A Time Between Ashes And Roses Middle East Literature In Translation:

A Time Between Ashes and Roses Adonis, 2004-11-01 Adonis s poetry and prose writings have aroused much controversy in the Arab world both for their provocative content and their arresting style Grounded in traditional poetic styles Adonis developed a new way of expressing modern sentiments Although influenced by classical poets Adonis started at a relatively early age to experiment with the prose poem giving it density tension metaphors and rhythm He also broke with the diction and style of traditional poems introducing a new and powerful syntax and new imagery Through his innovative use of language imagery and narrative technique Adonis has played a leading role in the revolutionizing of Arabic literature He has garnered many of the world's major poetry prizes In A Time Between Ashes and Roses Adonis evokes the wisdom of Whitman s Leaves of Grass liberally excerpting from and remolding its images the modernism of William Carlos Williams and the haunting urban imagery of poets such as Baudelaire Cavafy and Lorca Three long poems allow him to explore profoundly the human condition by examining language and love race and favor faith and dogma war and ruin In the lyrical This Is My Name and Introduction to the History of the Petty Kings Adonis ponders Arab defeat and defeatism In A Grave for New York he reflects on the same theme by interrogating Vietnam era America This bilingual edition presenting the poems in Arabic and English on facing pages is enhanced by a critical bibliography of Adonis s works providing an accessible and crucial reference for scholars of modern and Middle Eastern poetry and culture Shawkat M Toorawa s vivid and eloquent translation finally makes the poet s signature work available to an English speaking audience the effect is no less powerful than were the first translations of Pablo Neruda into English The Journals of Sarab Affan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra, 2007-02-13 Jabra tells his love story through alternate journal entries and with a complex layering of voices showing how the affair of a famed fictional male novelist and the woman who desires him takes shape through twin perspectives Initially he is seen through the text of her journals from her fascination with his writings until the instant when she arranges their first meeting Thereafter Jabra presents the male novelist s point of view from the start of the relationship through demise due to departure and eventual momentary reunion in romantic Paris Jabra s well known concern with the inconstancy of identity and its articulation through multiple first person narration is ever evident However this is the first time he places a strong female character at the center of his novel with all the enticing complexities that result from the interplay of the author's projected female and male sensibilities Crafting a tale of love from two disparate yet linked points of view Jabra encourages readers to question their assumptions about the nature of self its role in shaping character and the possibilities of salvation through action The extreme value Jabra places on the import of the female narrative gives his book a timely relevance Ibrahim the Mad and Other Plays Talat S. Halman, Jayne L. Warner, 2008-06-09 Since the middle of the twentieth century Turkish playwriting has been notable for its verve and versatility This two volume anthology is the first major collection of plays in English of modern Turkish drama a selection dealing with ancient Anatolian mythology Ottoman history contemporary social issues and family dramas ribald comedy from Turkey's cities and rural areas It also includes several plays set outside Turkey The two volumes together will feature seventeen plays by major playwrights published or produced from the late 1940s to the present day with volume 1 Ibrahim the Mad and Other Plays encompassing plays from the 1940s through the 1960s and volume 2 I Anatolia and Other Plays including plays from the 1970s through the 1990s They grant to English readers the pleasure of riveting drama in translations that are colloquial as well as faithful For producers directors and actors they provide a wealth of fresh new material with characters ranging from Ottoman sultans to a Soviet cosmonaut from the Byzantine Empress Theodora to a fisherman's wife from residents of an Istanbul neighborhood to King Midas from Montezuma to a Turkish cabinet minister

