Aesthetic Journalism How To Inform Without Informing:

Aesthetic Journalism Alfredo Cramerotti, 2009 Addressing a growing area of focus in contemporary art Aesthetic Journalism investigates why contemporary art exhibitions often consist of interviews documentaries and reportage Art theorist and critic Alfredo Cramerotti traces the shift in the production of truth from the domain of the news media to that of art and aestheticism a change that questions the very foundations of journalism and the nature of art This volume challenges the way we understand art and journalism in contemporary culture and suggests future developments of this new relationship

The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism Folker Hanusch, 2025-06-10 Taking stock of research in an area that has long been starved of scholarly attention The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism brings together scholars from across journalism communication and media studies to offer the first substantial volume of its kind in this dynamic field This Handbook is divided into five major sections covering definitions current trends the relationship between lifestyle journalism and consumer culture how lifestyle journalism interacts with matters of identity emotion politics and society and future directions Featuring 30 contributions from authors at the cutting edge of research around the world each chapter provides an authoritative overview of key literature and debates and proposes a way forward for future scholarship The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism is an essential companion for advanced students and researchers of lifestyle journalism and related beats including food fashion and travel writing

The Curatorial Jean-Paul Martinon, 2013-10-24 Stop curating And think what curating is all about This book starts from this simple premise thinking the activity of curating To do that it distinguishes between curating and the curatorial If curating is a gamut of professional practices for setting up exhibitions then the curatorial explores what takes place on the stage set up both intentionally and unintentionally by the curator It therefore refers not to the staging of an event but to the event of knowledge itself In order to start thinking about curating this book takes a new approach to the topic Instead of relying on conventional art historical narratives for example identifying the moments when artistic and curatorial practices merged or when the global curator author was first identified this book puts forward a multiplicity of perspectives that go from the anecdotal to the theoretical and from the personal to the philosophical These perspectives allow for a fresh reflection on curating one in which suddenly curating becomes an activity that implicates us all artists curators and viewers not just as passive recipients but as active members As such the Curatorial is a book without compromise it asks us to think again fight against sweeping art historical generalizations the sedimentation of ideas and the draw of the sound bite Curating will not stop but at least with this book it can begin to allow itself to be challenged by some of the most complex and ethics driven thought of our times

The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism Nicole Dahmen, T.J. Thomson, 2025-09-02 Representing the first collection of its kind The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism introduces fundamental topics and ideas delineates the diversity and complexity of this growing field and creates a foundation for future scholarship and study In the contemporary digital media landscape still and moving images interactive visualizations and virtual reality are increasingly important to attract attention cultivate engagement inform and influence opinions and provide a more emotive and immediate viewing experience for news audiences This Companion draws together leading voices from academia and industry to survey this dynamic and ubiquitous mode and inspire dialogue Along with an introduction and conclusion the volume is structured in five sections and covers people and identities practices and processes technologies equipment and forms theories concepts and values and audience interpretation and impact Beginning by looking at the history of visual news chapters go on to explore how visual news is created how journalists visually represent gender race sexuality disability elites and ordinary citizens key ethical ideas and theories behind the creation of visual news and how visual news is processed drawing in research from eye tracking media psychology and media literacy The book ends with a critical look at the future of the field The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism is a recommended resource for all advanced students and researchers of visual journalism and communication and will also be of interest to practitioners in these fields

Performing the News Elia Powers, 2024-09-13 Performing the News Identity Authority and the Myth of Neutrality explores how journalists from historically marginalized groups have long felt pressure to conform when performing for audiences Many speak with a flat neutral accent modify their delivery to hide distinctive vocal attributes dress conventionally to appeal to the average viewer and maintain a consistent appearance to avoid unwanted attention Their aim is what author Elia Powers refers to as performance neutrality presentation that is deemed unobjectionable reveals little about journalists social identity and supposedly does not detract from their message Increasingly journalists are challenging restrictive purportedly neutral forms of self presentation This book argues that performance neutrality is a myth that reinforces the status quo limits on air diversity and hinders efforts to make newsrooms more inclusive Through in depth interviews with journalists in broadcasting and podcasting and those who shape their performance the author suggests ways to make journalism more inclusive and representative of diverse audiences

