DIRTY REALISM: SHORT STORIES Guido Natale,2023-05-06 This book you are thinking of buying is explosive Not because it will activate a strange mechanism that will blow everything out of the air it is pure napalm It permeates your memory and after you have identified with each of the situations and characters it slowly but systematically corrodes your conception of reality Mart n Segovia bursts into literature with a book of short stories in a transversal way against trends and fashions in the dark room of those who are not afraid to tell the truth Faithful to a literary tradition that is much named but infrequent in writing Bukowski Celine S bato Natale's literature has a trait of moral incorrectness his stories always narrate the fall of our convictions through small epiphanies If the fallen angels are beings who recover the earthly dirt the characters change the focus of their fall it is an inverse fall from below to above because they know that above in their desperate search for communication for love for meaning there is only an instant of flotation where suddenly in the comedy of nothingness itself everything comes crashing down again Fernando Krapp periodista p gina
