Affect, Emotions and Power in Development Studies

Theory and Practice Tanya Jakimow, 2023-12-01 This book advances new research directions that explore the emotional and affective dimensions of development Going beyond merely placing emotion and or affect as the objects of study it examines development in fresh ways through analysis of its affective dimensions Affect and emotions are complicit in the structural conditions that sustain material and social inequalities and deprivations and critical to the potential for disruption and transformation The chapters in this volume demonstrate how affect and emotions enrich understandings of or rethink power configurations in development while being attentive to forces of destabilization and creativity They unravel the subtleties of power in development from micro to macro scales enhance the understanding of development as an inherently political process and highlight the possibilities for resistance and transformation The book introduces new lines of enquiry to understand power in development theory and practice grounded in rich empirical research from across Asia and Australia and will be a valuable resource for students and researchers of anthropology third world studies development studies and development theory The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Fatherhood and Love Alexandra Macht, 2019-09-26 This book explores how contemporary men understand love in the realm of family life and how they integrate it into their identity Drawing from Ian Burkitt's aesthetic theory of emotions Macht presents rich data from qualitative interviews and observations with Scottish and Romanian involved fathers to reveal how they maintain closeness to their children their partners and their own family of origin Reflecting on distances separations power worry and intergenerational experiences of love Fatherhood and Love hypothesizes that fathers identities and emotionality rely on a variety of social relationships in their intimate environment A new concept emotional bordering is introduced to portray the tensions inherent in fathers identities and illuminate why gender progress happens slowly Engaging with literature on love masculinity culture and father's involvement from a unique perspective this book will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of social science disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture Bente A. Svendsen, Rickard Jonsson, 2023-12-15 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture offers the first essential grounding of critical youth studies within sociolinguistic research Young people are often seen to be at the frontline of linguistic creativity and pioneering communicative technologies Their linguistic practices are considered a primary means of exploring linguistic change as well as the role of language in social life such as how language and identity ideology and power intersect Bringing together leading and cutting edge perspectives from thought leaders across the globe this handbook addresses how young people's cultural practices as well as forces like class gender ethnicity and race influence language considers emotions affect age and ageism materiality embodiment and the political youth as well as processes of unmooring language and place critically reflects on our understandings of terms such as language youth and culture drawing on insights from youth studies to help contextualise age within power dynamics features examples from a wide range of linguistic contexts such as social media and the classroom as well as expressions such as graffiti gestures and different musical genres including grime and hip hop Providing important insights into how young people think feel act and communicate in the complexity of a polarised world The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture is an invaluable resource for advanced students and researchers in disciplines including sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology multilingualism youth studies and sociology Rethinking Graduate Employability in Context Päivi Siivonen, Ulpuukka Isopahkala-Bouret, Michael Tomlinson, Maija Korhonen, Nina Haltia, 2023-07-15 This open access book offers critical multidisciplinary analyses on graduate employability The book examines employability at the macro meso and micro levels higher education policy the labour market higher education institutions organisations individuals and social groups in European North American and Australian contexts The contributors provide social and contextual analysis of graduate employability as a theoretical concept a discourse and policy imperative and a social and discursive practice The volume also introduces novel methodological perspectives to study the process of graduate employability There is an urgent need for comprehensive and unified critical perspectives on graduate employability as such analyses have so far been scarce and often isolated Besides filling this gap in the literature the book will also serve as essential reading on courses that focus on graduate careers and employability as well as higher education policy and practice Haunting Futures Marek Pawlak, 2024-12-01 The 2008 economic collapse in Iceland sent its residents into a destabilising crisis with far reaching temporal and affective consequences Haunting Futures explores how the complex relationships of this unstable past and the anticipatory modes of the ongoing present keep Icelanders and the Polish migrant community in their midst alert to looming futures in crisis It offers insights into timely crisis ridden impacts and imaginings migration processes and social understandings and practices Through its attention to how people engage with crisis temporally and affectively the book presents the crisis not simply as an isolated and distressing event but as a spectre embodied in time through ongoing anticipation Emotional States Eleanor Jupp, Jessica Pykett, Fiona M.
