Africas Stalled Development International Causes And Cures:

Africa's Stalled Development David K. Leonard, Scott Straus, 2003 This thoughtful discussion probes the international roots of Africa's civil conflicts and lackluster economies Analyzing an unwitting system that creates a set of incentives inimical to development the authors offer a new way of thinking about Africa's development dilemmas and the policy options for addressing them Weak states aid dependence crushing debt and enclave economies argue the authors create disincentives for long term economic growth and even peace The nature of Africa's interaction with the international system often supports these negative features thus the remedy must come from a radical restructuring of that relationship Africa's Stalled Development heeds that call by presenting specific and innovative prescriptions for change that are sure to stimulate a much needed debate Publisher description

Africa's Stalled Development David K. Leonard, Scott Straus, 2003 This discussion of Africa's stagnant economies and civil disorders examines the dysfunctional incentives under which the continent's political and economic elites typically operate and offers a new way of thinking about Africa's development dilemmas and the policy options for addressing them Weak states personal rule and aid dependence argue the authors combine to create deep disincentives to development Most often these negative structural features are sustained by the nature of Africa's interaction with the rest of the international system thus the cure must come from a radical restructuring of that relationship The specific and decidedly controversial prescription for change that is at the heart of Africa's Stalled Development should stimulate a much needed debate Africa's Stalled Development David K. Leonard, Scott Straus, 2003 A provocative discussion of Africa's development dilemmas and the policy options for addressing them

International Statebuilding in West Africa Abu Bakarr Bah, Nikolas Emmanuel, 2024-08-06 At the turn of the twenty first century manipulation of the democratic process coupled with preexisting political and economic grievances led to years long civil wars in Sierra Leone Liberia and Cote d'Ivoire During and after these conflicts international peacekeeping efforts and humanitarian intervention became the dominant paths for restoring stability by rebuilding the state Using these three countries as case studies this manuscript sheds light on internationally driven state building in war torn West African nations the problematic nature of the postcolonial state and the difficulties of securing its people's wellbeing Connecting peace and conflict democracy and international development studies Bah and Emmanuel argue that there is a clear nexus between the concepts and practices of peace building and statebuilding that peace building and statebuilding are not domestic matters alone but also matters of global intervention and that civil wars can be viewed as opportunities for state building through creative postwar partnerships and organization This study goes beyond the familiar concepts of failed states R2P peacekeeping and peace mediation and introduces and enhances the concepts of state decay new humanitarianism people centered liberalism and institutional design In doing so it provides critical lessons that local and international actors can draw on as they try to figure out practical solutions to the political economic and social problems that impede the development of peaceful and democratic multiethnic postcolonial states in Africa and beyond Applying comparative historical methods and theory to archival materials and expert interviews International Statebuilding in West Africa seeks to shift the discourse on civil wars from their causes and implications to the opportunities they provide to rework failed states and to shift the discourse on African states from their colonial and neocolonial legacies to their shared moral and security interests with the rest of the world Cultivating Their Own Muey C. Saeteurn, Muey Saeteurn, 2020 The Role of Agriculture in Kenya's Political Economy in the Era of Transition and Independence Western Kenya's Region People and the Origins of Population Density Chavakali Secondary School A Place of Learning and Farming Doing Their Part 4 K Farmers Clubs Friends and Acres The Friends Africa Mission Stewardship Program Home is Home The Lugari Settlement Scheme and Maragoliland Conclusion Agricultural Production The New Old Sexy Appendix Interviewee Information Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal's history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there Education and Empowered Citizenship in Mali Jaimie Bleck, 2015-10 Primary school enrollment has increased dramatically in Sub Saharan Africa since democratization in the 1990s A large theoretical literature in political science identifies education as a tool for democracy and state building Schooling Citizens forecasts the effect of expanded access to schooling and the liberalization of educational sectors in Mali by analyzing the relationship between parents and students educational experiences and their participation in politics In a landscape of the declining quality of public education and a multitude of accredited private providers including Islamic Arabic language schools does schooling contribute to citizens political knowledge and participation Are all educational institutions equally capable of forming democratic citizens Bleck's methodologically rigorous research answers these questions and more Her original survey of 1 000 citizens which she conducted in Mali before the 2012 coup d tat explores how different educational experiences in public private informal and Islamic schools affect citizenship She looks at the perspectives of both students and parents as social service consumers The results demonstrate schooling in any type plays an important role empowering citizens as democratic agents Africa Patrick Chabal,2013-04-04 The question usually asked about Africa is why is it going wrong Is the continent still suffering from the ravages of colonialism Or is it the victim of postcolonial economic exploitation poor governance and lack of aid Whatever the answer increasingly the result is poverty and violence In Africa The Politics of Suffering and Smiling Patrick Chabal approaches this question differently by reconsidering the role of theory in African politics Chabal discusses the limitations of existing political theories of Africa and proposes a different starting point arguing that political thinking ought to be driven by the need to address the immediacy of everyday life and death How do people define who they are Where do they belong What do they believe How do they struggle to survive and improve their lives What is the impact of illness and poverty In doing so Chabal proposes a radically different way of looking at politics in Africa and illuminates the ways ordinary people suffer and smile This is a highly original addition to Zed s groundbreaking World Political Theories series Eastern African Literatures Russell West-Pavlov,2018 The book offers an overview of Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It shows how proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres of proximity specific to Eastern African literary production Guns, Drugs, and Development in Colombia Jennifer S. Holmes,Sheila Amin Gutiérrez de Piñeres,Kevin M. Curtin,2010-01-01 For decades Colombia has contended with a variety of highly publicized conflicts including the rise of paramilitary groups in response to rebel insurgencies of the 1960s the expansion of an illegal drug industry that has permeated politics and society since the 1970s and a faltering economy in the 1990s An unprecedented analysis of these struggles Guns Drugs and Development in Colombia brings together leading scholars from a variety of fields blending previously unseen quantitative data with historical analysis for an impressively comprehensive assessment Culminating in an inspiring plan for peace based on Four Cornerstones of Pacification this landmark work is sure to spur new calls for change in this corner of Latin America and beyond Ethnic Politics and State Power in Africa Philip Roessler,2016-12-15 This book models the trade off that rulers of weak ethnically divided states face between coups and civil war Drawing evidence from extensive field research in Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo combined with statistical analysis of most African countries it develops a framework to understand the causes of state failure Why Comrades go to War Philip Roessler,Harry Verhoeven,2017-08-01 An account of the AFDL s rise in 1996 crushing the dictatorship within Zaire Congo and their subsequent collapse only months later as the Pan Africanist alliance fell apart Possessive Individualism Daniel W. Bromley,2019 Daniel Bromley offers a fundamental critique of contemporary capitalism to explain why the world now finds itself in widespread disorder The basic flaw he argues is the triumph of a culture of possessive individualism As a result capitalism is no longer an engine of improved livelihoods and social hope Bromley explains that escape from this disorder requires that the private firm be reimagined as a public trust whose purpose is to offer plausible livelihoods as it also serves our acquisitive wants However the possessive individual also bears urgent responsibilities We must renew the idea of loyalty to others whether neighbors fellow workers or society at large

