59th Anniversary Poems:

Donne's Anniversaries and the Poetry of Praise Barbara Kiefer Lewalski, 2015-03-08 In his occasional poetry and especially in his two elegaic Anniversary poems Donne created a special symbolic mode in seventeenth century poetry of praise and compliment Barbara Kiefer Lewalski's reading of the Anniversary poems recognizes them as complex mixed genre works which weld together formal thematic and structural elements from the occasional poem of praise the funeral elegy the funeral sermon the hymn the anatomy and the Protestant meditation Focusing especially on theme and structure her reading demonstrates the coherent symbolic method and meaning of these poems and also their careful logical articulation both as individual poems and as companion pieces Essentially the author discovers their thorough and precise exploration through the poetic means of figure and symbol of the nature of man and the conditions of human life In order to discuss the significant contexts for and influences on the Anniversary poems the author has studied sixteenth and seventeenth century epideictic theory and practice Protestant meditation Biblical hermeneutics and funeral sermons She is also concerned with the effect of the poems and of Donne's other writings of a similar kind on contemporary and subsequent developments in the poetry of praise especially that of Marvell and Dryden This is a lucid and learned book that provides a major context for the Anniversary poems and gives new significance to the designation of Donne as a Metaphysical poet Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Writing Beloveds Aileen A. Feng, 2017-01-01 This study considers the way in which a poetic convention the beloved to whom Renaissance amatory poetry was addressed becomes influential political rhetoric an instrument that both men and women used to shape and justify their claims to power The author argues that Petrarchan poetic conventions were part of a social discourse that signaled anxiety concerning the rising place of women as intellectual interlocutors public figures and patrons of the arts

Anthology of Poems Gracienda Coutinho, Poems from the Heart Deborah Erlichson, 2012-11 To Jacob From Deborah Erlichson From a mother to her son You are my first born My son who I have sworn to love When you smiled at me for the first time No doubt you are a part of me Can't you see My unconditional love for you is immeasurable Yet it was and is so pleasurable I fed you bathed you and took care of you when you were sick You were and still are my heart and soul you loved lollipops favored every lick You are my inspiration and my joy So why displace it with a ploy You are married now and have your own life Please don't disregard me and give me strife When you don't call me to ask me how I feel It makes me sick like a sunburn getting ready to peel You are a great father and good husband And so glad and so proud of you All of my eternal Love Mom
