Audit Culture Cris Shore, Susan Wright, 2024-02-20 A new and compelling argument for why so many institutions continue to be spellbound by rankings and metrics despite the cultural carnage they cause How can we halt this death by audit The authors develop a radical agenda that will strike fear into number loving technocrats around the world Peter Fleming author of Dark Academia How Universities Die A powerful and definitive critical diagnosis of the effects of audit culture on individuals organisations and society Essential reading Michael Power Professor LSE A visionary book Marilyn Strathern Emeritus Professor University of Cambridge All aspects of our work and private lives are increasingly measured and managed But how has this audit culture arisen and what kind of a world is it producing Cris Shore and Susan Wright provide a timely account of the rise of the new industries of accounting enumeration and ranking from an anthropological perspective Audit Culture is the first book to systematically document and analyse these phenomena and their implications for democracy The book explores how audit culture operates across a wide range of fields including health higher education NGOs finance the automobile industry and the military The authors build a powerful critique of contemporary public sector management in an age of neoliberal market making privatisation and outsourcing They conclude by offering ideas about how to reverse its damaging effects on communities and restore the democratic accountability that audit culture is systematically undermining Cris Shore is Emeritus Professor of Social Anthropology at Goldsmiths University of London and Research Fellow at the Institute for Advanced Study Central European University One of his recent publications is The Shapeshifting Crown Susan Wright is Professor of Educational Anthropology at Aarhus University Denmark One of her recent books is Enacting the University Together they are co editors of the Stanford Anthropology of Policy book series Mobilized by Injustice

Hannah L. Walker, 2020-01-10 In Mobilized by Injustice Hannah L Walker excavates the power of criminal justice to inspire political action Mobilization results from the belief that one's experiences are a consequence of policies that target people like one's self on the basis of group affiliation like race ethnicity and class Walker offers a compelling account of the criminal justice system as a spark for the formation of a movement with the potential to remake American politics Post-Soviet

Secessionism Daria Minakov, Mikhail Sasse, Gwendolyn Minakov, Mikhail Isachenko, 2021-04-20 The USSR's dissolution resulted in the creation of not only fifteen recognized states but also of four non recognized statelets Nagorno Karabakh South Ossetia Abkhazia and Transnistria Their polities comprise networks with state like elements Since the early 1990s the four pseudo states have been continuously dependent on their sponsor countries Russia Armenia and contesting the territorial integrity of their parental nation states Azerbaijan Georgia and Moldova In 2014 the outburst of Russia backed separatism in Eastern Ukraine led to the creation of two more para states the Donetsk People's Republic DNR and the Luhansk People's Republic LNR whose leaders used the experience of older de facto states In 2020 this growing network of de facto states counted an overall population of more than 4 million people The essays collected in this volume address such questions as How do post Soviet de facto states survive and continue to grow Is there anything specific about the political ecology of Eastern Europe that provides secessionism with the possibility to launch state making processes in spite of international sanctions and counteractions of their parental states How do secessionist movements become embedded in wider networks of separatism in Eastern and Western Europe What is the impact of secessionism and war on the parental states The contributors are Jan Claas Behrends Petra Colmorgen Bruno Coppieters Nataliia Kasianenko Alice Lackner Mikhail Minakov and Gwendolyn Sasse Autonomous Vehicles and Civil Liability in a Global Perspective Hans Steege, Ilaria Amelia Caggiano, Maria Cristina Gaeta, Benjamin von Bodungen, 2024-04-30 In the automotive sector digitalisation connectivity and automation are rapidly expanding In tomorrow s vehicles human beings will merely be passengers which raises a host of complex legal issues regarding accidents involving self driving vehicles This book is the first to offer a comprehensive global overview of civil liability regimes for all levels of vehicle automation in jurisdictions that represent some of the most important markets for the automotive industry After a technical introduction to how self driving cars work the individual chapters analyse the liability for driving automation at SAE J3016 levels 0 through 5 from a country specific perspective All chapters were written by experts in the field and follow a uniform legal structure Hence the book offers an essential comparative analysis of similarities and differences in the jurisdictions examined while also providing suggestions for future legislative changes at the national and international level The book is not only relevant for legal scholars and practitioners but will also be of particular interest to anyone involved in the design manufacture distribution and operation of self driving vehicles