Challenges to Democratic Governance in Developing Countries Gedeon Mudacumura,Göktuğ Morçöl,2014-01-04 Despite the large amounts of human and financial resources invested to foster democratic governance in developing countries statistics show that the majority of these countries have not yet achieved significant improvements in living standards While some regions make strides towards improving the living conditions of their citizens Sub Saharan Africa for instance is still trapped in poverty with more than 40% of its 600 million people living below the internationally recognized absolute poverty line of one US dollar per day Poor governance and corruption should be highlighted as the most important systemic factors contributing to poverty in developing countries As a result the institutional foundations of these countries are weakened public funds are misappropriated and policies and programs aimed at reducing poverty and fostering sustainable economic growth are undermined It is therefore not surprising that a 2008 Transparency International report found a direct link between corruption and the failure of the societal institutions designed to achieve the Millennium Development Goals in the majority of developing countries This book investigates the problems of democratic governance particularly as they relate to corruption and also whether democracy should be based on universal principles or local context and historical factors It also analyses the rule of law in promoting democratic governance and curbing corruption and if governmental non governmental organizations and civil societies are effective in promoting democratic governance and curbing corruption This book will go beyond identifying the challenges and offer plausible solutions that could be adapted to various developing countries It is premised on the importance of bridging theory and practice which has been lacking in most local and international development publications making of interest to scholars and policy makers alike concerned with public administration in developing countries

