Austerity In Britain Rationing Controls And Consumption 1939 1955:

Austerity in Britain Ina Zweiniger-Bargielowska, 2000-05-04 Austerity in Britain is the first book to explore the entire episode of rationing austerity and fair shares from 1939 until 1955 These policies were central to the British war effort and to post war reconstruction The book analyses the connections between government policy consumption gender and party politics during and after the Second World War The economic background to austerity the policy s administration and changes in consumption standards are examined Rationing resulted in at times extensive black markets and popular attitudes to the policy ranged from wartime acquiescence to post war discontent Austerity in Britain qualifies the myth of common sacrifice on the home front and highlights the limitations of the fair shares policy which failed to achieve genuine equality between classes or between men and women The continuation of rationing and austerity policies after 1945 was central to party politics Disaffection particularly among women undermined Labour s popularity while the Conservatives critique of austerity was instrumental to the party s victories at the general elections of 1951 and 1955 A World at Total War

Roger Chickering, Stig Förster, Bernd Greiner, German Historical Institute (Washington, D.C.), 2005 This volume presents the results of a conference on the history of total war Agriculture in Capitalist Europe, 1945-1960 Carin Martiin, Juan Pan-Montojo, Paul Brassley, 2016-06-17 In the years before the Second World War agriculture in most European states was carried out on peasant or small family farms using technologies that relied mainly on organic inputs and local knowledge and skills supplying products into a market that was partly local or national partly international The war applied a profound shock to this system In some countries farms became battlefields causing the extensive destruction of buildings crops and livestock In others farmers had to respond to calls from the state for increased production to cope with the effects of wartime disruption of international trade By the end of the war food was rationed when it was obtainable at all Only fifteen years later the erstwhile enemies were planning ways of bringing about a single agricultural market across much of continental western Europe as farmers mechanised motorized shed labour invested capital and adopted new technologies to increase output This volume brings together scholars working on this period of dramatic technical commercial and political change in agriculture from the end of the Second World War to the emergence of the Common Agricultural Policy in the early 1960s Their work is structured around four themes the changes in the international political order within which agriculture operated the emergence of a range of different market regulation schemes that preceded the CAP changes in technology and the extent to which they were promoted by state policy and the impact of these political and technical changes on rural societies in western Europe The Labour Party and the Planned Economy, 1931-1951 Richard Toye, 2003 An exploration of Labour s 1931 pledge to create a planned socialist economy and the reasons for its failure to do so In the general election of 1931 the Labour Party campaigned on the slogan Plan or Perish The party s pledge to create a planned socialist economy was a novelty and marked the rejection of the gradualist evolutionary socialism to which Labour had adhered under the leadership of Ramsay MacDonald Although heavily defeated in that election Labour stuck to its commitment The Attlee government came to power in 1945 determined to plan comprehensively Yet the aspiration to create a fully planned economy was not met This book explores the origins and evolution of the promise in order to explain why it was not fulfilled RICHARD TOYE lectures in history at Homerton College Cambridge Britain's War Into Battle, 1937-1941 Daniel Todman, 2016 The first volume of a sweeping new history of Britain and its involvement in World War II State and Society Fourth Edition Martin Pugh, 2012-04-10 State and Society is one of the most respected introductions to the social and political history of modern Britain Now in its fourth edition this book guides readers through the decline of New Labour the financial crisis and the Coalition Government as well as discussing the continuing dilemmas of national unity Woman's Weekly and Lower Middle-Class Domestic Culture in Britain, 1918-1958 Eleanor Reed, 2022-03-23 A unique intersection between periodical and literary scholarship and class and gender history this book showcases a brand new approach to surveying a popular domestic magazine Reading Woman s Weekly alongside titles including Good Housekeeping My Weekly Peg s Paper and Woman s Own and works by authors including Dot Allan E M Delafield George Orwell and J B Priestley it positions the publication within both the contemporary magazine market and the field of literature more broadly redrawing the parameters of that field as it approaches the domestic magazine as a literary genre in its own right Between 1918 and 1958 Woman s Weekly targeted a lower middle class readership broadly housewives and unmarried clerical workers on low incomes who viewed or aspired to view themselves as middle class Examining the magazine s distinctively lower middle class treatment of issues including the First World War s impact on gender the status of housewives and working women women s contribution to the Second World War effort and Britain s post war economic and social recovery this book supplies fresh and challenging insights into lower middle class culture during a period in which Britain s lower middle classes were gaining prominence and middle class lifestyles were undergoing rapid and radical change Food, Drink, and the Written Word in Britain, 1820-1945 Mary Addyman, Laura Wood, Christopher Yiannitsaros, 2017-04-21 This volume explores the intersection between culinary history and literature across a period of profound social and cultural change Split into three parts essays focus on the food scandals of the early Victorian era the decadence and greed of late Victorian and Edwardian Britain and the effects of austerity caused by two world wars The Life and Death of the Shopping City Alistair Kefford, 2022-04-07 Traces the transformation redevelopment of Britain s cities from post war reconstruction and modernist urban renewal to the present day The Death of Rural England Alun Howkins, 2003-09-02 Alun Howkins panoramic survey is a social history of rural England and Wales in the twentieth century He examines the impact of the First World War the role of agriculture throughout the century and the expectations of the countryside that modern urban people harbour Howkins analyzes the role of rural England as a place for work as well as leisure and the problems caused by these often conflicting roles This overview will be welcomed by anyone interested in agricultural and social history historical geographers and all those interested in rural affairs

