The Name Of The Game By Lisa Weseman:

Best Laid Plans Elizabeth Palmer,2012-07-02 Raven haired anchorwoman Violet Gallagher is a planner and a plotter not a dreamer She reads self help books not fairy tales keeps a five year plan not a journal But when she catches the eye of a handsome stranger across the room at a party given in her honor it suddenly feels like a very enchanted evening Jake Macintyre globe trotting photojournalist and Prince Charming look alike is as impulsive as Violet is cautious Although he knows the unexpected interlude with his dream girl from the nightly news is ill timed his motto is seize the moment and the girl So with no fairy godmother to impose a curfew Violet allows Jake to escort her home after midnight where she loses more than just her dancing shoes The next morning however she discovers he isn't the sort of Prince who hangs around the castle but the adventurous kind who slays dragons pursues grails and embarks on quests Or as he explains it he's about to begin a year long assignment in a distant foreign country Violet's fairy tale alas will have no happily ever after Or will it This isn't The End but only the first chapter of a timeless love story Sensuality Level Sensual Although she was admonished to stop making things up when she was a child Elizabeth Palmer never did She took early retirement from her job in IT and now spends her days with the ever changing cast of characters in her head her handsome husband and the requisite author's cat

The Baseball Filmography, 1915 through 2001, 2d ed. Hal Erickson,2010-05-10 Since the first baseball movie Little Sunset in 1915 Hollywood has had an on again off again affair with the sport releasing more than 100 films through 2001 This is a filmography of those films Each entry contains full cast and credits a synopsis and a critique of the movie Behind the scenes and background information is included and two sections cover baseball shorts and depictions of the game in non baseball films An extensive bibliography completes the work

Who Was Who on TV Norman Chance,2010-12-22 The information herein was accumulated over fifty some odd years The collection process started when TV first came out and continued until today The books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010 The author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role Also included are most of the people who created the shows the producers directors and the writers of the shows These books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories I know a lot of times we think back and say Who was the guy that played such and such a role Enjoy

Sources in Film Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes,John Parris Springer,2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained. The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film. In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape. The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane, M A S H, This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon. Topics include the docudrama in early cinema, the industrial film as faux documentary, the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films, the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms. The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres.

Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here: How Documentaries Work. Jacob Bricca, 2023. How Documentaries Work breaks down the hidden conventions of documentaries in clear and accessible language for film studies students and documentary enthusiasts alike. Jacob Bricca, ACE, an award winning documentary editor, producer and director with a track record of delivering impactful presentations to lay audiences, provides a behind the scenes, under the hood view of what's really going on in the construction of non-fiction films and television shows. This book presents examples from contemporary documentaries and docuseries and delivers insights from some of the most exciting non-fiction filmmakers and craftspeople working today, including director Steve James, City So Real, Hoop Dreams, producer Amy Ziering, Allen v Farrow, The Hunting Ground, editor Aaron Wickenden, Roadrunner: A Film About Anthony Bourdain, 20 Feet from Stardom and composer Miriam Cutler, RBG: Lost in La Mancha. Chapters such as Flow: Narrative, Meaning and Time offer a completely new way of looking at documentary film language while others like Music: Titles and Sound deliver extraordinary insights on seemingly ordinary topics. A compact volume written in plain, easy to understand language, this book promises to change the way you think about non-fiction films and television shows forever.

What's the Score? Bonnie J. Morris, 2022-06-07. Who is the first female athlete you admired? Were male and female athletes treated differently in your high school? Is there a natural limit to women's athletic ability? How has Title IX opened up opportunities for women athletes? Every semester since 1996, Bonnie Morris has encouraged students to confront questions like these in one of the most provocative college courses in America: Athletics and Gender: A History of Women's Sports. What's the Score? Morris's energetic teaching memoir is a peek inside that class and features a decades-long dialogue with student athletes about the greater opportunities for women on the playing field, as coaches and in sports media. From corsets to segregated schoolyards to the WNBA, we find women athletes the world over conquering unique barriers to success. What's the Score? is not only an insider's look at sports education but also an engaging guide to turning points in women's sports history that everyone should know.
