

An aerial photograph of an ancient Roman amphitheater, likely in Nîmes, France. The semi-circular tiered seating is visible on the left. The central arena is a flat, open space. Surrounding the arena are the ruins of various Roman buildings, including walls, columns, and smaller structures. In the background, there are green trees and a river flowing through the landscape. The overall scene is bathed in a soft, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease
