Junctures in Women's Leadership Linda Steiner,2025-06-17 The news industry is still dominated by men Yet women have exercised leadership in journalism and related media professions in a variety of ways from moral leadership to experimenting with structural and technological innovations and pioneering new formats to serve new audiences This book offers a robust account of women s leadership in journalism looking at what motivated women to become media leaders the obstacles they overcame and the strategies they used to solve problems and handle crises This book offers profiles of inspiring women in prominent media positions from the nineteenth century to today beginning with trailblazers like abolitionist publisher Mary Ann Shadd and Memphis Free Speech anti lynching editor Ida B Wells The book takes an in depth look at the leadership styles of well known media moguls like Oprah Winfrey and Washington Post publisher Katharine Graham Other chapters highlight women now emerging as media leaders such as digital media executive S Mitra Kalita and Iman Zawahry a Muslim hijabi filmmaker Bringing together cases from print broadcast public relations film and digital media this book offers useful insights into how to be an effective leader in an ever changing industry

Women who Opt Out Bernie D. Jones,2012 In a much publicized and much maligned 2003 New York Times article The Opt Out Revolution the journalist Lisa Belkin made the controversial argument that highly educated women who enter the workplace tend to leave upon marrying and having children Women Who Opt Out is a collection of original essays by the leading scholars in the field of work and family research which takes a multi disciplinary approach in questioning the basic thesis of the opt out revolution The contributors illustrate that the desire to balance both work and family demands continues to be a point of unresolved concern for families and employers alike and women s equity within the workforce still falls behind Ultimately they persuasively make the case that most women who leave the workplace are being pushed out by a work environment that is hostile to women hostile to children and hostile to the demands of family caregiving and that small changes in outdated workplace policies regarding scheduling flexibility telecommuting and mandatory overtime can lead to important benefits for workers and employers alike

Career Development and Systems Theory Wendy Patton,Mary McMahon,2006 The Systems Theory Framework was developed to produce a metatheoretical framework through which the contribution of all theories to our understanding of career behaviour could be recognised In addition it emphasises the individual as the site for the integration of theory and practice Its utility has become more broadly acknowledged through its application to a range of cultural groups and settings qualitative assessment processes career counselling and multicultural career counselling For these reasons the STF is a very valuable addition to the field of career theory In viewing the field of career theory as a system open to changes and developments from within itself and through constantly interrelating with other systems the STF and this book are adding to the pattern of knowledge and relationships within the career field The contents of this book will be integrated within the field as representative of a shift in understanding existing relationships within and between theories In the same way each reader will integrate the contents of the book within their existing views about the current state of career theory and within their current theory practice relationship

Self-Employment Activities of Women and Minorities Ursula Apitzsch, Maria Kontos, 2008-02-08 The discussion on new forms of non privileged self employment of women and minorities is usually divided into separate discourses on women's opportunities on the one hand and ethnic business on the other The focus in the discussion about the special resources of migrant entrepreneurship has been above all on the assumed collective traditions of ethnic business and not on the individual emancipative resources of the self employed This book has brought the two discourses together While women and migrants are most vulnerable to social exclusion on the labour market at the same time they are subjects of unrecognized resources for self employment that have to be taken into account under the special conditions of social citizenship policies in the European Union Children's Lives in Southern Europe Lourdes Gaitán,Yannis Pechtelidis,Catarina Tomás,Natália Fernandes,2020-02-28 This interdisciplinary book provides a sociological view of the contemporary experiences of children in Southern Europe Focusing on regions deeply affected by the 2008 economic crisis it offers a detailed investigation into the impact of economic downturn and austerity on the lives of children
