Art and Answerability M. M. Bakhtin, Michael Holquist, Vadim Liapunov, 1990 This book contains three of Bakhtin's early essays from the years following the Russian Revolution when Bakhtin and other intellectuals eagerly participated in the debates of the period Art and Answerability Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin, 1990 Art and Answerability Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin, 2003 The SAGE Handbook of Performance Studies D. Soyini Madison, Judith Hamera, 2006 Publisher description Toward a Philosophy of the Act M. M. Bakhtin, 2010-02-22 Rescued in 1972 from a storeroom in which rats and seeping water had severely damaged the fifty year old manuscript this text is the earliest major work 1919 1921 of the great Russian philosopher M M Bakhtin Toward a Philosophy of the Act contains the first occurrences of themes that occupied Bakhtin throughout his long career The topics of authoring responsibility self and other the moral significance of outsideness participatory thinking the implications for the individual subject of having no alibi in existence the difference between the world as experienced in actions and the world as represented in discourse all are broached here in the heat of discovery This is the heart of the heart of Bakhtin the center of the dialogue between being and language the world and mind the given and the created that forms the core of Bakhtin's distinctive dialogism A special feature of this work is Bakhtin's struggle with the philosophy of Immanuel Kant Put very simply this text is an attempt to go beyond Kant's formulation of the ethical imperative mci will be important for scholars across the humanities as they grapple with the increasingly vexed relationship between aesthetics and ethics Living and Dying Well in Philippians Gregory E. Lamb, 2025-03-17 Art and Answerability Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin, 1995 On aesthetics and philosophy Corporeal Words Alexander Mihailovic, 1997 This text explores Mikhail Bakhtin's reliance on the terms and concepts of theology It begins with an identification of the theological categories and terms recalling Christology in general and Trinitarianism in particular that emerge throughout Bakhtin's long and varied career Alexander Mihailovic discusses the elaborately wrought subtextual imagery wordplay and palpable orality of Bakhtin's theology of discourse and explores the role that theology plays in supporting Bakhtin's ideas about the anti hierarchical drift of language and culture A Companion to Art Theory Paul Smith, Carolyn Wilde, 2008-04-15 The Companion provides an accessible critical survey of Western visual art theory from sources in Classical Medieval and Renaissance thought through to contemporary writings Music Semiotics: A Network of Significations Esti Sheinberg, 2017-07-05 United in their indebtedness to the scholarship of Raymond Monelle an international group of contributors including leading authorities on music and culture come together in this state of the art volume to investigate different ways in which music signifies Music semiotics asks what music signifies as well as how the signification process takes place Looking at the nature of musical texts and music's narrativity a number of the essays in this collection delve into the relationship between music and philosophy literature poetry folk traditions and the theatre with opera a genre that particularly lends itself to this mode of investigation Other contributions look at theories of musical markedness metaphor and irony using examples and specific musical texts to serve as case studies to validate their theoretical approaches Musical works discussed include those by Haydn Mozart Beethoven Schumann Wagner Stravinsky Bart Xenakis Kutavicius and John Adams offering stimulating discussions of music that attest to its beauty as much as to its intellectual challenge Taking Monelle s writing as a model the contributions adhere to a method of logical argumentation presented in a civilized and respectful way even and particularly when controversial issues are at stake keeping in mind that contemplating the significance of music is a way to contemplate life itself

Narrative Structure and Philosophical Debates in Tristram Shandy and Jacques le fataliste. Margaux Whiskin,2014-01-02 Contrary to what might be expected from a philosophical novel Sterne and Diderot do not impose their own views upon the reader The author s voice is but one amongst many others Margaux Whiskin s argument hinges on Bakhtinian dialogism which can be defined as the presence of interacting voices and views In Tristram Shandy and Jacques le fataliste dialogism occurs through the narrative structure allowing for the confrontation of the contradictory discourses in the philosophical debates and enabling them to engage in dialogue instead of establishing the authorial voice as the sole valid discourse in the text Through those contradictions the philosophical content takes on a different form that of a refusal of systematic discourse Sterne and Diderot do not offer a solution to the various questions debated in their novels However they do offer a philosophical approach whereby the confrontation of contradictory ideas creates a dynamic for the pursuit of truth By engaging in dialogue and constantly opening questions where there is no single right answer Sterne and Diderot redirect the focus of the reader and invite him to perceive truth not as a destination to be reached or as a closed conclusion but as being present in the quest itself in the ongoing dialogues and debates

Face to Face Carol Adlam, Rachel Falconer, Vitalii Makhlin, Leslie Pinfield, 1997-06-01 So far in the West the dissemination of Bakhtinian thought has proceeded with little or no awareness of contemporary approaches to Bakhtin in his homeland This collection offers unprecedented access to leading Russian research in juxtaposition with important Western scholarship on Bakhtin Taking its cue from Bakhtin as founder of dialogical criticism Face to Face aims to stimulate dialogue across disciplines and national boundaries

The Influence of Mikhail Bakhtin on the Formation and Development of the Yale School of Deconstruction Julio Peiró Sempere, 2014-05-02 This book explores the origins of American literary deconstruction in the light of the work of Russian philosopher Mikhail M

Bakhtin To do so the author offers a comparative reading of Bakhtin's work and that of the literary critics who formed the so called Yale School of Deconstruction namely Paul de Man J Hillis Miller Harold Bloom and Geoffrey Hartman By resorting to Bakhtin's challenging understanding of the dialogical nature of the world and his reworking of the notion of temporality in the literary work of art the readings offered in this book provide the reader with a new point of departure for one of the most influential movements in twentieth century literary theory literary deconstruction The Strategic Smorgasbord of

Postmodernity Deborah Bowen, 2011-05-25 Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline instead the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entries on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory Daniel Coleman Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies Department of English and Cultural Studies McMaster University Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways I do not know of a similar volume in existence a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate Susan
