Allardice,2020-04-29 On January 1 1943 my dad James K Kenneth Allardice began keeping a diary in what were called national diary These were fairly large diaries 91 2 71 2 and he faithfully kept a daily accounting of family activities as well as noting important local national and international events In many respects these diaries resemble newspaper pages This was due to his early endeavors as a newspaper founder columnist editor and publisher What you will read in the following pages are just excerpts from the diaries It was quite a task to choose what to include as the diaries from 1943 to 1963 contain almost 7 300 pages as well as hundreds of clippings and photos I hope that what follows will give an interesting account of my family growing up together dealing with the everyday joys and challenges and what life was like at 611 Main Street Toms concern a typical suburban public high school Typical is the operative word Tax money poured in by the local community for extraordinary services provided to all school age children Money spent everywhere acclaimed educators hired spectacular facilities built resources like computers and laboratory equipment acquired extra curricular activities created yet the outcome Academic failure violence drugs gangs and drop out rates approaching fifty percent There is the result Why Where has the money gone The resources gone The stories provide a glimpse and a few answers There are portraits of students teachers and school administrators In these you can figure the reasons for the failures Often the failure is a combination of forces the kids themselves instability of parents and extended families poor teachers and administrators and a bureaucracy gone wild To pinpoint any one cause as a reason for the school s record is difficult at best      El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in
