Daphne Cooper William H L Dorsey Bertis D English Precious D Hall Beverly A Johnson Maruice Mangum Natasha Altema McNeely Amardo Rodriguez Randall Swain Edward V Wallace Ingrid P Whitaker and Mark M Whitaker Beginning early in his career Dr Martin Luther King Jr recognized the moral and humanitarian need to pursue social justice and equity for marginalized Americans those for whom the American dream had proven to be an elusive ideal In Dream and Legacy Volume II Revisiting King in the Post Civil Rights Era contributors sift through the historical record engaging one of America s most consequential radical historical traditions Despite robust reform efforts since the 1930s a wide range of policy related challenges plague the lives of African Americans other persons of color women and the poor in the twenty first century This anthology like the first from coeditors Michael L Clemons Donathan L Brown and William H L Dorsey applies the ideology and activism of Dr King to its analysis of contemporary sociopolitical issues in the United States and abroad The project begins with a foreword that situates the subsequent essays within the context of contemporary social developments Grouped into themed sections the essays cover such topics as voting rights public protest police brutality poverty and wage discrimination healthcare and more The epilogue concludes with a discussion of the timeless impact of Dr King s philosophy and activism as well as the implications of his work for the future of domestic and global leadership Dream and Legacy Volume II identifies a variety of practical lessons that can help resolve contemporary social problems Teaching

U.S.-Educated Multilingual Writers Mark Roberge,Kay M. Losey,Margi Wald,2015-06-04 This volume was born to address the lack of classroom oriented scholarship regarding U S educated multilingual writers Unlike prior volumes about U S educated multilinguals this book focuses solely on pedagogy from classroom activities and writing assignments to course curricula and pedagogical support programs outside the immediate classroom Unlike many pedagogical volumes that are written in the voice of an expert researcher theorist this volume is based on the notion of teachers sharing practices with teachers All of the contributors are teachers who are writing about and reflecting on their own experiences and outcomes and interweaving those experiences and outcomes with current theory and research in the field The volume thus portrays teachers as active reflective participants engaged in critical inquiry Contributors represent community college college and university contexts academic ESL developmental writing and first year composition classes and face to face hybrid and online contexts This book was developed primarily to meet the needs of practicing writing teachers in college level ESL basic writing and college composition classrooms but will also be useful to pre service teachers in TESOL Composition and Education graduate programs Theories, Models, and Practices of Literacy Misty Sailors,Idalia Nuñez,Vaughn W. M.

Watson,James V. Hoffman,Donna E. Alvermann,2025-11-11 This eighth edition of Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy a foundational text in literacy research is updated to represent a new era in contemporary and critical scholarship With a revised name the intentional inclusion of diverse perspectives and new organizational structure Theories Models and Practices of Literacy thoroughly represents the theories that drive literacy and the scholars who write about and within the field While still representing the most comprehensive source for connecting theories to literacy research and practice this eighth edition builds on preceding editions contextualizing its historical roots promoting and highlighting contemporary and critical theories and envisioning future directions in literacy This volume addresses theories across ten sections including early youth and community literacies teaching literacy and literacy teacher education disabilities and disciplinary literacy theories digital and multimodal literacies and the disruption of colonial boundaries in language and global literacies The chapters in this volume are curated to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and foster its evolution Additional archival essays from previous editions will remain available as Support Material on the book's webpage New to the eighth edition 80% new material and significantly revised previous materials to reflect emerging and contemporary theories and scholarship A more globalized approach to theorizing literacy practices including those with onto epistemological perspectives rooted in people's lived experiences literacies and languages to engage scholars and audiences who may be new users of the text Focus on theories that actively challenge traditional theoretical literacy frames and raise critical consciousness toward communities marginalized by the white gaze historically represented in literacy theory literacy research and literacy education New avenues for readers to explore how theory informs practice practice informs theory and how both are taken up in various contexts e.g. classrooms schools communities and societies

From Hip-Hop to Hyperlinks Joanna N. Paull, 2009-03-26 From Hip Hop to Hyperlinks is a text designed to invigorate composition teachers' classroom approaches for getting students to better understand American culture's The contributors share their strategies from their classrooms including such exciting topics as food comedy music technology and photography Readers may use this collection in a pragmatic way or as inspiration for developing and revising their current cultural curriculum In general these essays trace semester-long course structures to allow readers to see how one assignment leads into the next often offering student writing samples along the way There is not another collection out there quite like this one Ideal for graduate students learning strategies for teaching new teachers seeking some effective strategies or even seasoned professors looking for new teaching ideas From Hip Hop to Hyperlinks is an exciting addition to any composition instructor's collection of teaching texts

