50 Ways To Close The Achievement Gap:

50 Ways to Close the Achievement Gap Carolyn J. Downey, 2009 Outlines research based strategies for developing high performing schools and fostering educational equity for all students Facilitator's Guide, 50 Ways to Close the Achievement Gap Carolyn J. Downey, Betty E. Steffy, Corwin (Firm), William K. Poston, Fenwick W. English, 2013-05 Provides 50 strategies that educators can implement to improve students achievements in schools 50 Ways to Close the Achievement Gap Carolyn J. Downey, Betty E. Steffy, William K. Poston, Jr., Fenwick W. English, 2008-09-26 Clear updated guidelines for increasing academic performance and providing educational equity for all students This revised guide outlines 50 strategies for developing high performing schools Emphasizing educational parity for all students the book is organized around six standards Teach a well crafted focused valid and clear curriculum Align assessments programs and instructional resources with curriculum Promote student equality and equity Focus on mastery learning and effective teaching strategies Provide resources for establishing curriculum expectations monitoring and accountability Institute effective district and school planning staff development and resource allocation to create a quality learning environment 50 Ways to Close the Achievement Gap, 2009 Outlines research based strategies for developing high performing schools and fostering educational equity for all students The Broken Compass Keith Robinson, 2014-01-06 It seems like common sense that children do better when parents are actively involved in their schooling But how well does the evidence stack up The Broken Compass puts this question to the test in the most thorough scientific investigation to date of how parents across socioeconomic and ethnic groups contribute to the academic performance of K 12 children The surprising discovery is that no clear connection exists between parental involvement and student performance Keith Robinson and Angel Harris assessed over sixty measures of parental participation at home and in school While some of the associations they found were consistent with past studies others ran contrary to previous research and popular perceptions It is not the case that Hispanic and African American parents are less concerned about education or that Tiger parenting among Asian Americans gets the desired results Many low income parents want to be involved in their children s school lives but often receive little support from school systems For immigrant families language barriers only worsen the problem In this provocative work Robinson and Harris believe that the time has come to reconsider whether parental involvement can make much of a dent in the basic problems facing American schools today Supporting Activist Practices in Education Ramsay-Jordan, Natasha N., Crenshaw, Andrea N., 2024-02-27 In today s educational landscape a pressing issue looms deeply entrenched within the system are the prevailing cultural norms that have historically perpetuated the dominance of white middle class values This has in turn marginalized and stigmatized traditionally underrepresented student cultures as inherently deficient As the United States educational system grapples with a dramatic increase in low income non white and linguistically diverse students now is the time to confront these inequalities that undermine student achievement This challenge has thrust teachers into the forefront compelling them to embrace social justice practices in their classrooms as counternarratives Supporting Activist Practices in Education emerges as a timely and essential solution to address this educational conundrum Within the pages of this book a compelling narrative unfolds one that delves deep into the experiences of educators who actively employ teaching as a form of activism transcending traditional norms Teaching through activism as defined in this volume represents the courageous actions of educators who champion participatory citizenship for social justice within their classrooms nurturing environments that foster critical thinking about the world This book emphasizes the imperative of challenging and dismantling systemic injustices and it underscores the pivotal role of social justice as a framework for effective pedagogical practices

Advancing the Three-Minute Walk-Through Carolyn J. Downey, 2010 An expanded examination of the Downey Walk Through this sequel shows leaders how to help teachers improve their practice by engaging them in reflection and professional dialogue

A Practice-based Model of STEM Teaching Alpaslan Sahin, 2015-07-21 The STEM Students on the Stage SOS TM model was developed by Harmony Public Schools with the goal of teaching rigorous content in an engaging fun and effective way In this book you will learn that the STEM SOS model is not only helping students learn STEM content and develop 21st century skills but also helping teachers improve their classroom climate through increased student teacher communication and a reduction in classroom management issues There are at least two ways in which this book is innovative First you will find student videos and websites associated with QR codes readers can use their QR readers to watch student videos related to the content in the chapter and see student e portfolio samples at their Google sites This provides the opportunity to see that what is discussed in the book actually happened Second the book is not about a theory it is an actual implemented model that has evolved through the years and has been used in more than 25 schools since 2012 Every year the model continues to be improved to increase its rigor and ease of implementation for both teachers and students In addition to using the book as a classroom teacher resource and guide it can also be used as a textbook in advanced graduate level curriculum and instruction educational leadership and STEM education programs Therefore STEM educators leaders pre service and in service teachers and graduate students will all benefit from reading this book Appendices will be one of the favorite aspects of this book for teachers who are constantly looking for ready to use student and teacher handouts and activities Full handouts including formative and summative assessments materials and grading rubrics will provide an opportunity for teachers and curriculum directors to understand the ideas and secrets behind the STEM SOS model Lastly STEM directors will find this to be one of the best STEM teaching model examples on the market because the model has fully accessible student and teacher handouts assessment materials rubrics and hundreds of student products e portfolios including video presentations and project brochures online

