Africa Altered States Ordinary Miracles:

Africa Richard Dowden, 2014-01-02 A revised and updated edition of the landmark book about the miraculous continent by the finest living Africa correspondent Every time you try to say Africa is the words crumble and break From every generalisation you must exclude at least five countries And just as you think you've nailed down a certainty you find the opposite is also true Africa is full of surprises For the past three decades Richard Dowden has travelled this vast and varied continent listening learning and constantly re-evaluating all he thinks he knows Country by country he has sought out the local and the personal the incidents actions and characters to tell a story of modern sub-Saharan Africa an area affected by poverty disease and war but also a place of breathtaking beauty generosity and possibility The result is a landmark book compelling illuminating and always surprising This revised edition has an additional chapter on Ethiopia and has been updated throughout to reflect changes such as the death of Mandela and the attack on the Westgate Mall in Nairobi It also includes two new maps and a new final chapter considering the shape of Africa's future Liberation and Corruption

Peter Hain, 2026-10 Why are liberation and independence movements often betrayed when their leaders get into government This question has haunted Peter Hain for decades A lifelong activist and politician Hain has over 50 years experience of battling corruption from his early days as a freedom fighter against apartheid to his time as a UK Labour MP cabinet minister and sitting member of the House of Lords He offers a gripping exploration of why movements born from the ideals of justice and freedom often succumb to bad governance and corruption once in power Combining rigorous analysis with well-sourced evidence this book examines global examples ranging from Africa to Latin America Russia the Caribbean China and India With the unique perspective of having navigated both the streets of protest and the corridors of power Hain reflects on the challenges of staying true to the values of liberation struggles while confronting their disappointing outcomes Thought-provoking and accessible this book is an essential read for anyone engaged in the fight for a better world Africa in the Indian Ocean

Tor Sellström, 2015-05-26 The four sovereign Indian Ocean states of Comoros Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles the two French overseas departments of Mayotte and Reunion as well as the British colony of BIOT Chagos all form part of Africa As insular nations and territories in an increasingly globalized militarized and largely unregulated ocean they face particular challenges Commonly overlooked in the fields of African and international studies this text traces the islands history and explores their diverse contemporary social political and economic trajectories From human settlement and slavery to conflict resolution and piracy the relations with continental Africa and the African Union feature prominently Richly sourced this comprehensive and up-to-date introduction to Africa's Indian Ocean islands covers a significant lacuna

Fortunes of Africa Martin Meredith, 2014-09-11 In this vast and vivid panorama of history Martin Meredith bestselling author of The State of Africa follows the fortunes of Africa over a period of 5 000 years With compelling narrative he traces the rise and fall of ancient kingdoms and empires the spread of Christianity and Islam the enduring quest for gold and other riches the exploits of explorers and missionaries and the impact of European colonisation He examines too the fate of modern African states and concludes with a glimpse into their future This is history on an epic scale The Wiley-Blackwell

Ghana: an Incomplete Independence or a Dysfunctional Democracy? Kwame Insaadoo, 2012-12-20 Can anybody tell us why profound poverty continues to plague our nation of barely 25 million people in this modern era of globalization in 2012 Why do you think the vast majority of our beloved people live on less than a dollar a day and struggle from cradle to grave living in near squalor and eking out near subsistence existence Ask yourself why is it that in the midst of this profound abject poverty less than ten percent of our fellow countrymen and women live in opulence and wallow in untold riches with their mansions encased with six foot walls seek medical attention in luxurious medical facilities abroad Are the vast majority of our people in poverty ignorant and stupid while the few wealthy ones are perceived as more intelligent and wiser than all of us

Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B. Chewachong, 2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria's Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel's transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within

African & American Marilyn Halter, Violet Showers Johnson, 2014-08-29 Examines what it means to be African and American through the stories of recent West African immigrants African American tells the story of the much overlooked experience of first and second generation West African immigrants and refugees in the United States during the last forty years Interrogating the complex role of post colonialism in the recent history of black America Marilyn Halter and Violet Showers Johnson highlight the intricate patterns of emigrant work and family adaptation the evolving global ties with Africa and Europe and the translocal connections among the West African enclaves in the United States Drawing on a rich variety of sources including original interviews personal narratives cultural and historical analysis and documentary and demographic evidence African American explores issues of cultural identity formation and socioeconomic incorporation among this new West African diaspora Bringing the experiences of those of recent African ancestry from the periphery to the center of current debates in the fields of immigration ethnic and African American studies Halter and Johnson examine the impact this community has had on the changing meaning of African Americanness and address the provocative question of whether West African immigrants are indeed becoming the newest African Americans

ACCIDENTAL AFRICAN BLESSINGS Ugo Nacciarone, SJ., 2012-04-05 As I pondered on a title for this book I thought about my first life and work experience in Africa How I suffered several severe cases of malaria how difficult it was to adjust to the hot humid climate and the discouragements from my relatives and friends back home that I was in a wrong place to which I almost succumbed The only thing that made me stay was a sense of duty to the other five Jesuits working with me As this mission was only new I did not want to demoralize any of them This decision has later proven to be one of the best decisions I have ever made All that experience brought many turns to my life in Africa bringing me from Nigeria to Zambia to Ghana and back to Zambia again These events were like accidents Accidents are unexpected unplanned and often painful It was just an accident of history that the mission was just getting started and that it had so few people on it It might have been another accident of history that the Biafran War began just as I made my way to Nigeria that made it more difficult to recruit new members to the mission These accidents of history brought me to a painful decision to return to Nigeria when I didn't feel attracted to the prospect Yet this painful experience turned out to be a great blessing for me I came to love the people and the continent more than I could ever have imagined and found myself greatly enriched by the experience It is this development in personal growth that I want to share with the reader Cover Design by Danny Chiyesu