The End of Prisons. Mechthild E. Nagel, Anthony J. Nocella, 2013-05-01 This book brings together a collection of social justice scholars and activists who take Foucault's concept of discipline and punishment to explain how prisons are constructed in society from nursing homes to zoos This book expands the concept of prison to include any institution that dominates oppresses and controls Criminologists and others who have been concerned with reforming or dismantling the criminal justice system have mostly avoided to look at larger carceral structures in society In this book for example scholars and activists question the way patriarchy has incapacitated women and imagine the deinstitutionalization of people with disabilities In a time when popular sentiment critiques the dominant role of the elites the one percenters the state's role in policing dissenting voices school children LGBTQ persons people of color and American Indian Nations' needs to be investigated A prison as defined in this book is an institution or system that oppresses and does not allow freedom for a particular group Within this definition we include the imprisonment of nonhuman animals and plants which are too often overlooked

On History and Memory in Arab Literature and Western Poetics Bootheina Majoul, Yosra Amraoui, 2020-10-06

Texts act like receptacles for an ever present remembered past or what the French philosopher Paul Ricur calls the present representation of an absent thing They might embody an efficient remedy to forgetting but could also become a vivid testimony for exorcised traumas This volume focuses on Ricur's phenomenology of memory epistemology of history and hermeneutics of forgetting A special emphasis is laid on the dissension between individual and collective institutional memory

Women in Academic Psychiatry Sophia Frangou, 2016-09-01 This text comprises of sixteen first person narratives from some of the most influential women in psychiatry about why they went into the field what they attribute to success and how they overcame their challenges The second part of this text analyzes the themes brought to light in the narrative and discusses strategies for success Though several of the chapters target issues that women in academic psychiatry may not have a resource for several of the chapters discuss challenges that both men and women face including strategic actions and decisions and the time investment necessary for a successful career in academic psychiatry The topics are relevant to medical professionals at every level of their career who are or work with women in the field

Women in Academic Psychiatry is a unique resource for the professional woman in psychiatry psychology medical school for men who face particular career challenges in academic medicine or are cultivating young women who are eager to succeed

Play the Game. Change the Game. Leave the Game. Robert Livingston, 2025-09-09 Instead of waiting for White people to change Black people must prioritize their own prosperity power and self determination by navigating challenging and exiting racist systems a radical argument from a Harvard behavioral scientist It's time to face an inconvenient truth our current approach to fighting racism is just not working For a brief moment following the murder of George Floyd it seemed as though the country had finally acknowledged the destructive legacy of slavery and White supremacy and had committed to putting things right Now a horde of prominent voices many of whom professed to be antiracist allies are pulling back cutting support and defunding programs that sought to level the playing field Harvard psychologist Robert Livingston contends that racism operates like an addiction for so many White people hard to admit and even harder to quit Given their unwillingness to kick the habit where does this leave Black people In this provocative book Livingston has flipped the script asking How can Black people attain prosperity and peace of mind despite the enduring presence of racism Livingston reveals three paths Play the game or find ways to work within mainstream predominantly White systems without sacrificing your identity or dignity Think of Kenneth Chenault a tempered radical who rose through the ranks to become the first Black CEO of American Express Change the game or challenge the status quo in an effort to upend White supremacy like Colin Kaepernick whose idealism cost him his football career but made him an icon Leave the game or turn away from White environments to carve out spaces where Black people can flourish from HBCUs to entrepreneurship to the creation of ethnic enclaves like the all Black middle class neighborhood where Livingston himself grew up Drawing on social science his own experiences and interviews with trailblazing Black leaders and luminaries Livingston reveals the contours of these oft overlapping paths for effectively navigating mitigating and circumventing White supremacy Play the Game Change the Game Leave the Game is a bold groundbreaking proposition that empowers readers to make the leap from being played to creating their own game plan

Selected Contemporary Challenges of Ageing Policy Łukasz Tomczyk, Andrzej Klimczuk, 2017-11-23 This volume Selected Contemporary Challenges of Aging Policy is the most international of all published monographs from the series Czech Polish Slovak Studies in Andragogy and Social Gerontology Among the scholars trying to grasp the nuances and trends of social policy there are diverse perspectives resulting not only from the extensive knowledge of the authors on the systematic approach to the issue of supporting older people but also from the grounds of the represented social gerontology schools In the texts of Volume VII interesting are both distinct and coherent elements presenting the role of local regional and global policies in the prism of the countries from which the authors originate the Czech Republic Slovenia Lithuania Latvia Poland Slovakia Italy Turkey and the United States The chapters show a wealth of methodological approaches to the perception of social policy and its tools In the texts there are issues related to the idea of active ageing discrimination against older people in the workplace comparability of solutions friendly to employment of older adults in the Czech Republic Poland and Slovakia as well as focused on the importance of educational forms universities of the third age senior clubs folk high schools and other non formal solutions determining an active life in old age This monograph also attempted to answer the question regarding how to transfer the idea of intergenerational learning into the realm of practice This issue complements the chapter on the implementation of intergenerational programs in institutions providing long term care support The book also outlines a public policy on ageing in the perspective of the changes over the last few decades Slovenia and the case demonstrating solutions to accelerate self reliance as a key to active ageing Turkey We hope that seventh volume of our series will be an intellectual stimulus for further international research on change in social policy and will contribute to the dissemination of best practices as well as contribute to positive social change Disruptive Stories Elizabeth

