African Art In Transit:

African Art in Transit Christopher B. Steiner, 1994-01-27 African Art in Transit is an absorbing account of the commodification and circulation of African art objects in the international art market Christopher Steiner's analysis of the role of the African middleman in linking those who produce and supply works of art in Africa with those who buy and collect so called primitive art in Europe and America is based on extensive field research among the art traders in Cote d'Ivoire Steiner provides a lucid interpretation which reveals not only a complex economic network with its own internal logic and rules but also an elaborate process of transcultural valuation and exchange By focusing directly on the intermediaries in the African art trade he unveils a critical new perspective on how symbolic codes and economic values are mediated in the context of shifting geographic and cultural domains He questions conventional definitions of authenticity in African art by demonstrating how the categories authentic and traditional are continually redefined African Art in Transit Christopher Burghard Steiner, 1994

Phillips, Christopher B. Steiner, 1999-01-30 An outstanding set of studies that work well with each other to produce truly substantial and rich insights into the making and consuming of art in the colonial and post colonial world Susan S Bean Curator Peabody Essex Museum

African Art and the Colonial Encounter Sidney Littlefield Kasfir, 2007-10-24 Focusing on the theme of warriorhood Sidney Littlefield Kasfir weaves a complex history of how colonial influence forever changed artistic practice objects and their meaning Looking at two widely diverse cultures the Idoma in Nigeria and the Samburu in Kenya Kasfir makes a bold statement about the links between colonialism the Europeans image of Africans Africans changing self representation and the impact of global trade on cultural artifacts and the making of art This intriguing history of the interaction between peoples aesthetics morals artistic objects and practices and the global trade in African art challenges current ideas about artistic production and representation Perspectives on Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, 2010-05-17 The second edition of Perspectives on Africa A Reader in Culture History and Representation is both an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of the interpretations of those cultures Key essays explore the major issues and debates through a combination of classic articles and the newest research in the field

Explores the dynamic processes by and through which scholars have described and understood African history and culture
Includes selections from anthropologists historians philosophers and critics who collectively reveal the interpenetration of ideas and concepts within and across disciplines regions and historical periods Offers a combined focus on ethnography and theory giving students the means to link theory with data and perspective with practice Newly revised and updated edition of this popular text with 14 brand new chapters and two new sections Conflict and Violent Transformations and Development Governance and Globalization The Scramble for Art in Central Africa Enid Schildkrout, Curtis A. Keim, 1998-03-28

Western attitudes to Africa have been influenced to an extraordinary degree by the arts and artefacts that were brought back by the early collectors exhibited in museums and celebrated by scholars and artists in the metropolitan centres The contributors to this volume trace the life history of artefacts that were brought to Europe and America from Congo towards the end of the nineteenth century and became the subjects of museum displays They also present fascinating case studies of the pioneering collectors including such major figures as Frobenius and Torday They discuss the complex and sensitive issues involved in the business of collecting and show how the collections and exhibitions influenced academic debates about the categories of art and artefact and the notion of authenticity and challenged conventional aesthetic values as modern Western artists began to draw on African models African Art and Agency in the Workshop Sidney Littlefield Kasfir, Till Förster, 2013 The role of the workshop in the creation of African art is the subject of this revelatory book In the group setting of the workshop innovation and imitation collide artists share ideas and techniques and creative expression flourishes African Art and Agency in the Workshop examines the variety of workshops from those which are politically driven or tourist oriented to those based on historical patronage or allied to current artistic trends Fifteen lively essays explore the impact of the workshop on the production of artists such as Zimbabwean stone sculptors master potters from Cameroon wood carvers from Nigeria and others from across the continent Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett, Rosalind I. J.

Hackett, 1998-10-01 Annotation Explores the interactive and interdependent relationship between art and religion in Africa challenging Western perceptions of what is important in the continent's visual and performing arts Case studies and examples reflect the geographical and gendered diversity of the arts and highlight changes imposed by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa Includes bandw photos and illustrations and a few color photos

Bunten, Nelson Graburn, 2018-01-01 Indigenous Tourism Movements explores Indigenous identity using movement as a metaphor drawing on case studies from throughout the world including Botswana Canada Chile Panama Tanzania and the United States In Senghor's Shadow Elizabeth Harney, 2004-11-23 In Senghor's Shadow is a unique study of modern art in postindependence Senegal Elizabeth Harney examines the art that flourished during the administration of Léopold Sédar Senghor Senegal's first president and in the decades since he stepped down in 1980 As a major philosopher and poet of Negritude Senghor envisioned an active and revolutionary role for modern artists and he created a well funded system for nurturing their work In questioning the canon of art produced under his aegis known as the Ecole de Dakar Harney reconsiders Senghor s Negritude philosophy his desire to express Senegal s postcolonial national identity through art and the system of art schools and exhibits he developed She expands scholarship on global modernisms by highlighting the distinctive cultural history that shaped Senegalese modernism and the complex and often contradictory choices made by its early artists Heavily illustrated with nearly one hundred images including some in color In Senghor s Shadow surveys the work of a range of Senegalese artists including painters muralists sculptors and performance based groups from those who worked at the height of Senghor s patronage system to those who graduated from art school in the early 1990s Harney reveals how in the 1970s avant gardists contested Negritude beliefs by breaking out of established artistic forms During the 1980s and 1990s artists such as Moustapha Dim Germaine Anta Gaye and Kan Si engaged with avant garde methods and local artistic forms to challenge both Senghor s legacy and the broader art world s understandings of cultural syncretism Ultimately Harney s work illuminates the production and reception of modern Senegalese art within the global arena

