African Philosophy An Anthology:

African Philosophy Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze, 1998-02-12 Bringing together canonical philosophical texts from African African American Afro Caribbean and Black European thinkers this major new anthology is designed to serve both as a textbook and as the authoritative reference volume in African philosophical and cultural studies Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell, 2002 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality Readings in African Philosophy Sophie B. Oluwole, 1989 Listening to Ourselves Chike Jeffers, 2013-09-01 Contemporary African philosophy in indigenous African languages and English translation A groundbreaking contribution to the discipline of philosophy this volume presents a collection of philosophical essays written in indigenous African languages by professional African philosophers with English translations on the facing pages demonstrating the linguistic and conceptual resources of African languages for a distinctly African philosophy Hailing from five different countries and writing in six different languages the seven authors featured include some of the most prominent African philosophers of our time They address a range of topics including the nature of truth different ways of conceiving time the linguistic status of proverbs how naming practices work gender equality and inequality in traditional society the relationship between language and thought and the extent to which morality is universal or culturally variable A Short History of African Philosophy, Second Edition Barry Hallen, 2009-09-03 A Short History of African Philosophy discusses major ideas figures and schools of thought in philosophy in the African context While drawing out critical issues in the formation of African philosophy Barry Hallen focuses on recent scholarship and relevant debates that have made African philosophy critical to understanding the rich and complex cultural heritage of the continent This revised edition expands the historical perspective takes account of recent discoveries and new canonical figures highlights new discussions about gender as a cultural and philosophical phenomenon clarifies issues regarding indigenous cultures and human rights and builds on the notion that African philosophy shares methods and concerns of philosophy worldwide This short reference is an essential resource for students scholars and general readers A Companion to African Philosophy Kwasi Wiredu, 2008-04-15 This volume of newly commissioned essays provides comprehensive coverage of African philosophy ranging across disciplines and throughout the ages Offers a distinctive historical treatment of African philosophy Covers all the main branches of philosophy as addressed in the African tradition Includes accounts of pre colonial African philosophy and contemporary political thought An Introduction to African Philosophy Maurice Muhatia Makumba, 2007 Contemporary Political Philosophy: An Anthology Robert E. Goodin, Philip Pettit, 2019-05-07 The revised and updated edition of Goodin and Pettit's highly acclaimed contemporary political philosophy anthology bringing together the field's most important readings in a single volume Unparalleled in the breadth and scope of its coverage this newly revised third edition traces the evolution of political philosophy as a contemporary practice and raises important questions about the impact of current political events Fully updated to include 49 contemporary and classic selections from the most distinguished scholars in political philosophy Offers expanded coverage of international affairs and political oppression Includes essays which represent a diversity of political and ideological positions and features interdisciplinary voices in politics law and economics Edited by two of the field's most highly respected scholars The ideal collection of primary readings to accompany the Companion to Contemporary Political Philosophy Second Edition Wiley Blackwell 2012 for coursework in political philosophy Handbook of African Philosophy Elvis Imafidon, Mpho Tshivhase, Björn Freter, 2023-09-30 This Handbook provides in one volume rich comprehensive and rigorous coverage of specific subject areas and thematic concerns in the ever evolving academic discipline of African philosophy This Handbook is unique in its focus on central and emerging areas within African philosophy such as Afro communitarian philosophy ethics epistemology social and political philosophy existentialism philosophy of religion gender philosophy philosophy of education phenomenology transhumanism African philosophy futures and philosophy of the non human The thirty two chapters in this Handbook explore the rich textual and non textual forms of philosophical knowledge in Africa and adequately represent the broad and diverse scope of African philosophy showing the richness and depth of the philosophical tradition This reference work is indispensable to students and researchers in African philosophy comparative philosophy and world philosophies African Philosophy Lajul, Wilfred, 2014-01-16 African philosophy has for long been rejected on the basis that it is not known or has not been written down Behind this view is the idealist presumption that for something to exist it must first be perceived However for something to be perceived it must first exist African Philosophy Critical Dimensions examines what constitutes African philosophy in terms of its meaning foundation sources methodology characteristics and relevance The book analyses traditional African philosophy from the political social ethical epistemological and metaphysical angles The book further critically discusses modern African political philosophy modern African social philosophy modern African economic philosophy and modern African philosophy of religion It ends with the identification of the different conclusions that were derived from the study and general recommendations some specifically for researchers and writers especially in the area of African philosophy Wilfred Lajul joins other authentic voices examining African Philosophy Understanding African Philosophy Jan Fernback, 2015 A critical guide to some of the most important issues in modern African philosophy Topics include the legacy of colonialism the challenges of post independence Africa and African oral and written philosophical traditions Postcolonial African Philosophy: A Critical Reader Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze, 1997-02-10 Postcolonial African Philosophy A Critical Reader sets out a timely and powerful agenda for contemporary African Afro Caribbean and African American philosophy Columbia Companion to Twentieth-century

Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European Continental traditions The first section features Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science The volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by Constantin V Boundas not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and Continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Offering an unusually panoramic perspective the Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies enables readers to encounter foundational materials on their own terms Philosophy of Action Jonathan Dancy, Constantine Sandis, 2015-02-17 The Philosophy of Action An Anthology is an authoritative collection of key work by top scholars arranged thematically and accompanied by expert introductions written by the editors This unique collection brings together a selection of the most influential essays from the 1960s to the present day An invaluable collection that brings together a selection of the most important classic and contemporary articles in philosophy of action from the 1960s to the present day No other broad ranging and detailed coverage of this kind currently exists in the field Each themed section opens with a synoptic introduction and includes a comprehensive further reading list to guide students Includes sections on action and agency willing and trying intention and intentional action acting for a reason the explanation of action and free agency and responsibility Written and organised in a style that allows it to be used as a primary teaching resource in its own right Themes, Issues and Problems in African Philosophy Isaac E. Ukpokolo, 2017-01-31 This volume provides the key to a deepened discourse on philosophy in Africa Available literature and academic practice in African philosophy since the 1960s have largely featured discourses in the areas of origin general meaning and nature of the discipline with little attention given to specialized areas By contrast this book examines a noticeable shifting focus from such general concerns to more specific subject matter in such areas as epistemology moral philosophy metaphysics aesthetics and social and political philosophy in the light of the African experience The volume includes specific discourses from expert contributors on the nature history and scope of African ethics and metaphysics while also discussing particular themes in African epistemology philosophy of education existentialism and political philosophy Researchers seeking for new perspective on African philosophy will find this work thought provoking instructive and informative Human and Mediated Communication around the World Marieke de Mooij, 2013-10-07 This book is unique in the sense that it offers a comprehensive review and analysis of human communication and mediated communication around the world This is one of the first attempts to do so in a systematic comprehensive way It challenges the assumption that Western theories of human communication and mass communication have universal applicability It surveys the applicability of mass communication theories to other than Western cultures The book explains the influence of culture on all forms of communication behavior be it personal mediated or mass communication It presents communication theories from around the world incorporating a vast body of literature from Europe Asia Africa and Latin America This updated information on important international perspectives that includes both interpersonal and mediated communication is presently not readily available in other sources The book offers an integrated approach to understanding the working of electronic means of communication that are hybrid media combining human and mediated communication These new media that are often presented as universal are even more culture bound than the traditional media

Trends and Issues in African Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2010 This book provides an excellent orientation to and a logical development of the major trends and issues that have dominated discussions in African philosophy since the publication of Placide Tempels Bantu Philosophy in 1945 Views of some of the best known African philosophers such as Kwasi Wiredu Paulin Hountondji H Odera Oruka Peter Bodunrin and D A Masolo are discussed in detail The text takes into account in the form of quotations or referencing the views of several other philosophers who have had something to say about African philosophy This book facilitates an excellent orientation on African philosophy at the undergraduate level Those pursuing African philosophy at the graduate level will find the text refreshingly novel

Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there

Ethnophilosophy and the Search for the Wellspring of African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2022-01-12 This book provides a case for the de stigmatisation of ethnophilosophy by demonstrating its continuing relevance in contemporary African philosophy The book brings together established and brilliant young scholars who defend ethnophilosophy as a unique source of African philosophy with the capacity to colour

African philosophical scholarship thereby distinguishing African philosophy from other philosophical traditions of the world and setting the stage for philosophical dialogue in the 21st century characterised by multiculturalism and globalisation The volume addresses the future of African philosophy by closely linking the past of this tradition with the exciting projects of the contemporary system builders whose works emerge from the ethnophilosophical while transcending it The book is aimed at African philosophy experts scholars of intercultural philosophy African studies scholars and graduate students of African and intercultural philosophy International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