Kleinfeld, Sohui Lee, Julie Prebel, 2024-06-28 Disruptive Stories uses an activist editing method to select and publish authors that have been marginalized in scholarly conversations and enrich the understanding of lived writing center experiences that have been underrepresented in writing center scholarship These chapters explore how marginality affects writing centers the people who work in them and the scholarship generated from them by examining the consequences both positive and negative of marginalization through a mix of narratives and research Contributors provide unique perspectives ranging across status role nationality race and ability While US tenure track writing center administrators WCAs do not make up the majority of those who hold WCA positions in writing centers they are more likely to be the storytellers of the writing center

grand narrative They publish more present more conference papers edit more journals and participate more in organizational leadership This collection complicates that narrative by adding marginalized voices and experiences in three thematic categories structural marginalization globalization and marginalization and embodied marginalization Disruptive Stories spurs further conversations about ways to improve the review process in writing center scholarship so that it more accurately reflects the growing diversity of its administrators and practitioners      Saving Civility Sara Hacala,2011 Presents fifty two suggestions to bring civility back to everyday interaction      Substance, Judgment, and Evaluation Patrick T. Flynn,Jean-Marie Kauth,John Kevin Doyle,Scott J. Lee,2010-06-10 Substance Judgment and Evaluation Seeking the Worth of a Liberal Arts Core Text Education selectively presents the thoughts of scholars and teachers of liberal arts core text education on how their programs formulate and advance a value centered education What emerges from this selection is the wide scope of core text programs underlying the semantic intention of words such as value centered judgment or even liberal arts or collegiate and colleague This volume records the cooperation and thoughtful consideration of faculty from a wide range of higher education institutions research universities comprehensive universities colleges and community colleges who have chosen to come together to form such programs across North America This volume should be of value to any dean director or faculty member who seeks to work with colleagues and texts across disciplines to form a coherent undergraduate program of study within general education      Raise Your Voices Thomas M. McCann,Andrew Bouque,Dawn Forde,Elizabeth A. Kahn,Carolyn C. Walter,2018-11-06 In a collection of chapters from high school teachers and university researchers Raise Your Voices offers English language arts teachers one stop shopping to learn how to foster dialogic classrooms and how to prompt sustain connect and assess classroom discussions especially discussions about issues that adolescents find consequential The chapters explore both the basics for facilitating discussion to support literacy learning and the principles for assessing the progress and effect of discussion and for including all students in lively dialogue Taken together the entries in this book envision the English language arts classroom as a supportive environment for authentic inquiry and for the genuine democratic processes involved in grappling together with tough perennial and contemporary issues      Memory, Invention, and Delivery Richard Dagger,Christopher Metress,J. Scott Lee,2016-02-04 In a time when liberal arts education is increasingly under attack this volume reminds readers that dedicated teachers at colleges and universities are passing on the heritage of liberal education as well as constructing its future Future citizens businesswomen and men scientists artists and those working in educational or social programs will all benefit from the insights of this volume into historical ethical literary and philosophical perspectives provided by core text liberal arts education      Darwinism in Argentina Leila Gómez,2012 Darwinism in Argentina Major Texts 1845 1909 brings together essays letters short stories and public lectures by travelers scientists writers and politicians about Darwin and the theory of evolution in nineteenth century Argentina This selection of texts provides a thorough overview of the socio ideological implications of the theory of evolution in South America as well as the intellectual debate this scientific theory promoted in the discourses of fiction law history and medicine in the formation of modern Argentina Some writers in this book considered the theory of evolution to be Argentinean because Darwin first conceived his theory traveling in the Beagle across the big cemetery of glyptodont and megatherium fossils on the pampas and in Patagonia This anthology includes texts from William H Hudson Francisco Mu iz Florentino Ameghino Eduardo Holmberg Domingo F Sarmiento Hermann Burmeister the Perito Moreno Leopoldo Lugones Jos Mar a Ramos Mej a and Jos Ingenieros among others Many of these texts have not been translated to English or reprinted until this edition which was originally published with fewer texts in Spanish in 2008 Leila G mez s introduction reconstructs the historical scientific contexts of the Darwinist debate in Argentina the role of paleontology as modern discipline in South American countries and the tensions between metropolitan and local scientific knowledge Both the anthology and the introduction present a panorama of Darwin and evolution in Argentina and the complex mechanism of inclusion and exclusion of indigenous African descendants mestizos and immigrants in the modern nation Darwinism in Argentina provides critical perspectives on evolutionism in South America that will interest students and specialists in literature history and science