A Muslim Suicide Bensalem Himmich, 2011-12-09 Award winning novelist Bensalem Himmich's third novel to be translated into English is a vertiginous exploration of one of Islam's most radical thinkers the Sufi philosopher Ibn Sab in Born in Spain he was forced to immigrate to Africa because of his controversial views Later expelled from Egypt Ibn Sab in made his way to Mecca where he spent his final years Himmich follows the philosopher's journey outlining an array of characters he meets along the way who usher in debates of identity and personal responsibility through their interactions and relationships with Ibn Sab in Set against the backdrop of a politically charged thirteenth century Islamic world Himmich s novel is a rich blend of fact and imagination that re creates the intellectual debates of the time As the culture of prosperity and tradition was giving way to the chaos created by political and social instability many Arabs as Ibn Sab in does in the novel turned inward toward a spiritual search for meaning In his fictional portrait of Ibn Sab in Himmich succeeds in creating a character with his many virtues and flaws to whom all readers can relate The World Through the Eyes of Angels Mahmoud Saeed, 2011-12-15 Mosul Iraq in the 1940s is a teeming multiethnic city where Arabs Kurds Assyrians Jews Aramaeans Turkmens Yazidis and Syriacs mingle in the ancient souks and alleyways In these crowded streets among rich and poor educated and illiterate pious and unbelieving a boy is growing up Burdened with chores from an early age and afflicted with an older brother who persecutes him with mindless sadism the child finds happiness only in stolen moments with his beloved older sister and with friends in the streets Closest to his heart are three girls encountered by chance a Muslim a Christian and a Jew After enriching the boy s life immensely all three meet tragic fates leaving a wound in his heart that will not heal A richly textured portrayal of Iraqi society before the upheavals of the late twentieth century Saeed s novel depicts a sensitive and loving child assailed by the cruelty of life Sometimes defeated but never surrendering he is sustained by his city and its people Abundance from the Desert Raymond Farrin, 2011-03-29 Abundance from the Desert provides a comprehensive introduction to classical Arabic poetry one of the richest of poetic traditions Covering the period roughly of 500 1250 c e it features original translations and illuminating discussions of a number of major classical Arabic poems from a variety of genres The poems are presented chronologically each situated within a specific historical and literary context Together the selected poems suggest the range and depth of classical Arabic poetic expression read in sequence they suggest the gradual evolution of a tradition Moving beyond a mere chronicle Farrin outlines a new approach to appreciating classical Arabic poetry based on an awareness of concentric symmetry in which the poem s unity is viewed not as a linear progression but as an elaborate symmetrical plot In doing so the author presents these works in a broader comparative light revealing connections with other literatures. The reader is invited to examine these classical Arabic works not as isolated phenomena notwithstanding their uniqueness and their association with a discrete tradition but rather as part of a great multicultural heritage. This pioneering book marks an important step forward in the study of Arabic poetry. At the same time it opens the door to this rich tradition for the general reader.

Thieves in Retirement Hamdi Abu Golayyel,2015-02-01 Hamdi Abu Golayyel offers a striking portrait of a marginalized Egyptian community bringing to life the absurd and tragic characters who occupy the margins of society while paying tribute to a historical Cairene neighborhood By turns comic reverential beautiful and tawdry the novel reveals a social climate where ruthlessness and goodness seem almost indistinguishable and humanity is on display in all its rich variety The novelist s distinctive vision of Egypt's various postmonarchy political regimes and ideologies shapes this dark comedy of human relations and underground pursuits in late twentieth century Egypt Through intricate levels of allegory puns and double meanings Abu Golayyel effectively plays on the rhetoric associated with the nationalist government of Gamal Abdel Nasser including the post Nasser turn toward international capitalism with its a consumer oriented economy and movement away from the workers rights orientation of the 1960s This novel represents a new voice and a new stage in contemporary Arabic literature as it criticizes official ideologies whether socialist capitalist or Islamist Abu Golayyel s cast of memorable characters embodies the arbitrariness of life and the search for purpose and dignity in a social milieu that offers little of either Marilyn Booth s translation fluently renders the novel s delicate levels of diction and rhythm making this brilliant Egyptian novel available to a much deserved wider audience Lebanon / Liban Nadia Tuéni, 2006-04-25 This bilingual anthology edited by Christophe Ippolito contains