The Bush Doctrine and the War on Terrorism Mary Buckley,Robert Singh,2006-09-27 The presidency of George W Bush has been widely regarded as having occasioned one of the most dramatic shifts in the history of American foreign policy The US interventions in Afghanistan and Iraq the declaration of a war on terrorism and the enunciation of a Bush Doctrine of unrivalled military power regime change for rogue states and preventive and pre emptive war together generated unprecedented divisions in the international community In this edited volume leading international experts analyze the nature and scale of the global transformation wrought by the Bush foreign policy in three clear parts part one examines the extent of the Bush administration s break with prior American foreign policy in Part two region and country specific experts assess the responses to the Bush Doctrine and the interaction of domestic and international politics that shaped these They explore how governments political parties the media and public opinion react to US foreign policy and assess the implications for domestic regional and international politics part three examines the likely long term implications of the Bush Doctrine in relation to a set of major thematic issues including war and peace the global economy human rights and the UN Providing a balanced and dispassionate assessment of continuity and change in American foreign policy national regional responses to it and the impact of US foreign policy on a set of big picture discrete issues this book is essential reading for scholars and researchers of international relations and contemporary history Remaking Rwanda Scott Straus, Lars Waldorf, 2011-04-18 In the mid 1990s civil war and genocide ravaged Rwanda Since then the country's new leadership has undertaken a highly ambitious effort to refashion Rwanda's politics economy and society and the country's accomplishments have garnered widespread praise Remaking Rwanda is the first book to examine Rwanda's remarkable post genocide recovery in a comprehensive and critical fashion By paying close attention to memory politics human rights justice foreign relations land use education and other key social institutions and practices this volume raises serious concerns about the depth and durability of the country's reconstruction Edited by Scott Straus and Lars Waldorf Remaking Rwanda brings together experienced scholars and human rights professionals to offer a nuanced historically informed picture of post genocide Rwanda one that reveals powerful continuities with the nation's past and raises profound questions about its future Best Special Interest Books selected by the American Association of School Librarians Best Special Interest Books selected by the Public Library Reviewers A Thousand Hills Stephen Kinzer, 2009-05-04 A Thousand Hills Rwanda's Rebirth and the Man Who Dreamed It is the story of Paul Kagame a refugee who after a generation of exile found his way home Learn about President Kagame who strives to make Rwanda the first middle income country in Africa in a single generation In this adventurous tale learn about Kagame's early fascination with Che Guevara and James Bond his years as an intelligence agent his training in Cuba and the United States the way he built his secret rebel army his bloody rebellion and his outsized ambitions for Rwanda Interplaces Nicholas A. Phelps, 2017 Much of the world's economic activity takes place in between cities and nations the geographical containers that we have taken for granted for hundreds of years now In this book Nicholas Phelps provides a guide to this uncharted territory within urban and economic geography He highlights the importance of intermediary actors and processes in shaping this economy in between From the airports shopping malls and office parks that have sprung up on the road between cities to work done on the move in cars and trains to the decisions made by internationally mobile networks of experts in conferences and negotiations The geography of the economy in between is revealed as one involving four recurring and coexisting economic geographical formations the agglomeration the enclave the networks and the arena Phelps sets out a multidisciplinary perspective and agenda on the question of the how why and where much contemporary economic activity takes place Politics of Civil Wars Amalendu Misra, 2013-05-13 Civil war is one of the critical issues of our time Although intrastate in nature it has a disproportionate and overwhelming effect on the overall peace and stability of contemporary international society Organized around the themes of contested nationalism violence external intervention post conflict reconstruction reconciliation and governance Amalendu Misra investigates why civil wars have become so widespread and how can they be contained Particularly noteworthy is its focus on the cycle of conflict ranging as it does on the causes conduct and end of civil wars as well as on subsequent efforts to return post conflict society to normal politics Theoretically robust and empirically solid this book clearly charts the course of contemporary civil wars using case studies from a variety of zones of conflict including Africa Asia and Latin America to produce the most comprehensive guide to understanding civil wars in an interconnected and interdependent world Aid Dependence in Cambodia Sophal Ear,2013 Dr Ear argues that the international community has chosen to prioritize political stability above all other governance dimensions and in so doing has traded a modicum of democracy for an ounce of security Focusing on post 1993 Cambodia Ear explores the unintended consequences in post conflict environments of foreign aid He chooses Cambodia both for personal reasons which infuses an academic analysis with a compelling sense of urgency and because it is one of the most aid drenched countries in modern history He tries to explain the relationship between Cambodia's aid dependence and its appallingly poor governance He concludes that despite decades of aid technical cooperation four national elections no open warfare and some progress in some parts of the economy Cambodia is one broken government away from disaster Publisher's description
