C. Van Amerongen, 1967 How are matches made? Why is dry cleaning called dry? How does a speedometer work? Why can the heat of an iron be regulated? What makes a ship float? Why does a zipper zip? Diagrams and drawings accompany a page of explanatory text for each of the 1071 entries, which explain the principles of why things work. Many of the explanations are beyond the understanding of elementary school students, but the answers to many of their inquiries as to how things work are to be found easily by the curious boy or girl. Much more comprehensive in scope than Mann's How Things Work (Crowell, 1960) but not as useful for the general reader. The Way We Work

David Macaulay, Richard Walker, 2008 Reveals the inner workings of the human body and all of its systems and mechanisms. The Way Things Work Kit

The Idea Factory Pepper White, 2001-10-12 This is a personal story of the educational process at one of the world's great technological universities This is a personal story of the educational process at one of the world's great technological universities Pepper White entered MIT in 1981 and received his master's degree in mechanical engineering in 1984 His account of his experiences written in diary form offers insight into graduate school life in general including the loneliness and even desperation that can result from the intense pressure to succeed and the purposes of engineering education in particular The first professor White met at MIT told him that it did not really matter what he learned there but that MIT would teach him how to think This then is the story of how one student learned how to think There have of course been changes at MIT since 1984 but its essence is still the same White has added a new preface and concluding chapter to this edition to bring the story of his continuing education up to date

Sex, Lies and Triathlon Leib Dodell, 2011-07 Triathletes are a unique breed Amateur triathlete and humorist Leib Dodell has been living among them for years often chronicling their foibles and eccentricities in the pages of Inside Triathlon magazine Whether you are a beginning triathlete a battle tested age grouper or an elite competitor the hilarious stories and anecdotes in Sex Lies and Triathlon perfectly capture the triathlon lifestyle Or maybe you've never even considered doing a race but there's a triathlete in your life somewhere a relative colleague boyfriend or girlfriend or God help you a spouse Sex Lies and Triathlon will give you a wickedly funny if somewhat frightening glimpse into their world Here are a few examples On training workouts Basically a good hard workout is like the exact opposite of casual sex You always dread it beforehand but afterwards you re always really glad you did it On warming up before a race I generally consider it a successful warm up if I can find a reasonably clean bathroom with toilet paper and a door that closes and that s just in my apartment On winning the lottery to compete in the Hawaii Ironman Competing in the Ironman is hardly the kind of windfall one normally associates with winning a lottery It s like getting a letter in the mail that says in giant 24 point type CONGRATULATIONS YOU MAY HAVE ALREADY WON 12 HOURS OF EXCRUCIATING MISERY AND PAIN