Samuel Hazo's complete translation of Lebanon Twenty Poems for One Love and Paul B Kelley's selections from the never before translated Sentimental Archives of a War in Lebanon The Francophone poet Nadia Tueni has devoted readers in Lebanon and elsewhere in the Middle East and has guickly achieved poetic distinction in France The fluency of her poetic language and motifs reflecting Tueni's love of her people and country is illuminated in Ippolito's introduction She chose to create a new poetic language that captured the fragile essence of her troubled country and exposed the many crises of identities present in the war By identifying with her country she placed herself beyond all parties and created a sacred river that irrigates her poems Drawn from two collections that were published during the civil war in Lebanon in 1979 and 1982 these poems are haunted by the Lebanese war some transcend famous Lebanese locales as the symbolic incarnations of the land s eternal essence others illuminated at first by nostalgic memories take on a prophetic tone Tueni s work merges the poetic with the political landscape of her country She writes I belong to a country that commits suicide every day while it is being assassinated The languages of Rimbaud Lautreamont and surrealist poetry have had a decisive influence on Tueni s poetry But she also owes a great debt on the Arabic side to the avant garde poets for example the celebrated Adonis Like many Lebanese writers Tueni was active in political circles particularly after the war in 1967 Her poems tell of suffering memories of an abandoned garden slip away of her own life slipping away and in the end the reader is invited to reflect on the mimesis of identity identity of a country identity of a woman each echoing the Seasons of the Word Hilmi Yavuz,2006-12-19 Hilmi Yavuz is among Turkey s most celebrated poets His poetry at other once cerebral and intensely emotional has been translated into several languages but never until now into English Walter G Andrews s translations bring to the English speaking world a glimpse into the complex and expressive poetry of Yavuz introducing traditional Ottoman forms and themes into a familiar poetic landscape and opening a door of understanding to Western readers While each poem included in this volume can be enjoyed as a unique poetic entity these poems read together reveal the organic and developmental relationship between Yavuz s figurative language and his self expression

Barry Tharaud provides an insightful afterword discussing Yavuz s work within the world of Turkish poetry and making a convincing plea for the importance of literature in translation This volume will be of significant interest to anthologists cultural and literary historians and poetry lovers alike Distant Train Ibrahim Abdel Meguid, 2007-04-26 While the fading autumn sun sped toward the horizon the young boys headed home they were not used to trying to see at night without the moon s glow So begins this unconventional hauntingly mythic novel In the tradition of magical realism author Abdel Mequid crafts a tale steeped in symbolism Writing in a shimmering lyrical style he brings alive the dreams customs and everyday concerns of people living in historic obscurity on the fringe of the glitzy petro dollar kingdoms of the Middle East The tale begins on a worksite in Egypt's western desert. Here in the middle of nowhere railway men and locals wait in hope for the annual return of a distant train When last it came this vehicle brought with it foreigners soldiers and economic opportunity then it stopped Each of Meguid's characters is allegorical in nature Each part of the novel is framed by memory and the way remembrance takes shape and affects the characters. The story s main characters are time and place. Yet its dramatic thrust is the ways in which place gives rise to history through the passage of time and the rise and fall of settlement Distant Train reaffirms Meguid s status as a new imaginative and distinct voice in the field of narrative literature and the time honored arena of storytelling The Night of the First Billion Ghada Samman, 2005-02-01 Set in Geneva Switzerland around the 1982 Israeli invasion of Lebanon this intricately plotted novel probes the emotional misfortunes of Arab men and women fleeing the horror of war only to find their ways of life constantly challenged by their foreign surroundings The author s scalding critique of the Lebanese situation resonates with strong sociopolitical issues. Here are telling portraits of class oppression and the role of women in Arab society the treatments of war and sexuality of immigration of cultural assimilation and nationalism With supreme artistry and insight and in modern Arab literary fashion Ghada Samman skillfully blends realism with fantasy into a highly stylized thematically