposes the truths and half truths surrounding her and the complex reality they mask and mirror His book is a cultural biography of the color line as lived by a person who embodied all its ambiguities and complexities Mothering the Race Allison Berg, 2002 Maternal metaphors articulating gender race and nation at the turn of the century Reconstructing motherhood Pauline Hopkins's Contending forces and the rhetoric of racial uplift The romance plot reproducing silence reinscribing race in The Awakening and Summer Hard Labor Edith Summers Kelley's Weeds and the language of eugenics Fatal Contractions Nella Larsen's Quicksand and the new Negro mother Epilogue representing motherhood at century's end Recovering the Black Female Body Michael Bennett, Vanessa D. Dickerson, 2001 Recovering the Black Female Body recognizes the pressing need to highlight through scholarship the vibrant energy of African American women's attempts to wrest control of the physical and symbolic construction of their bodies away from the distortions of others Quicksand by Nella Larsen Nella Larsen, 2011-04-30 The Complete Fiction of Nella Larsen Nella Larsen, 2010-09-01 A remarkable volume that brings together the complete fiction of the author of Passing and Quicksand one of the most gifted writers of the Harlem Renaissance An original and hugely insightful writer

The New York Times Throughout her short but brilliant literary career Nella Larsen wrote piercing dramas about the black middle class that featured sensitive spirited heroines struggling to find a place where they belonged Passing Larsen's best known work is a disturbing story about the unraveling lives of two childhood friends one of whom turns her back on her past and marries a white bigot Just as disquieting is the portrait in Quicksand of Helga Crane half black and half white who is unable to escape her loneliness no matter where and with whom she lives Race and marriage offer few securities here or in the other stories in this compulsively readable collection rich in psychological complexity and imbued with a sense of place that brings Harlem vibrantly to life

Perspectives of Black Popular Culture Harry B. Shaw,1990 A collection of analyses of aspects of Black popular culture and also a celebration of Black popular culture that gives recognition and appreciation to its range its uniqueness and its place and role in the wide variety of experience that comprise American popular culture Acidic paper Paper edition unseen 17 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Scene of Harlem Cabaret Shane Vogel,2009-04 Harlem's nightclubs in the 1920s and 30s were a crucible for testing society's racial and sexual limits Combining performance theory historical research and biographical study this title explores the role of nightlife performance as a definitive touchstone for understanding the racial and sexual politics of the early 20th century

Psychoanalysis and Black Novels Claudia Tate,1998-02-12 Although psychoanalytic theory is one of the most important and influential tools in contemporary literary criticism to date it has had very little impact on the study of African American literature and culture Now Claudia Tate argues that psycholanalytic paradigms can produce rich readings of African American desire alienation and subjectivity Tate summarizes the work of such figures as Freud and Lacan with references to their contemporary literary proponents and examines a series of texts by Emma Kelly W E B Du Bois Richard Wright Zora Neale Hurston and Nella Larsen This provocative new book will serve as an introduction to psychoanalytic theory and its application for African American literature and culture Tate strikes uncharted territory and her work will be of great interest to scholars and students in African American studies

Approaches to Teaching the Novels of Nella Larsen Jacquelyn Y. McLendon,2016-09-01 Offers techniques for teaching Larsen's novels including bringing race gender class biography queer theory jazz classical music visual art Modernism the Harlem Renaissance marriage law and the tragic mulatta into college classrooms Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses To be Suddenly White Steven J. Belluscio,2006 To Be Suddenly White explores the troubled relationship between literary passing and literary realism the dominant aesthetic motivation behind the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ethnic texts considered in this study Steven J Belluscio uses the passing narrative to provide insight into how the representation of ethnic and racial subjectivity served in part to counter dominant narratives of difference To Be Suddenly White offers new readings of traditional passing narratives from the African American literary tradition such as James Weldon Johnson's The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Nella Larsen

s Passing and George Schuyler s Black No More It is also the first full length work to consider a number of Jewish American and Italian American prose texts such as Mary Antin s The Promised Land Anzia Yezierska s Bread Givers and Guido d Agostino s Olives on the Apple Tree as racial passing narratives in their own right Belluscio also demonstrates the contradictions that result from the passing narrative s exploration of racial subjectivity racial difference and race itself When they are seen in comparison ideological differences begin to emerge between African American passing narratives and white ethnic Jewish American and Italian American passing narratives According to Belluscio the former are more likely to engage in a direct critique of ideas of race while the latter have a tendency to become more simplistic acculturation narratives in which a character moves from a position of ethnic difference to one of full American identity The desire to be suddenly white serves as a continual point of reference for Belluscio enabling him to analyze how writers even when overtly aware of the problematic nature of race especially African American writers are also aware of the conditions it creates the transformations it provokes and the consequences of both By examining the content and context of these works Belluscio elucidates their engagement with discourses of racial and ethnic differences assimilation passing and identity an approach that has profound implications for the understanding of American literary history Quicksand Nella Larsen, 1995 Losing the Plot Pardis Dabashi, 2023-11-06 An examination of the relationship between literature and classical Hollywood cinema reveals a profound longing for plot in modernist fiction The modernist novel sought to escape what Virginia Woolf called the tyranny of plot Yet even as twentieth century writers pushed against the constraints of plot driven Victorian novels plot kept its hold on them through the influence of another medium the cinema Focusing on the novels of Nella Larsen Djuna Barnes and William Faulkner writers known for their affinities and connections to classical Hollywood Pardis Dabashi links the moviegoing practices of these writers to the tensions between the formal properties of their novels and the characters in them Even when they did not feature outright happy endings classical Hollywood films often provided satisfying formal resolutions and promoted normative social and political values Watching these films modernist authors were reminded of what they were leaving behind both formally and in the name of aesthetic experimentalism by losing the plot Prove It On Me Erin D. Chapman, 2012-02-24 Prove It On Me explores the sexual politics of the modern racial ethos and reveals the exploitative underside of the New Negro era Analyzing intersecting primitivism consumerism and New Negro patriarchal aspirations this history investigates the uses made of black women in 1920s racial politics and popular culture Collected works by Nella Larsen. Zackodnik, 2009-09-18 From abolition through the years just before the civil rights struggle began African American women recognized that a mixed race woman made for a powerful and at times very useful figure in the battle for racial justice The Mulatta and the Politics of Race traces many key instances in which black women have wielded the image of a racially mixed woman to assault the color line In the oratory and fiction of black women from the late 1840s through the 1950s Teresa C Zackodnik finds the mulatta to be a metaphor of increasing potency Before the Civil War white female abolitionists created the image of the tragic mulatta caught between races rejected by all African American women put the mulatta to diverse political use Black women used the mulatta figure to invoke and manage American and British abolitionist empathy and to contest racial stereotypes of womanhood in the postbellum United States The mulatta aided writers in critiquing the New Negro Renaissance and gave writers leverage to subvert the aims of mid twentieth century mainstream American culture The Mulatta and the Politics of Race focuses on the antislavery lectures and appearances of Ellen Craft and Sarah Parker Remond the domestic fiction of Pauline Hopkins and Frances Harper the Harlem Renaissance novels of Jessie Fauset and Nella Larsen and the little known 1950s texts of Dorothy Lee Dickens and Reba Lee Throughout the author discovers the especially valuable and as yet unexplored contributions of these black women and their uses of the mulatta in prose and speech The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader Henry Abelove, 2012-10-02 Bringing together forty two groundbreaking essays many of them already classics The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader provides a much needed introduction to the contemporary state of
