A Mainline Turnaround Strategies For Congregations And Denominations:

A Mainline Turnaround Lyle E. Schaller, 2005 A proposal for ways congregations and their denominations can reinvent themselves in order to reach the generations born after 1960 The twin towers of the World Trade Center fell on September 11 2001 because they were subjected to conditions they were never designed to bear However unwittingly they were designed to fail when the unexpected happened So it is says Lyle Schaller with mainline Protestant congregations and denominations Designed to meet the needs of previous generations they were destined to fail when the needs of current generations diverged radically from those of their predecessors as indeed they have But it is not too late for these churches to reinvent themselves to redesign their ministries programs and mission to focus on those born after 1960 With his customary insight and wide ranging perspective Schaller offers prescriptions for how mainline churches can respond to the needs of a new era Lyle E Schaller is the country's leading interpreter of congregational systems and their vitality He is the author of dozens of books including The Ice Cube Is Melting also published by Abingdon Press Wisdom from Lyle E.

Schaller Warren Bird, 2012 One poll declared him the most influential American church leader of the last 100 years Lyle E Schaller has written literally millions of words of insight and advice for church leaders His books alone number nearly 60 titles and span 40 years of publication beginning in 1964 Now this single volume makes available his best insights organized by topic and framed with fascinating background perspective of Schaller himself This volume both introduces Schaller to a new generation of church leaders and is a handy resource for those who grew up on Schaller's writing and count him as a major ministry influence The Apostolic Congregation Dr. George G. Hunter III, 2010-09-01 A church in the heart of Manhattan and a congregation among the Inuit people of Northern Canada would seem to have little in common with one another Yet in one way they are surprisingly similar They are both apostolic congregations churches whose every program exists for the purpose of presenting the gospel to non Christians and making disciples of Jesus Christ What is the secret of churches like these how have they learned to make evangelism central to everything they do In studying apostolic congregations around the world George G Hunter III has discovered a set of perspectives and practices that they all share With the passion and insight for which he is so well known Hunter demonstrates how your congregation can learn to focus on the one thing that most matters bringing people into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ Places of Promise: Finding Strength in Your Congregation's Location Cynthia Woolever, Deborah Bruce, 2008 Multisite Churches Dustin L.

Slaton, 2024-02-13 The multisite church model has been consistently challenged by those who deem it unbiblical and incompatible with God's design for the local church but does Scripture support this claim In Multisite Churches pastor and church vitalist Dustin Slaton posits that congregational polity is compatible with the multisite model dismantling critiques with both urgency and care for the local church's future At a time when church fostering and church adoption are predicted to increase significantly the multisite church model is a solution that can support the adoption of churches Bringing in personal experience and erudite research Slaton heuristically demonstrates a methodological approach of ecclesiology with a theological framework for the multisite model fairly addressing both critics and supporters Multisite Churches is a resource for biblical ecclesiology with wide ranging benefits for both clergy and congregant Those prayerfully discerning whether they can transition to a multisite church in a biblical way and those who are interested in the topic will benefit from the guidance and insight provided in this timely resource Turnaround and Beyond Ron Crandall,2010-09-01 Since its publication in 1995 Ron Crandall s Turnaround Strategies for the Small Church has become required reading for anyone striving to revitalize the ministry of a small membership congregation That book was built on extensive interviews and studies conducted in dozens of small membership churches across several denominations that had experienced significant turnaround In a new study Crandall has now returned to those congregations to see what it takes to make the turnaround work over a period of years Learning much from both the churches who maintained significant growth in numbers and ministry and those that failed to do so he offers even more helpful insight to any congregational leader seeking to take a small membership church into a new phase of witness and mission Hit the Bullseye Rev. Paul D. Borden,2010-09-01 This book is not an attempt to offer hope help or even advice on what denominations need to do However it is a book about a significant turn around of a middle level administration of justice in one Protestant denomination and it does offer hope that other like administrations might be able to experience a better and more effective existence Everyone s experience is unique and therefore cannot be replicated However the implementation of foundational all encompassing principles the development of new strategies and the performance of specific tactics that are successful in one situation does offer hope to others that their modeling of the principles adapting the strategies and creating specific tactics to fit their context can bring change This book is a gutsy look at denominational life leadership and vision and offers new paradigms for the local church middle judicatories and national denominational life A must read for anyone interested in bringing renewal to the local church and our denomination Clearly Borden has hit the bull s eye with regard not only to our denomination s needs but also how renewal begins in the local church ABE News Foreword to Hit the Bullseye by Leith Anderson July 2003 Some look at things that are and ask why I dream of things that never were and ask why not George Bernard Shaw There are approximately 400 000 churches in the United States and the vast majority of them belong to denominations Some are healthy vibrant and growing Most are tired struggling not growing and don t know what to do Plenty of critics and cynics take surveys analyze data and write books about what is wrong with the churches of America As if following the theology of Chicken Little they are convinced that the sky is falling and there is little we can do except seek cover Proposals for renewal often are offered by theorists who tell practitioners what to do but have never actually done it themselves What if What if there was a way to help declining churches to grow What if we could teach pastors how to lead their congregations to spiritual renewal What if thousands of churches changed from maintenance to mission What if a movement began with 200 churches that grew to 200

