

Panne sur l'autoroute

Claire et Denis reviennent de Normandie par l'autoroute A 13. Ils ont une panne.

Claire: Combien de kilomètres il y a encore jusqu'à Paris?

Denis: On vient de passer la sortie pour Mantes-la-Jolie. Il reste environ une cinquante de kilomètres jusqu'au périphérique.

Claire: Tu entends ce drôle de bruit? Qu'est-ce que ça peut bien être?

Denis: Aucune idée. On dirait même que le bruit devient de plus en plus fort. Ça a l'air sérieux!

Claire: Arrête-toi sur le bas-côté! On va appeler le service de dépannage. Je vais chercher une borne téléphonique.

Writing Between Languages Sheela Mahadevan, 2025-08-21 This open access book casts light on an understudied corpus of Indian Francophone literatures by writers originally from former French territories of India and from other regions of India who also engage in processes of translation Ari Gautier Pondicherry M Mukundan Mah Manohar Rai Sardesai Goa Toru Dutt Calcutta and Shumona Sinha Calcutta By examining the range of ways in which these writers write between languages Sheela Mahadevan advances theories of translation and literary multilingualism Moreover the book demonstrates how the self reflective process of translating Indian Francophone writing into English can be employed as a theoretical tool that unlocks fresh ways of conceptualizing literary multilingualism and translation Applying this methodology the author explores the ways in which the linguistic framework and region of the readership of a text can determine the visibility and effects of literary multilingualism and demonstrates how a text may consequently be interpreted as simultaneously monolingual and multilingual The book thereby also intervenes in debates about translation as research in Translation Studies Ultimately the book offers a more nuanced and alternative vision and understanding of the Indian literary landscape by exploring not only how and why Indian Francophone writers adopt French in their writing but also by demonstrating how certain regional literary traditions of India have been significantly shaped by French literatures owing to processes of translation undertaken by these writers The author also advances existing research on Indian translation traditions including the concept of transcreation and the meaning of originality in the Indian context Through the lens of Indian Francophone writing the book explores the various factors which trigger the fluidity of boundaries between translation and creative writing that is commonplace in the Indian context The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com Open access was funded by UKRI to modernization and its development perspectives The book's three chapters set the context for reading Casablanca and Chandigarh as the results of nuanced dynamic processes of international exchange driven by the engagement and expertise of a new class of design professionals As a dossier of actors alignments and agendas the book contributes to an alternative historiography of post war urbanism and to recent reflections on the impact of transnational practice P 4 of cover

Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer,Nadia Fadil,Birgitte Schepelern Johansen,2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular could become a new possibility