Native American Art in the Twentieth Century

W. Jackson Rushing III, 2013-09-27 This illuminating and provocative book is the first anthology devoted to Twentieth Century Native American and First Nation art Native American

Art brings together anthropologists art historians curators critics and distinguished Native artists to discuss pottery painting sculpture printmaking photography and performance art by some of the most celebrated Native American and Canadian First Nation artists of our time The contributors use new theoretical and critical approaches to address key issues for Native American art including symbolism and spirituality the role of patronage and museum practices the politics of art criticism and the aesthetic power of indigenous knowledge The artist contributors who represent several Native nations including Cherokee Lakota Plains Cree and those of the Plateau country emphasise the importance of traditional stories mythologies and ceremonies in the production of contemporary art Within great poignancy they write about recent art in terms of home homeland and aboriginal sovereignty Tracing the continued resistance of Native artists to dominant orthodoxies of the art market and art history Native American Art in the Twentieth Century argues forcefully for Native art's place in modern art history

Art History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield, 2005-08-18 Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the institutional discourses that shaped and continue to shape the field from its foundations in the nineteenth century From museums and universities to law courts labour organizations and photography studios contributors examine a range of institutions considering their impact on movements such as modernism their role in conveying or denying legitimacy and their impact on defining the parameters of the discipline

Art World City Joanna Grabski, 2017-07-10 Insightful should be on the bookshelf of anyone interested in contemporary art on the continent of Africa its politics its display its economics African Arts Art World City focuses on contemporary art and artists in the city of Dakar a famously thriving art metropolis in the West African nation of Senegal Joanna Grabski illuminates how artists earn their livelihoods from the city's resources possibilities and connections She examines how and why they produce and exhibit their work and how they make an art scene and transact with art world mediators such as curators journalists critics art lovers and collectors from near and far Grabski shows that Dakar based artists participate in a platform that has a global reach They extend Dakar's creative economy and the city's urban vibe into an art world city In her fine grained analysis Joanna Grabski demonstrates the ways that the urban environment and the sites of art production exhibition and sale imbricate one another to constitute Dakar as an Art World City Mary Jo Arnoldi Curator Anthropology National Museum of Natural History Smithsonian A valuable addition to the anthropology of cities and of art worlds It stretches and revises the notion of art world to include multiple scales and illustrates how the city enables simultaneous engagement for artists with local national Pan African and global discourses and platforms City Society A beautiful book The photographs most of which are by the author are stunning

College Art Association Reviews Materializing Difference Péter Berta, 2019-04-08 How do objects mediate human relationships and possess their own social and political agency What role does material culture such as prestige consumption as well as commodity aesthetics biographies and ownership histories play in the production of social and political identities differences and hierarchies How do informal consumer subcultures of collectors organize and manage themselves Drawing on theories from anthropology and sociology specifically material culture consumption museum ethnicity and post socialist studies Materializing Difference addresses these questions via analysis of the practices and ideologies connected to Gabor Roma beakers and roofed tankards made of antique silver The consumer subculture organized around these objects defined as ethnicized and gendered prestige goods by the Gabor Roma living in Romania is a contemporary second hand culture based on patina oriented consumption Materializing Difference reveals the inner dynamics of the complex relationships and interactions between objects silver beakers and roofed tankards and subjects Romanian Roma and investigates how these relationships and interactions contribute to the construction materialization and reformulation of social economic and political identities boundaries and differences It also discusses how after 1989 the political transformation in Romania led to the emergence of a new post socialist consumer sensitivity among the Gabor Roma and how this sensitivity reshaped the pre regime change patterns meanings and value preferences of prestige consumption The Art Market in Rome in the Eighteenth Century Paolo Coen, 2018-11-05 Recent interest in the economic aspects of the history of art have taken traditional studies into new areas of enquiry Going well beyond provenances or prices of individual objects our understanding of the arts has been advanced by research into the demands intermediaries and clients in the market Eighteenth century Rome offers a privileged view of such activities given the continuity of remarkable investments by the local ruling class combined with the decisive impact of external agents largely linked to the Grand Tour This book the result of collaboration between international specialists brings back into the spotlight protagonists facts and dynamics that have remained unexplored for many years Former Neighbors, Future Allies? A. Dana Weber, 2023-03-10 German studies scholars from various disciplines often use and reference ethnography yet do not often present ethnography as a core methodology and research approach Former Neighbors Future Allies emphasizes how German studies engages in methods and theories of ethnography Through a variety of topics and from multiple perspectives including literature folklore history sociology and anthropology this volume draws attention to how ethnography bridges transdisciplinary and international research in German studies
