Afghanistan Remembers Gendered Narrations Of Violence And Culinary Practices:

Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa, 2014-01-01 In Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa examines how violence is remembered by Afghan women through memories and food practices in their homeland and its diaspora Conflicted Democracies and Gendered Violence Angana P. Chatterji, Shashi Buluswar, Mallika Kaur, 2016-11-04 The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the region a vast body of research on this important yet silenced subject Six country volumes one each on Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over fifty research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to perpetuate impunity for perpetrators The essays in this volume focus on Nepal which though not directly colonized has not remained immune from the influence of colonialism in its neighbourhood In addition to home grown feudal patriarchal structures the writers in this volume clearly demonstrate that it is the larger colonial and post colonial context of the subcontinent that has enabled the structuring of inequalities and power relations in ways that today allow for widespread sexual violence and impunity in the country through legal systems medical regimes and social institutions The period after the 1990 democratic movement the subsequent political transformation in the aftermath of the Maoist insurgency and the writing of the new constitution has seen an increase in public discussion about sexual violence The State has brought in a slew of legislation and action plans to address this problem And yet impunity for perpetrators remains intact and justice elusive What are the structures that enable such impunity What can be done to radically transform these How must States understand the search for justice for victims and survivors of sexual violence The essays in this volume attempt to trace a history of sexual violence in Nepal look at the responses of women s groups and society at large and suggest how this serious and wide ranging problem may be addressed

Research Handbook on End of Life Care and Society David Clark, Annemarie Samuels, 2025-09-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY 4.0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline com This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an accessible overview of research on palliative and end of life care in its social context It examines key theories methods and research findings presenting crucial social science and public health perspectives Social Palliation Parin Dossa, 2020-10-07 Social Palliation is a pioneering study on living and dying as articulated by first generation Iranian and Ismaili Muslim communities in Canada Using ethnographic narratives Parin Dossa makes a case for a paradigm shift from palliative care to social palliation Experiences of displacement and resettlement reveal that life and death must be understood as an integrated unit if we are to appreciate what it is like to be awakened to our human existence In the wake of structural exclusion and systemic suffering social palliation brings to light displaced persons endeavours to restore the integrity of life and death Dossa highlights the point that death conjoined with life is embedded within the socio cultural and spiritual experience Here a caring society is not perceived in fragments as is the case with traditional institutional care or care offered during end of life Rather Dossa draws attention to an organic form of caring illustrated through the trajectories of storied lives In exemplifying more humane aspects of social palliation this book foregrounds sacred traditions to illustrate their potential to evoke deep level conversations across socio political boundaries on what it is like to live and die in the contemporary world

Producing Islams(s) in Canada Amélie Barras, Jennifer A. Selby, Melanie Adrian, 2022-01-10 During the last twenty years public interest in Islam and how Muslims express their religious identity in Western societies has grown exponentially In parallel the study of Islam in the Canadian academy has grown in a number of fields since the 1970s reflecting a diverse range of scholarship positionalities and politics Yet academic research on Muslims in Canada has not been systematically assessed In Producing Islam s in Canada scholars from a wide range of disciplines come together to explore what is at stake regarding portrayals of Islam s and Muslims in academic scholarship Given the centrality of representations of Canadian Muslims in current public policy and public imaginaries which effects how all Canadians experience religious diversity this analysis of knowledge production comes at a crucial time

