L. Matson,2013-03-14 Mental retardation has probably existed for as long as mankind has inhabited the earth References to seemingly retarded persons appear in Greek and Roman literature Examination of Egyptian mummies suggests that some may have suffered from diseases associated with mental retardation Mohammed advocated feeding and housing those without reason There is other evidence for favorable attitudes toward the retarded in early history but attitudes varied from age to age and from country to country The concept of remediation did not emerge until the nineteenth century Earlier in 1798 Itard published an account of his attempt to train the wild boy of Aveyron A rash of efforts to habilitate retarded persons followed Training schools were developed in Europe and the United States in the 1800s however these early schools did not fulfill their promise and by the end of the nineteenth century large inhumane warehouses for retarded persons existed The notion of habilitation through training had largely been abandoned and was not to reappear until after World War II Public Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts,1896 Lactivism Courtney Jung,2015-11-24 Social scientist and mother Courtney Jung explores the ever expanding world of breastfeeding advocacy shining a new light on the diverse communities who compose it the dubious science behind it and the pernicious public policies to which it has given rise Is breast really best Breastfeeding is widely assumed to be the healthiest choice yet growing evidence suggests that its benefits have been greatly exaggerated New moms are pressured by doctors health officials and friends to avoid the bottle at all costs often at the expense of their jobs their pocketbooks and their well being In Lactivism political scientist Courtney Jung offers the most deeply researched and far reaching critique of breastfeeding advocacy to date Drawing on her own experience as a devoted mother who breastfed her two children and her expertise as a social scientist Jung investigates the benefits of breastfeeding and asks why so many people across the political spectrum are passionately invested in promoting it even as its health benefits have been persuasively challenged What emerges is an eye opening story about class and race in America the big business of breastfeeding and the fraught politics of contemporary motherhood Federal Trade Commission Decisions United States.