000 churches What if millions of unchurched people came into lasting relationships with Jesus Christ and the church What if the denominations of America with all of their people property and potential became the epicenter of this spiritual earthquake that became known as the Great Awakening of the 21st Century Maybe all this sounds too good to be true Well it has already begun Centered in the earthquake zone of northern California the American Baptist Churches of the West have demonstrated that a plateaued and declining region of mainline congregations can become a model of healthy and growing congregations They have overcome the usual excuses that our churches are too small we have too many older people and congregations and property here is too expensive They followed a powerful formula of biblical strategies courageous leadership and much hard work What is most amazing is that the turnaround took less than five years Why not Here is the dream Denominational leaders executive ministers bishops district superintendents regional directors seminary teachers pastors and lay leaders will discover what God has done in northern California and say Why not here With a few creative adaptations we can do the same thing in our denomination and in our churches They will start small and multiply They will risk their traditions finances staff and jobs They will respond to misunderstanding with teaching and take criticism with grace Then there will be one successful church transformation new vision new faith new people and new excitement One will become ten and ten will become one hundred Church by church region by region denomination by denomination a true reformation will bring a great new era to the people and churches of our generation It can be done It has been done This is a dream of the way things can be Be among those who say Why not Let's do it

Paul D. Borden, 2011-12-01 Learn the Big Picture approach that will aim your congregation at the mission field in your back yard or around the world Many churches want to make the transition from an inward to an outward focus from catering to the needs of members to reaching out into the world to make disciples of Jesus Christ Too often they try to accomplish this radical change by taking half steps and partial measures initiating a new program here or adding a new staff members there Yet this kind of change requires more To succeed in changing its core focus this way a congregation must learn strategic thinking it must commit itself to seeing the big picture and to taking the steps necessary to paint that picture afresh Everyone including pastors lay leaders key teams and groups and the congregation as a whole must be involved in a process of transformation Paul D Borden author of Hit the Bullseye and Direct Hit knows that this transformation will not be easy But if the target is bringing more people into saving relationship with Jesus Christ what could be more worthwhile Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1998 The Church Stimulus Package Rev. rich narrative follows Christian missions as they interacted with imperial powers and as the momentum of religious change shifted from Christianity to Islam and back adding new dimensions to the history of the region and the nature of the relationship between the Middle East and the West. Historians and political scientists increasingly recognize the importance of integrating religion into political analysis and this volume using long neglected sources uniquely advances this effort. It surveys Christian missions from the earliest days of Christianity to the present paying particular attention to the role of Christian missions both Protestant and Catholic in shaping the political and economic imperialism of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Eleanor H. Tejirian and Reeva Spector Simon delineate the ongoing tensions between conversion and the focus on witness and good works within the missionary movement which contributed to the development and spread of nongovernmental organizations. Through its conscientious systematic study this volume offers an unparalleled encounter with the social, political and economic consequences of such trends. Missiology, 1995. Reconstructing Church Todd Grant Yonkman, 2014-08-06. The general decline of American mainline Protestant churches today is well documented. Church redevelopment, imagining and actualizing new life for dying churches, is a productive and vital response to congregational decline, but it can be daunting. Here is a guidebook for church leaders to help them reinvigorate their churches with both practical advice and tested theory. A comprehensive case study of Beneficent Congregational Church, which successfully turned the tide and quadrupled its worship attendance, provides inspiration as well as concrete strategies for church redevelopment. The study indicates that successful and faithful church redevelopment involves a shift from a modern patronage ministry model to a postmodern plural ministry model. Building on current church redevelopment literature by bringing selected Biblical and theological texts into conversation with leadership concepts, systems theory, social sciences and congregational studies, this book creates a multidisciplinary transformative conversation. The result is both strategic proposals for growing your church and a model for doing practical theology in your own ministry context. Dedicated, trained leadership in cooperation with the power of the Spirit can create the possibility of new life in dying congregations. In Dying We Are Born Peter Bush, 2007-12-03. Deeply ingrained in Western culture and in the minds of most church leaders is the belief that there is a solution to every problem. Peter Bush offers a powerful challenge to this approach, arguing that for new life, energy and passion to arise in congregations, they must die. One way of being the church in order that a new way may rise. Bush identifies two types of dying congregations. Some congregations need to close their doors, bringing to an end years of ministry. Other congregations need to dramatically change their culture and ways of doing ministry. Such change may not entail literally closing the congregation's doors, but it will require people giving up deeply held understandings of the life and purpose of the congregation. All congregations, Bush contends, even ones that see themselves as healthy, need to be prepared to die to take up their cross so God can make them alive. A skillful storyteller, Bush shows readers why churches must confront their mortality. He examines the role of the prophetic leader who proclaims both the congregation's death and its resurrection He explores spiritual practices and the habits of wonder remember and risk taking for congregations that know they are dying or need to die Only by dying Bush says will a congregation find resurrection life given by God who raises the dead to life Ministerial Ethics Joe E. Trull, James E. Carter, 2004-03-01

Ministerial Ethics provides both new and experienced pastors with tools for sharpening their personal and professional decision making skills The authors seek to explain the unique moral role of the minister and the ethical responsibilities of the vocation and to provide a clear statement of the ethical obligations contemporary clergy should assume in their personal and professional lives Trull and Carter deal with such areas as family life confidentiality truth telling political involvement working with committees and relating to other church staff members First published in 1993 this edition has been thoroughly updated throughout and contains expanded sections on theological foundations the role of character confidentiality and the timely topic of clergy sexual abuse Appendices describing various denominational ministerial codes of ethics are included