BRITAIN'S WAR Daniel Todman, 2020 The second volume of Daniel Todman's epic history of the British experience of World War II and its aftermath Histories of the Aftermath Frank Biess, Robert G. Moeller, 2010-07-01 In 1945 Europeans confronted a legacy of mass destruction and death millions of families had lost their homes and livelihoods millions of men in uniform had lost their lives and millions more had been displaced by the war's destruction and the genocidal policies of the Nazi regime From a range of methodological historical perspectives military cultural and social to film and gender and sexuality studies this volume explores how Europeans came to terms with these multiple pasts With a focus on distinctive national experiences in both Eastern and Western Europe it illuminates how postwar stabilization coexisted with persistent insecurities injuries and trauma Global Appetites Allison Carruth, 2008 Churchill's Cold War Klaus Larres, 2002-01-01 En dybtgående veldokumenteret analyse af britisk udenrigspolitik i gennem de første 10 efterkrigsår herunder bl.a. den engelsk-amerikansk-franske manøvre for at afværge Sovjetunionens bestræbelser for at genforene Tyskland

Women and Mass Consumer Society in Postwar France Rebecca Pulju, 2011-02-14 Examines the emergence of a citizen consumer role for women during postwar modernization and reconstruction in France Facing the Second World War Talbot C. Imlay, 2003 This work offers a systematic comparison of how two countries Britain and France responded to the possibility and then reality of total war by examining developments in three dimensions strategic domestic political and political economic How to Fix the Welfare State Paul Spicker, 2022-02 Paul Spicker offers an original take on the British welfare state He outlines the structure of services the impact of false narratives the real problems that need to be addressed and how we can do things better Jews and Their Foodways Anat Helman, 2015 Bringing together contributions from a diverse group of scholars Volume XXVIII of Studies in Contemporary Jewry presents a multifaceted view of the subtle and intricate relations between Jews and their foodways The symposium covers Europe the Middle East Africa and North America from the 20th century to the 21st Everyday Welfare in Modern British History Caitríona Beaumont, Eve Colpus, Ruth Davidson, 2024-12-17 This open access book offers a new approach to understandings of welfare in modern Britain Foregrounding the agency individuals and groups claimed through experiential expertise it traces deep connections between personal experience welfare and activism across diverse settings in modern Britain The experiential experts studied in this collection include women students children women who have sex with women bereaved families community groups individuals living in poverty adults whose status sits outside professional categories health service users and people of faith Chapters trace how these groups have used their experiences to assert an expert witness status and have sought out new spaces to expand the scope inclusivity and applicability of welfare services Making Health Policy, 2016-08-29 What shapes health policy Current thinking dictates that scientific evidence should be the basis for policy making in healthcare but is this a new approach and how has it developed Making Health Policy shows how networks in science and the media have established a dialogue for policy making since 1945 Surprisingly many of the networks influencing health policy are not political ones central to public discussion Instead scientific networks have shaped policies on public health based upon findings of chronic disease epidemiology For policies on illicit drugs the clinical experience of a small group of psychiatrists held sway And ironically in an ever cost conscious world high technology areas such as renal dialysis saw economic considerations diminish as time passed Health pressure groups entered the equation and the last half of the twentieth century witnessed the rise of the media as the defining agency in the science policy relationship Making Health Policy is the first historical study to explore the unspoken links between science and recent health policy
