Preaching John F. MacArthur,Master's Seminary Faculty,2005-08-21 Many sermons preached today lack the divine knowledge and spiritual understanding available only through dynamic expository preaching In Preaching How to Preach Biblically John MacArthur well known passion for the Bible combines with the expertise of faculty members at The Master s Seminary to inspire and equip preachers in effective biblical preaching Preaching How to Preach Biblically flows from biblical foundations for expository preaching through a detailed process of developing expositions and creating sermons to the actual delivery of expository messages connecting what pastors learn in seminary with the sermons preached in a local church This volume shows how to progress purposefully from one phase to the next in preparing to minister to God s people through preaching This book answers these questions and more What is expository biblical preaching What are the theological and historical foundations for insisting on expository preaching What are the steps involved in preparation for and participation in biblical preaching What models exist for expository preaching today The Master s Seminary faculty with over thirty years experience in preaching and seminary training of preachers contributes a treasury of expertise alongside insights from expositor John MacArthur While united on their commitment to exposition the variety of individual expressions and methodological preferences discussed offers beneficial assistance for any preacher seeking a higher level of expository excellence Christ is God Over All George Carraway,2013-08-15 This book is written against the background of Christological scholarly thought since the publication of Kyrios Christos by Bousset Carraway argues that the syntax of Romans 9 5 suggests Paul meant to refer to Jesus as God and that his statement is not out of place at the beginning of Romans 9 11 He addresses objections to this conclusion responding to those who claim that a monotheist such as Paul would not refer to Jesus as God and to those who point out that Paul does not elsewhere identify Jesus as God After demonstrating that there is a connection between Romans 9 5 and the remainder of Romans 9 11 the argument continues by tying Paul's monotheistic statements regarding the one God of both Jews and Gentiles in Romans 3 the concept of the one Lord of all in Romans 10 5 13 The book concludes that the redeemer from Zion in 11 25 27 is Christ and is the same as the Christ from Israel in 9 5 Granville Sharp's Canon and Its Kin Daniel B. Wallace, 2009 Granville Sharp's Canon and Its Kin explains that the semantics of the article substantive KAI substantive construction TSKS have been largely misunderstood and that this misunderstanding has adversely impacted the exegesis of several theologically significant texts This issue is addressed from three angles historical investigation linguistic phenomenological analysis of the construction and exegetical implications The reasons for the misunderstanding are traced historically a better comprehension of the semantics of the construction is established by an examination of primary literature in the light of linguistic theory and the implications of this analysis are applied to a number of passages in the New Testament Historically the treatment begins with a clear grammatical principle articulated by Granville Sharp and it ends with the present day confusion This book includes a detailed examination of the New Testament data and other Ancient Greek literature which reveals that Sharp's rule has a general validity in the language Lastly a number of exegetically significant texts that are affected by the linguistic phenomenological investigation are discussed in detail This enlightening text is a valuable resource for undergraduate and graduate students of religion linguistics history and Greek The Faith of the New Testament Roy A. Harrisville III, 2023-03-14 The importance of faith in Christianity cannot be denied nor the arguments surrounding it The crisis of faith that now grips the Western church necessitates a fresh look at its essential teachings This study traces the trajectory of St Paul's concept of faith in the rest of the New Testament in order to answer the question of how far and in what manner the other books of the New Testament agree or disagree with the Apostle of the Gentiles Was St Paul an outlier or an influencer Common assumptions about faith and the language of faith are challenged in this study Rather than giving simple voice to conventional presuppositions this book wrestles with the origin and character of Christian faith and provides a provocative view that should spark renewed discussion about the heart of Christianity A Biblical Theology of the Church Mal Couch, 1999 Now in paperback this extensive resource examines the doctrine of the church and offers guidance on mission pastoral care leadership and government in the local church Numerous Scripture references practical suggestions and discussion questions for every chapter make this work on ecclesiology perfect for both personal and group study
