Athol Images Of America Massachusetts:

Around Orange Robert Tuholski, 2006 Located between the Quabbin Reservoir and the New Hampshire state line Orange has developed from a sparsely settled agrarian countryside to a thriving industrial community along the banks of the Millers River Around Orange includes images of this town and the surrounding towns of Athol Erving New Salem Warwick and Wendell Through photographs postcards and stereoview cards from a bygone era this volume provides a glimpse of what it was like to live and work in this area long ago Seen here are vintage images of schools churches public buildings homes businesses industries celebrations and disasters

Religion, Politics, Media in the Broadband Era Alice Bach, 2004 Religion has gone public and the much discussed political pendulum has been swinging widely in its effort to keep up with the eruptions of faith swelling the broadband Private faith finds very public outlets through the media s appetite for voices and choices Faith based networks have become media savvy urging their members to send barrages of emails faxes telephone calls letters of praise or outrage to politicians Those same politicians return the volley using the broadcast media with great skill wooing the faithful convincing the cynical that God is on their side Only a deity could be on so many sides simultaneously Alice Bach s new book reflects her long time focus on the Bible religion and culture Popular religion is expressed within our culture in rock videos televangelism political rhetoric children s books films and animations Every sort of media from print to electronic to broadband is imbued with subtle and blatant religious imagery The media are new the message is not The tightly woven pattern of religion politics and media has been part of the American fabric since the country was founded When one examines this cultural cloth threads of varying colours are revealed threads whose twists reflect both media coverage of religion and religious views of the media

The Atomic Bomb and American Society Rosemary B. Mariner, G. Kurt Piehler, 2009 Drawing on the latest research on the atomic bomb and its history the contributors to this provocative collection of eighteen essays set out to answer two key questions First how did the atomic bomb a product of unprecedented technological innovation rapid industrial scale manufacturing and unparalleled military deployment shape U S foreign policy the communities of workers who produced it and society as a whole And second how has American society s perception that the the bomb is a means of military deterrence in the Cold War era evolve under the influence of mass media scientists public intellectuals and even the entertainment industry In answering these questions The Atomic Bomb and American Society sheds light on the collaboration of science and the military in creating the bomb the role of women working at Los Alamos the transformation of nuclear physicists into public intellectuals as the reality of the bomb came into widespread consciousness the revolutionary change in military strategy following the invention of the bomb and the development of Cold War ideology the image of the bomb that was conveyed in the popular media and the connection of the bomb to the commemoration of World War II As it illuminates the cultural social political environmental and historical effects of the creation of the atomic bomb this volume contributes to our understanding of how democratic institutions can coexist with a technology that affects everyone even if only a few are empowered to manage it Rosemary B Mariner is formerly Joint Chiefs of Staff Chair and Professor of Military Studies for the National War College She is currently a lecturer in history at the University of Tennessee Knoxville G Kurt Piehler is associate professor of history and former director of the Center for the Study of War and Society at the University of Tennessee Knoxville which hosted the conference that formed the basis of this volume He is the author of Remembering War the American Way and World War II in the American Soldiers Lives Series as well as the coeditor with John Whiteclay Chambers II of Major Problems in American Military History