The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the in built tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes

In Crime's Archive Katherine Biber, 2018-07-04 This book investigates what happens to criminal evidence after the conclusion of legal proceedings During the criminal trial evidentiary material is tightly regulated it is formally regarded as part of the court record and subject to the rules of evidence and criminal procedure However these rules and procedures cannot govern or control this material after proceedings have ended In its afterlife criminal evidence continues to proliferate in cultural contexts It might be photographic or video evidence private diaries and correspondence weapons physical objects or forensic data and it arouses the interest of journalists scholars curators writers or artists Building on a growing cultural interest in criminal archival materials this book shows how in its afterlife criminal evidence gives rise to new uses and interpretations new concepts and questions many of which are creative and transformative of crime and evidence and some of which are transgressive dangerous or insensitive It takes the judicial principle of open justice the assumption that justice must be seen to be done and investigates instances in which we might see too much too little or from a distorted angle It centres upon a series of case studies including those of Lindy Chamberlain and more recently Oscar Pistorius in which criminal evidence has re appeared outside of the criminal process Traversing museums libraries galleries and other repositories and drawing on extensive interviews with cultural practitioners and legal professionals this book probes the legal ethical affective and aesthetic implications of the cultural afterlife of evidence ticas destacando a importância de uma gestão de comunicação que considere não apenas os interesses mercadológicos mas também o impacto social e ambiental das práticas comunicacionais. O conceito de comunicação integrada um dos pontos centrais da obra de Uhry assim como uma orquestra em que vários instrumentos precisam tocar em harmonia a comunicação também deve ser integrada abrangendo desde o marketing até as relações públicas passando pela comunicação digital e publicitária. A integração é essencial para a gestão eficiente e eficaz da comunicação organizacional permitindo que a mensagem seja consistente em todos os pontos de contato com os públicos. O mapa relacional proposto pelo autor um dos aspectos mais inovadores da obra pois busca integrar as diferentes formas de comunicação considerando variáveis sociais mercadológicas culturais e tecnológicas por meio de modelo visual que oferece uma ferramenta prática para os gestores analisarem e planejarem suas estratégias de comunicação de forma mais integrada e sistêmica. E ao abordar a comunicação digital Uhry oferece uma análise crítica do impacto das novas tecnologias nas práticas comunicacionais discutindo desde o papel das redes sociais até o uso de inteligência artificial na comunicação propondo uma reflexão sobre oportunidades e desafios das tecnologias digitais para o futuro das organizações além de explorar questões como desinformação e apontar a necessidade de uma gestão comunicacional ética e transparente.

Doing Politics with Citizen Art Fawn Daphne Plessner, 2022-04-12 This book examines how citizen art practices perform new kinds of politics as distinct from normative status participatory and cosmopolitan models. It contends that at a time in which the conditions of citizenship have been radically altered e.g. by the increased securitization and individuation of bodies and so forth there is an urgent drive for citizen art to be enacted as a tool for assessing the hollowed out conditions of citizenship. Citizen art it shows stands apart from other forms of art by performing acts of citizenship that reveal and transgress the limitations of state centred citizenship regimes whilst simultaneously enacting genuinely alternative modes of non statist citizenship. This book offers a new formulation of citizen art one that is interrogated on both critical and material levels and as such remodels the foundations on which citizenship is conceived performed and instituted.

Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill, Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable. Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism s heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today s digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture

Education, Childhood and Anarchism Catherine Burke, Ken Jones, 2014-02-18 As one of Britain s most original thinkers and writers Colin Ward wrote extensively about positive and practical examples from the past and present of the anarchist spirit or the social principle in everyday life This volume is the first scholarly work dedicated to examining the significance of his distinctive and highly relevant contributions to the areas of education children and the environment In each chapter international contributors from academic and activist backgrounds offer cross disciplinary and critical perspectives on Ward s work and its relevance to contemporary debates The book is divided into four key areas The Sand Box of the City Adventures in Education Reflections on Practice Mobilisations This book will appeal to academics and professionals interested in the condition of childhood and youth today It will prove useful for postgraduates and professionals undertaking further professional development and is relevant to anyone studying researching or working in fields relating to children education and the environment not just in the UK but beyond
