Provider-Led Population Health Management Richard Hodach,Paul Grundy,Anil Jain,Michael Weiner,2016-09-15 Provider Led Population Health Management Key Healthcare Strategies in the Cognitive Era Second Edition draws connections among the new care delivery models the components of population health management and the types of health IT that are required to support those components The key concept that ties all of this together is that PHM requires a high degree of automation to reach everyone in a population engage those patients in self care and maximize the chance that they will receive the proper preventive chronic and acute care While this book is intended for healthcare executives and policy experts anyone who is interested in health care can learn something from its exploration of the major issues that are stirring health care today In the end the momentous changes going on in health care will affect us all Healthcare Management Volker Eric Amelung,2019-10-10 This textbook on Healthcare Management provides a systematic and comprehensive overview of the organisational forms and management instruments implemented in managed care Within the international discussion on the structure of healthcare systems managed care is an increasingly important topic Over more than twenty years managed care approaches have fundamentally influenced healthcare systems in terms of patient orientation efficiency and quality Experts assume that up to 20% of healthcare expenses can be saved by applying high quality managed care approaches By using suitable organisational forms and management principles not only can costs be reduced but the quality of medical service provision can be augmented Managed care is therefore much more than a cost cutting strategy Advocates consider managed care to be a logical and necessary developmental step in modern healthcare systems An increase in quality and at the same time a reduction of costs is not seen as contradictory but rather as consistent Therefore managed care is a response to changed challenges in the provision of healthcare
