Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry

June Allyson Peter Shelley, 2023-01-06 June Allyson 1917 2006 was an American film television and stage actress singer dancer and author After appearing in movie shorts and on Broadway as a chorus girl and featured player she became an A list box office attraction in the 1940s and 1950s in films like The Three Musketeers 1948 Little Women 1949 The Glen Miller Story 1954 and Strategic Air Command 1955 She went on to host and star in her own television anthology series from 1959 to 1961 and made many appearances in films in television shows This first biography of Allyson covers her life and career and features an appendix of her work

Downtime Mark Goble, 2025-06-17 Slow motion has become perhaps the least special effect in film and media a stylistic technique for showing violence dream sequences and flashbacks or other experiences outside ordinary time We see so much slow motion on our screens today that we can look past its history and forget how rare it was before the 1960s when films such as The Wild Bunch Bonnie and Clyde and 2001 A Space Odyssey helped it explode in popularity at a moment of cultural change and social upheaval This ambitious book tells the story of slow motion tracing a broader fascination with the uneven speeds of modern life and our ability to comprehend them Downtime explores the history and aesthetics of slow motion from its origins in early film to its prominence today Mark Goble argues that the effect's sudden visibility after 1968 registers experience of modernity as a period of perpetual acceleration that somehow makes even the smallest intervals of time feel endless Ranging across literature art and cinema including novels by William Faulkner Don DeLillo and W G Sebald as well as Robert Smithson's Spiral Jetty and Julie Dash's Daughters of the Dust he describes how writers and filmmakers depict the velocities and durations of contemporary life Goble reveals the twentieth century and its aftermath as figured in slow motion rushing past and deliriously delayed everything going fast and slow at once Downtime is about time and its technologies in an accelerated world that can advance only in slow motion

Exiles in Hollywood Gene Phillips, 1998-07 The book deals with five European film directors who were forced to remain in exile in the wake of the rise of Hitler and who subsequently enriched the American motion picture industry with a reservoir of new talent that had been nurtured in Europe The directors treated are Fritz Lang William Wyler Otto Preminger Fred Zinnemann and Billy Wilder

Victor Fleming Michael Sragow, 2013-12-10 This definitive biography chronicles the life and work of the legendary director of Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz Victor Fleming was the most sought after director in Hollywood's golden age renowned for his work across an astounding range of genres from gritty westerns to screwball comedies romances boddy pictures and family entertainment Yet this chameleon like versatility has resulted in his relative obscurity today despite his having directed two of the most iconic movies of all time Fleming is best remembered for Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz but he directed more than forty films including classics like Red Dust Test Pilot Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Captains Courageous Fleming created enduring screen personas for Clark Gable Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper as well as for Ingrid Bergman Clara Bow and Norma Shearer who were among his many lovers In this definitive biography Michael Sragow restores the director to the pantheon of great American filmmakers correcting a major oversight in Hollywood history It is the dramatic story of a man at the center of the most exciting period in American filmmaking

Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland, 2006 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us Jacket

Women and Mixed Race Representation in Film Valerie C. Gilbert, 2021-09-27 This book uses a black white interracial lens to examine the lives and careers of eight prominent American born actresses from the silent age through the studio era New Hollywood and into the present century Josephine Baker Nina Mae McKinney Fredi Washington Lena Horne Dorothy Dandridge Lonette McKee Jennifer Beals and Halle Berry Combining biography with detailed film readings the author fleshes out the tragic mulatto stereotype while at the same time exploring concepts and themes such as racial identity the one drop rule passing skin color transracial adoption interracial romance and more With a wealth of background information this study also places these actresses in historical context providing insight into the construction of race both onscreen and off

Women and New Hollywood Aaron Hunter, Martha Shearer, 2023-05-12 The 1970s has often been hailed as a great moment for American film as a generation of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese Coppola and Altman offered idiosyncratic visions of what movies could be Yet the auteurist discourse hailing these directors as the sole authors of their films has obscured the important creative roles women played in the 1970s American film industry Women and New Hollywood revises our understanding of this important era in American film by examining the contributions that women made not only as directors but also as screenwriters editors actors producers and critics Including essays on film history film texts and the decade s film theory and criticism this collection showcases the rich and varied cinematic products of women s creative labor as well as the considerable barriers they faced It considers both women working within and beyond the Hollywood film industry reconceptualizing New Hollywood by bringing it into dialogue with other American cinemas of the 1970s By valuing the many forms of creative labor involved in film production this collection offers exciting alternatives to the auteurist model and new ways of appreciating the themes and aesthetics of 1970s American film The Drop Dead Funny '70s Dan Lalande,2023-08-17 This work offers a critical examination of 130 commercially released film comedies of the 1970s It considers the socio political circumstances of each year of the decade then critiques each film released that year with a focus on its effect on the film industry and the art of big screen comedy as well as the emergence of talents whose work influenced or was influenced by the zeitgeist of the decade Covering popular titles like M A S H Blazing Saddles American Graffiti The Bad News Bears Smokey and the Bandit and many more it argues that the 1970s may rightly be considered the last golden age of film comedy Conversations with Pauline Kael Pauline Kael,1996 Interviews with Pauline Kael movie critic for the New Yorker from 1968 to 1991
