A Light to the Nations Stanley M. Burgess, Paul W. Lewis, 2017-03-02 The essays in this volume which are written by friends colleagues and former students are dedicated to Gary B McGee as a memorial to his life work and service As a professor with a clear calling to teach he modeled this passion at the Open Bible College Des Moines Iowa Central Bible College Springfield Missouri and the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary Springfield Missouri He exuded the understanding that quality teaching superior scholarship a genuine Pentecostal spirituality and an irenic spirit can and should go together Within the title of this volume A Light to the Nations two aspects become clear First each person is called to be a light to the nations as Gary McGee modeled Second and foundational to the first is the reality that Jesus Christ is the ultimate light and our energies study discussions and life in general should rely on this fact As a reflection of Gary McGee's life and ministry these two aspects are focused through three lenses which are the three sections of this volume Ecumenism Missions and Pentecostalism The essays represent a diversity of subjects and denote various explorations by colleagues and friends of Gary B McGee

De Gereformeerde Kerk-bode in Zuid Afrika Gereformeerde Kerk-Bode in zuid-Afrika,1856 The Origins of Proslavery Christianity Charles F. Irons,2009-11-30 In the colonial and antebellum South black and white evangelicals frequently prayed sang and worshipped together Even though white evangelicals claimed spiritual fellowship with those of African descent they nonetheless emerged as the most effective defenders of race based slavery As Charles Irons persuasively argues white evangelicals ideas about slavery grew directly out of their interactions with black evangelicals Set in Virginia the largest slaveholding state and the hearth of the southern evangelical movement this book draws from church records denominational newspapers slave narratives and private letters and diaries to illuminate the dynamic relationship between whites and blacks within the evangelical fold Irons reveals that when whites theorized about their moral responsibilities toward slaves they thought first of their relationships with bondmen in their own churches Thus African American evangelicals inadvertently shaped the nature of the proslavery argument When they chose which churches to join used the procedures set up for church discipline rejected colonization or built quasi independent congregations for example black churchgoers spurred their white coreligionists to further develop the religious defense of slavery
