The Transit of Venus Shirley Hazzard, 2026-01-15 A wonderfully mysterious book unforgettably rich ANNE TYLER Caro gallant and adventurous is one of two Australian sisters who have come to post war England to seek their fortunes Courtied long and hopelessly by young scientist Ted Tice she is to find that love brings passion sorrow betrayal and finally hope The milder Grace seeks fulfilment in an apparently happy marriage But as the decades pass and the characters weave in and out of each other's lives love death and two slow burning secrets wait in ambush for them From the Orange Prize shortlisted author of THE GREAT FIRE

Male Perspectives in Atwood's "Bluebeard's Egg" and Hazzard's The Transit of Venus Giada Goracci, 2016-06-22 Postmodern revisions of fairy tales have influenced several discourses and disciplines especially during the second half of the twentieth century In particular during the course of postmodernism the rewriting of classic fairy tales has contributed to the subversion of their stereotypical structures thus advancing alternative re readings This work offers an investigation into gender discourse in two postmodern re writings of Bluebeard namely Margaret Atwood's Bluebeard's Egg and Shirley Hazzard's The Transit of Venus especially focusing on male queer perspectives that have not yet been taken into consideration Starting from an overview on the diverse conceptualisations of the terms gender and sexuality in modern and contemporary times this book analyses the birth and evolution of male studies and subsequently explores the ways in which they have influenced the interpretation of classical tales By means of an intertwined and shifting process which enables the characters of these contemporary revisions to disguise their identities within the pages and beyond their texts the figure of Bluebeard reveals himself as the in between pattern for contemporary gender conceptualisations

Portraits of Women in International Law Immi Tallgren, 2023-04-15 Current histories seem to suggest that men alone have been capable of the development of ideas analysis and practice of international law until the 1990s Is this the case Or have others been erased from the collective images of this history including the portrait gallery of notables in international law Portraits of Women in International Law New Names and Forgotten Faces investigates the slow and late inclusion of women in the spheres of knowledge and power in international law The forty two textual and visual representations by a diverse team of passionate portraitists represent women and gender non conforming people in international law from the fourteenth century onwards around the world individuals and groups who imagined developed or contested international law who earned their living in its institutions or who even indirectly may have changed its course This rich volume calls for a critical identification of the formal and informal institutional practices norms and rituals of white masculinities both in the past and in the research of international law today By abandoning reductive histories their biased frames and tacit assumptions this work brings previously unseen glimpses of international law and its agents ideas causes behaviour norms and social practices into the spotlight

Outback and Out West Tom Lynch, 2022-11 Outback and Out West examines the ecological consequences of a settler colonial imaginary by comparing expressions of settler colonialism in the literature of the American West and Australian Outback Tom Lynch traces exogenous domination in both regions which resulted in many similar means of settlement including pastoralism homestead acts afforestation efforts and bioregional efforts at belonging Lynch pairs the two nations texts to show how an analysis at the intersection of ecocriticism and settler colonialism requires a new canon that is responsive to the social cultural and ecological difficulties created by settlement in the West and Outback Outback and Out West draws out the regional Anthropocene dimensions of settler colonialism considering such pressing environmental problems as habitat loss groundwater depletion and mass extinctions Lynch studies the implications of our settlement heritage on history art and the environment through the cross national comparison of spaces He asserts that bringing an ecocritical awareness to settler colonial theory is essential for reconciliation with dispossessed Indigenous populations as well as reparations for ecological damages as we work to decolonize engagement with and literature about these places

Between Terror and Tourism Michael Mewshaw, 2010-02-16 For his 65th birthday acclaimed novelist

Michael Mewshaw took a 4 000 mile overland trip across North Africa Arriving in Egypt during food riots he heads west into Libya where billions in oil money have produced little except citizens eager to flee to Europe or join the jihad in Iraq In Tunis Mewshaw visits an abandoned Star Wars movie set where Al Qaeda has just kidnapped two tourists Ignoring U S Embassy warnings he crosses into Algeria traveling through mountain towns and seething metropolises where 200 000 people have died during more than a decade of sectarian violence Searching for the tombs of seven monks murdered by Islamic fundamentalists he reaches a village where six more people have been beheaded the day before When he interviews a repentant terrorist responsible for 5 000 deaths the man praises the Boy Scouts for training him By contrast the Moroccan city of Tangier seems almost tame But then he meets the last literary prot g of Paul Bowles who accuses Bowles of plagiarism and murder In the end the reader like the author is immersed in a fascinating adventure that s sometimes tragic often funny occasionally terrifying and always a revelation of a strange place and its people The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby,2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature

