the production and uses of unit diaries from battlefield to archive have influenced how modern war is understood and more importantly waged This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies military history archive studies and British history The Urban Tree Duncan Goodwin,2017-04-07 There is a growing evidence base that documents the social environmental and economic benefits that urban trees can deliver Trees are however under threat today as never before due to competition for space imposed by development other hard infrastructures increased pressure on the availability of financial provision from local authorities and a highly cautious approach to risk management in a modern litigious society It is therefore incumbent upon all of us in construction and urban design disciplines to pursue a set of goals that not only preserve existing trees where we can but also ensure that new plantings are appropriately specified and detailed to enable their successful establishment and growth to productive maturity Aimed at developers urban planners urban designers landscape architects and arboriculturists this book takes a candid look at the benefits that trees provide alongside the threats that are eliminating them from our towns and cities It takes a simple applied approach that explores a combination of science and practical experience to help ensure a pragmatic and reasoned approach to decision making in terms of tree selection specification placement and establishment In this way trees can successfully be incorporated within our urban landscapes so that we can continue to reap the benefits they provide Accommodating Muslims under Common Law Salim Farrar,Ghena Krayem,2016-07-15 The book explores the relationship between Muslims the Common Law and Shar ah post 9 11 The book looks at the accommodation of Shar ah Law within Western Common Law legal traditions and the role of the judiciary in particular in drawing boundaries for secular democratic states with Muslim populations who want resolutions to conflicts that also comply with the dictates of their faith Salim Farrar and Ghena Krayem consider the question of recognition of Shar ah by looking at how the flexibilities that exists in both the Common Law and Shar ah provide unexplored avenues for navigation and accommodation The issue is explored in a comparative context across several jurisdictions and case law is examined in the contexts of family law business and crime from selected jurisdictions with significant Muslim minority populations including Australia Canada England and Wales and the United States The book examines how Muslims and the broader community have framed their claims for recognition against a backdrop of terrorism fears and how Common Law judiciaries have responded within their constitutional and statutory confines and also within the contemporary contexts of demands for equality neutrality and universal human rights Acknowledging the inherent pragmatism flexibility and values of the Common Law the authors argue that the controversial issue of accommodation of Shar ah is not necessarily one that requires the establishment of a separate and parallel legal system Universities as Living Labs for Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho,Amanda Lange Salvia,Rudi W. Pretorius,Luciana Londero Brandli,Evangelos Manolas,Fatima Alves,Ulisses Azeiteiro,Judy Rogers,Chris Shiel,Arminda Do Paco,2019-04-30 This book fills an important gap in the literature and presents contributions from scientists and researchers working in the field of sustainable development who have engaged in dynamic approaches to implementing sustainability in higher education It is widely known that universities are key players in terms of the implementation and further development of sustainability with some having the potential of acting as living labs in this rapidly growing field Yet there are virtually no publications that explore the living labs concept as it relates to sustainability and in an integrated manner The aims of this book which is an outcome of the 4th World Symposium on Sustainable Development at Universities WSSD U 2018 held in Malaysia in 2018 are as follows i to document the experiences of universities from all around the world in curriculum innovation research activities and practical projects as they relate to sustainable development at the university level ii to disseminate information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of projects including successful initiatives and good practice iii to introduce and discuss methodological approaches and projects that seek to integrate the topic of sustainable development in the curricula of universities and iv to promote the scalability of existing and future models from universities as living labs for sustainable development The papers are innovative cross cutting and many reflect practice based experiences some of which may be replicable elsewhere Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reinforces the role played by universities as living labs for sustainable development

Proceedings of the International Conference Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy TAKE 2017 Blazenka Knezevic, Gaby Neumann, 2017-07-08 Foreword A famous Portuguese Poet once said around one hundred years ago before I was born all the words that should save the Humanity had already been written the only thing that was missing was to save Humanity Fast forward to the 21st century services led and knowledge based economy and we have myriads of theoretical study about the decisive assets namely intangibles Those analysis are made in several perspectives namely Human Resources Knowledge Management Intellectual Capital and also many sectorial perspectives like Trade Economics Logistics Social Policy etc However today the question about the applicability of all these studies remains unsolved So it like many of the words that will save the Knowledge Economy have already been written all we need is to save the Knowledge Economy Or is it not The idea behind TAKE Conference was to provide a multidisciplinary forum in which those multiple perspectives will come together We believe it is a fruitful operation and we intend to continue the exercise in the future The problem of the relation between theory and practice in the knowledge economy is getting more important and not less important with the development of the BRICS and other nations TAKE main question will be one of the problems of the 21st century Following the promising start of TAKE 2016 in Aveiro Portugal TAKE 2017 was organized by the Faculty of Economics of Zagreb University around Prof Blazenka Knezevic I would like to thank her and her team for the massive effort in putting TAKE 2017 together It will be a very nice and memorable conference I would like also to thank the 5 keynotes the special sessions and workshop organizes the authors of the 60 papers and 5 posters the stream leaders the reviewers and the sponsors for the efforts And to the 90 participants from 20 countries Austria Bosnia Herzegovina Canada Croatia Germany Hong Kong Hungary Netherlands Mexico Portugal Poland Romania Russia South Africa Serbia Slovakia Spain Thailand United Kingdom United States A special word to Prof Gaby Neumann from Wildau who organized the Proceedings Let us make TAKE 2017 a great occasion and help save the knowledge economy a bit Eduardo Tom Conference Chair Zagreb July 2017

Theatre, Exhibition, and Curation Georgina Guy, 2016-04-20 Examining the artistic intellectual and social life of performance this book interrogates Theatre and Performance Studies through the lens of display and modern visual art Moving beyond the exhibition of immaterial art and its documents as well as re enactment in gallery contexts Guy's book articulates an emerging field of arts practice distinct from but related to increasing curatorial provision for live performance Drawing on a recent proliferation of object centric events of display that interconnect with theatre the book approaches artworks in terms of their curation together and re theorizes the exhibition as a dynamic context in which established traditions of display and performance interact By examining the current traffic of ideas and aesthetics moving between theatricality and curatorial practice the study reveals how the reception of a specific form is often mediated via the ontological expectations of another It asks how contemporary visual arts and exhibition practices display performance and what it means to generalize the theatrical as the optic or directive of a curatorial concept Proposing a symbiotic relation between theatricality and display Guy presents cases from international arts institutions which are both displayed and performed including the Tate Modern and the Guggenheim and assesses their significance to the enduring relation between theatre and the visual arts The book progresses from the conventional alignment of theatricality and ephemerality within performance research and teases out a new temporality for performance with which contemporary exhibitions implicitly experiment thereby identifying supplementary modes of performance which other discourses exclude This important study joins the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies with exciting new directions in curation aesthetics sociology of the arts visual arts the creative industries the digital humanities cultural heritage and reception and audience theories Imagining Latin America Nicola Jones, 2021 A new and innovative approach to Latin American Studies which makes an important contribution to contemporary debates about cultural appropriation and the integration of immigrant communities

ISIS and the Pornography of Violence Simon Cottee, 2019-05-30 ISIS and the Pornography of Violence is a collection of iconoclastic essays on ISIS spanning the four year period from its ascendancy in late 2014 to its demise in early 2018 From a trenchant critique of the infantilization of jihadists to a probing examination of the parallels between gonzo porn and ISIS beheading videos the pieces collected in this volume challenge conventional ways of thinking about ISIS and the roots of its appeal Simon Cottee's core argument is that Western ISIS recruits far from being brainwashed or vulnerable dupes actively responded to the group's promise of redemptive violence and self sacrifice to a total cause