Closing the Achievement Gap in America Dr. Jesse J. Hargrove, 2011-07-22 This book reveals how this new generation of learners the Deuce Millennium Generation DMG began their journey from Pre kindergarten at the start of the new millennium in fall 2001 to their middle school years This generation has endured the societal effects of the post 9 11 years for almost ten years yet the author asserts that they will be the best and the brightest He contends that the recent educational training delivered by highly skilled Teacher Training Institutions will contribute to an increase in students knowledge and performance on high stakes measures of assessments over the years The book acknowledges that accreditation is a key factor that plays an important role in the student achievement process This book is a primary source for understanding how the achievement gap in America can be closed The author contends that this scholarly work is the first comprehensive book written on the subject He engages the audiences in issues that are thought provoking and makes the case that the historical social and public education processes have a profound impact on the learning outcomes of students in American schools It is easy to understand why the author puts a name and a face on this new generation of learners The book reveals a clear picture concerning who this generation is and what effects will occur to them if the signs of the times are not reversed This book should be read and used by all Teacher Training Institutions teachers parents and decision makers who are interested in Closing the Achievement Gap in America The gap issue is a national imperative Creating a Culture for High-Performing Schools Cletus R. Bulach, Frederick C. Lunenburg, Les Potter, 2011-12-16 A high performing school is described as one where student achievement is high and student and teacher absenteeism is low Student behavior is such that teachers seldom have to control them or tell them what to do This results in greater time on task higher teacher morale low teacher absenteeism and improved parental support One other distinctive feature of a high performing school is that the student peer group is a positive force and not a negative force The end result is a school culture where faculty and students trust and care about each other and there is a cooperative attitude Commemorating the 50th Anniversary of brown V. Board of Education: Kenneth K. Wong, 2014-04-04 This special issue commemorates and reassesses the educational effects of the Brown decision The articles are grounded in theories and methods of several disciplines including law philosophy economics political science sociology and public policy The researchers examine the way the Court frames racial inequality and whether the proposed remedy is consistent with the institutional and legal context at the time of the ruling In addressing these questions the authors pay particular attention to the nature of the constitutional argument use of social evidence in shaping judicial decisions the political economy of policy development and implementation in addressing racial desegregation and the ongoing challenge of ensuring equality of schooling opportunity for the increasingly diverse student population English Language Program Administration MaryAnn Christison, Fredricka L. Stoller, 2023-05-26 This volume provides both practicing and aspiring Language Program Administrators with knowledge about the research and theory that underpin key topics in educational leadership as well as practical guidance for the day to day management of language programs including budgets personnel decision making strategic planning advocacy and digital technologies The volume brings together 46 authors and contributors with a vast array of experiences as administrators of English language teaching programs all over the world in Asia Australia Europe the Middle East New Zealand North Central and South America South Africa Turkey and the United Kingdom As the need for more qualified administrators and leaders has increased more teacher education programs have added formal courses on leadership and program administration to their offerings Educators teaching these courses will find this volume to be an excellent core text to support students in developing their knowledge of and skills for language program administration All chapters are connected to the contemporary realities of language program administration and they offer practical guidance to Language Program Administrators in ways that are adaptable to different administrative contexts globally Closing the Achievement Gap from an International Perspective Julia V. Clark, 2013-10-24 In a changing world that demands new skills a vital concern of public education is the gap in academic performance between low and high achieving students There is no excuse for the achievement gaps that persist among poor and minority students in schools today All students can succeed at high levels regardless of race ethnicity and economic background Several countries have successfully confronted inequities in achievement demonstrating that any school can close achievement gaps regardless of the community they serve and that all students can achieve at high levels when they are provided with the right opportunities This book is about understanding what factors selected countries have applied to promote progress and what factors contribute to progress in the closing of achievement gaps It is about creating opportunities for all students Closing the Achievement Gap from an International Perspective Transforming STEM for Effective Education is written in response to rising concern for the improvement of quality education especially in mathematics and science provided to all students The contributors take a systematic view of the subject beginning with a cross national analysis of teacher qualifications and the achievement gap that spans 50 countries The content of the book is organized in sections describing education around the globe North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia Individual chapters offer close up analysis of efforts to close achievement gaps in the U S and Canada Mexico England Turkey China South Africa and Australia among many others The contributors provide information on the achievement gap in mathematics and science review current research and present strategies for fostering improvement and raising performance with a focus on school related variables that adversely affect educational outcomes among poor and minority students The authors of the various chapters looked at how students data correlated with classroom practices teacher instruction and academic programming as part of their efforts to measure student growth Qualitative and quantitative data are provided to provide evidence not only of the problem but also for the solution The book concludes with a chapter on promoting equality and equity to shrink the achievement gap worldwide The Instructional Leader's Guide to Closing Achievement Gaps Teresa D. Hill, 2024-06-17 All the tools that educators need to improve student outcomes and close achievement gaps Although it s easy to connect out of school factors such as poverty or the pandemic to achievement gaps in schools today education leaders need to focus on what s within their school or district s control to ensure equitable learning outcomes for their students In this practical guide for K 12 instructional leaders superintendent Teresa D Hill outlines five keys to effectively close achievement gaps meaningful assessment language and literacy experience and exposure consolidation of knowledge and perfect practice She walks readers through a step by step process so that they can Develop a deep understanding of the achievement gaps in their school or district including the sources and perpetuators of those gaps Prepare their team for the capacity building work ahead Closely examine the five most meaningful and effective strategies for improving outcomes that fall within their school s sphere of influence Develop and implement a real world action plan including short moderate and long term steps for closing gaps Written by a colleague who knows firsthand what it takes to increase student achievement the targeted advice and tools in The Instructional Leader s Guide to Closing Achievement Gaps will help educators confront the gaps in their school or district and make progress right away