Atmospheric Violence Omer Aijazi, 2024-06-04 Atmospheric Violence grapples with the afterlife of environmental disasters and armed conflict and examines how people attempt to flourish despite and alongside continuing violence Departing from conventional approaches to the study of disaster and conflict that have dominated academic studies of Kashmir Omer Aijazi s ethnography of life in the borderlands instead explores possibilities for imagining life otherwise in an environment where violence is everywhere or atmospheric Drawing on extensive fieldwork in the portion of Kashmir under Pakistan s control and its surrounding mountainscapes the book takes us to two remote mountainous valleys that have been shaped by recurring environmental disasters as well as by the landscape of no go zones army barracks and security checkpoints of the contested India Pakistan border Through a series of interconnected scenes from the lives of five protagonists all of whom are precariously situated within their families or societies and rarely enjoy the expected protections of state or community Aijazi reveals the movements flows and intimacies sustained by a landscape that enables alternative modes of life Blurring the distinctions between story theory and activism he explores what emerges when theory becomes a project of seeing and feeling from the non normative standpoint of those who like the book s protagonists do not subscribe to the rules by which most others have come to know the world Bringing the critical study of disaster into conversation with a radical humanist anthropology and the capaciousness of affect theory held accountable to Black studies and Indigenous studies Aijazi offers a decolonial approach to disaster studies centering not on trauma and rupture but rather on repair the social labor through which communities living with disaster refuse the conditions of death imposed upon them and create viable lives for themselves even amidst constant diminishment and world annihilation

Rebuilding Community Shenila

Khoja-Moolji, 2023 Over the course of the twentieth century Shia Ismaili Muslim communities were repeatedly displaced How in the aftermath of these displacements did they remake their communities Shenila Khoja Moolji highlights women's critical role in this rebuilding process and breaks new ground by writing women into modern Ismaili history Rebuilding Community tells the story of how Ismaili Muslim women who fled East Pakistan and East Africa in the 1970s recreated religious community jamat in North America Drawing on oral histories fieldwork and memory texts Khoja Moolji illuminates the placemaking activities through which Ismaili women reproduce bonds of spiritual kinship from cooking for congregants on feast days and looking after sick coreligionists to engaging in memory work through miracle stories and cookbooks Khoja Moolji situates these activities within the framework of ethical norms that more broadly define and sustain the Ismaili sociality Jamat and religious community more generally is not a given but an ethical relation that is maintained daily and intergenerationally through everyday acts of care By emphasizing women's care work in producing relationality and repairing trauma Khoja Moolji disrupts the conventional articulation of displaced people as dependent subjects

Carney, 2021-05-25 With thousands of migrants attempting the perilous maritime journey from North Africa to Europe each year transnational migration is a defining feature of social life in the Mediterranean today On the island of Sicily where many migrants first arrive and ultimately remain the contours of migrant reception and integration are frequently animated by broader concerns for human rights and social justice Island of Hope sheds light on the emergence of social solidarity initiatives and networks forged between citizens and noncitizens who work together to improve local livelihoods and mobilize for radical political change Basing her argument on years of ethnographic fieldwork with frontline communities in Sicily anthropologist Megan Carney asserts that such mobilizations hold significance not only for the rights of migrants but for the material and affective well being of society at large

Bayanihan and Belonging Alison R. Marshall, 2018-01-01 Drawing on archival and ethnographic research in Canada and the Philippines from 1880 to 2017 Bayanihan and Belonging aims to understand the role of religion within present day Filipino Canadian communities

Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding, 2023-11-28 Despite its pervasive reputation as a place of religious extremes and war Afghanistan has a complex and varied religious landscape where elements from a broad spectrum of religious belief vie for a place in society It is also one of the birthplaces of a widely practiced variant of Islam Sufism Contemporary analysts suggest that Sufism is on the decline due to war and the ideological hardening that results from societies in conflict However in Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding argues that this is far from a truthful depiction Members of Sufi communities have worked as resistance fighters aid workers business people actors professors and daily workers in creative and ingenious ways to keep and renew their networks of community support Based on long term ethnographic field research among multiple Sufi communities in different urban areas of Afghanistan the book examines navigational strategies employed by Sufi leaders over the past four decades to weather periods of instability and persecution showing how they adapted to changing conditions in novel ways that crafted Sufism as a force in the civil sphere This book offers a rare on the ground view into how Sufi leaders react to moments of transition within a highly insecure environment and how humanity shines through the darkness during times of turmoil

The Top Books of the Year Afghanistan Remembers Gendered Narrations Of Violence And Culinary Practices The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Afghanistan Remembers Gendered Narrations Of Violence And Culinary Practices : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