Lifting the Sentence Robert Fraser,2000 Art politics and dissent provides a counter history to conventional accounts of American art Close historical examinations of particular events in Los Angeles and New York in the 1960s are interwoven with discussion of the location of these events normally marginalised or overlooked in the history of cultural politics in the United States during the postwar period This book is based on detailed and new research from a range of sources including the alternative press such as the Los Angeles Free Press public and private archives interviews and oral histories Interdisciplinary in approach it adds substantially to recent innovative research and teaching approaches in art history and other related disciplines Provides essential case studies for taught courses scholarly debate and general cross disciplinary readership

The King's English Pb Betsy Burton,2006-08-09 Betsy Burton one of the owners of The King s English Bookshop in Salt Lake City Utah shares anecdotes from throughout the history of the store discussing employees author visits and the joys and challenges of running an independent bookstore and including reading lists in a range of subject areas Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon,2016-07-09 Australia is the planet s sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginaries of European colonisation It prises apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands both their real and material conditions and their symbolic power from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island s mirror The inter relationship of the island fantasy colonial expansion and the literary construction of place and history created a new man the dislocated and alienated subject of post colonial modernity This book looks at the contradictory images of islands from the allure of the desert island as a paradise where the world can be made anew to their roles as prisons as these ideas are made concrete at moments of British colonialism It also considers alternatives to viewing islands as objects of possession in the archipelagic visions of island theorists and writers It compares the European understandings of the first and last of the new worlds the Caribbean archipelago and the Australian island continent to calibrate the different ways these disparate geographies unified and fractured the concept of the planetary globe In particular it examines the role of the island in this process specifically its capacity to figure a graspable globe in the mind The book draws on the colonial archive and ranges across Australian literature from the first novel written and published in Australia by a convict on the island of Tasmania to both the ancient dreaming and the burgeoning literature of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders in the twenty first century It discusses Australian literature in an international context drawing on the long traditions of literary islands across a range of cultures The book s approach is theoretical and engages with contemporary philosophy which uses the island and the archipleago as a key metaphor It is also historicist and includes considerable original historical research

The Flight Attendant's Shoe Prudence Black, 2011-09-01 Come fly come fly away Stiletto heels miniskirts bobbed wigs shiny new technology and exotic locations were all part of the cosmopolitan life style of the Qantas flight hostesses Today there are over 9000 flight attendants in Australia traversing the skies all wearing a corporate uniform The Flight Attendant s Shoe is the story of the Qantas uniforms and the uniforms of other airlines It is a story about etiquette and protocol about nationalism and internationalism and the way the Australian fashion industry and international designers such as Emilio Pucci and Yves Saint Laurent created a range of designs for flight crew from khaki military style to burnt orange miniskirts and on to the Morrissey designed Indigenous boomerang print Through their uniforms the men and women of the Qantas cabin crew wore the hopes of a young nation forging its identity Stitching together fashion history social history and industrial history this book celebrates an era when flying was truly glamorous

Closer and Closer Apart Rosemary H. Lloyd, 2019-05-15 Envy Rosemary Lloyd says involves what one would like to have but does not jealousy what one has but fears losing Lloyd demonstrates in Closer and Closer Apart how the passion unleashed by jealousy can illuminate such concepts as self and other gender and society Jealousy in her view exerts a powerful attraction in literature partly because it distorts the individual s perceptions of the other in highly productive ways and partly because it serves as paradigms for reading and for storytelling In this accessible and elegantly crafted book Lloyd explores sexual jealousy more as a literary devise than as a literary theme She draws her examples from novels plays and poetry spanning many years and from many countries mainly nineteenth and twentieth century France and England but also Russia Poland Germany Italy the United States Canada and Australia Among the writers she treats are Proust Tolstoy

Dostoyevsky Charlotte Bront Trollope Barthes and Baudelaire After discussing various portraits of the jealous lover Lloyd asks to what extent the literary experience of jealousy has been colored by conventional images of male and female roles She also examines the ways in which the jealous lover deals with the other whether beloved or rival Finally she looks at jealousy as a desire for control represented through images of incorporation and possession