multilayered tale It is at once a Gothic romance and a suspenseful whodunit with engaging characters At the same time it is a gripping study of social injustice and the consequences of wartime upheaval Far from home and out of harm s way Samman s Lebanese exiles repeat and replay the very same conflicts that torment them in their own land even as it is under siege The Night of the First Billion is an eloquent reminder that the only genuine security in the most profound and human sense of the word is to be found in the courageous willingness to confront challenge and finally to ease suffering Disciples Of Passion Hudá Barakāt, 2005 Disciples of Passion chronicles the civil war in Lebanon through the troubled and sometimes quasi hallucinatory mind of a young man who has experienced kidnapping hostage exchange and hospital internment As he recalls his village childhood and recounts his relationship with a woman of a different faith his fragmented narrative probes the uncertainties of political testimonial and ascriptions of responsibility in wartime Marilyn Booth s fluid translation brings to an English audience one of the Arabic language s finest contemporary novelists Widely celebrated in France where she currently lives in exile from Lebanon Hoda Barakat writes from personal experience her novels focus on the civil war in Lebanon and how it shaped the lives of people marginalized by the conflict Compelling scenarios of war and its aftermath of suffering and destruction are integrated into subtle psychological portraits with protagonists often propelled into unexpected action Return To Dar al-Basha Hassan Nasr, 2006-11-07 Return to Dar al Basha by the contemporary Tunisian author Hassan Nasr depicts the childhood of Murtada al Shamikh and his return forty years later to his home in the medina or old city of Tunis After being taken from his mother and raised in his father's home where he was physically abused and emotionally marginalized Murtada spends a life of anxiety wandering the world His return is prompted by a mysterious visit from one of his father's Sufi friends as he roams the desert in Mauritania Murtada retraces his steps through the medina to his family s house in anticipation of a possible reunion with his troubled father vividly reliving sights smells and sounds from his childhood and evoking his childhood initiation into Islamic mysticism as he experiences a personal journey of the spirit across space and time Nasr succeeds in conjuring up a Tunisian boyhood not unlike his own and brings to life in a poetic sensual narrative the spaces light colors and life of Tunis some six decades ago Murtada searches the streets of Tunis and his memories for the decisive mistake he feels he must have made that has left him a perpetual wanderer until he undergoes a cathartic nightmare sequence that leaves him shaken Only then is he finally able to come to peace with his past and with himself In William M Hutchins lucid translation the novel serves as an evocation and tribute to the historic city of Tunis the novel and meditates about the position of the past in a rapidly modernizing society My Thousand and One Nights Raja Alem, 2007-10-08 The distinguished Middle Eastern author Raja Alem grew up in Mecca at a time when the holy city was on the cusp of changing from medieval to modern In this vanished Mecca vividly brought to life again in My Thousand and One Nights women hold center stage especially Jummo the wildly passionate daughter of the Water Carriers Sheik This faraway time and setting become compellingly real as we follow the intimate drama of Jummo s life the tragic arc of her affair with her childhood sweetheart and her lifelong love for the mysterious Sidi Wadhana a more than human emissary from the Netherworld Jummo s world veiled and invisible to outsiders until this telling of her story has the feel of the true center of an Arabia that has come to us in many exotic and threatening disguises Jummo s Mecca is a different world with different narrative strategies but the dramatic problems are universal how lethal is love how dangerous are woman And how sensual is the yearning for immortality The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, 2016-11-15 An authoritative and comprehensive quide to poetry throughout the world The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries drawn from the latest edition of the acclaimed Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the history and practice of poetry in more than 100 major regional national and diasporic literatures and language traditions around the globe With more than 165 entries the book combines broad overviews and focused accounts to give extensive coverage of poetic traditions throughout the world For students teachers researchers poets and other readers it supplies a one of a kind
