Rice,2019-04-14 Anthropomorphizing the Cosmos explores the sociocultural significance of more than three hundred Middle Preclassic Maya figurines uncovered at the site of Nixtun Ch'ich on Lake Pet'it in northern Guatemala In this careful holistic and detailed analysis of the Pet'it lakes figurines hand modeled terracotta anthropomorphic fragments animal figures and musical instruments such as whistles and ocarinas Prudence M Rice engages with a broad swath of theory and comparative data on Maya ritual practice Presenting original data Anthropomorphizing the Cosmos offers insight into the synchronous appearance of fired clay figurines with the emergence of societal complexity in and beyond Mesoamerica Rice situates these Preclassic Maya figurines in the broader context of Mesoamerican human figural representation identifies possible connections between anthropomorphic figurine heads and the origins of calendrics and other writing in Mesoamerica and examines the role of anthropomorphic figurines and zoomorphic musical instruments in Preclassic Maya ritual. The volume shows how community rituals involving the figurines helped to mitigate the uncertainties of societal transitions including the beginnings of settled agricultural life, the emergence of social differentiation and inequalities and the centralization of political power and decision making in the Petén lowlands. Literature on Maya ritual cosmology and specialized artifacts has traditionally focused on the Classic period with little research centering on the very beginnings of Maya sociopolitical organization and ideological beliefs in the Middle Preclassic. Anthropomorphizing the Cosmos is a welcome contribution to the understanding of the earliest Maya and will be significant to Mayanists and Mesoamericanists as well as nonspecialists with interest in these early figurines.

The report may be useful to airports in benchmarking their self-inspection programs to peer airports and practices considered successful by regional U.S. Federal Aviation Administration personnel.

Eye Floaters in the Art and Religions of Ancient Civilizations Floco Tausin, 2022-05-01. We all have them, most of us see them, but only a few people pay attention to them: the scattered, transparent and mobile dots and strands in our field of vision. In ophthalmology, they are called eye floaters and explained as vitreous opacities. But is this explanation correct? In this book, the author Floco Tausin follows the seers' experience that eye floaters are not a cloudiness of the vitreous humour but a shining structure and an expression of our state of consciousness. In this collection of previously published and revised texts, the author explores the shining structure of consciousness in ancient civilizations. Topics include works of art, myths and worldviews of Ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Ancient China and Pre-Columbian Central America.

Teotihuacan Matthew Robb, 2017-09-26. Founded in the first century BCE near a set of natural springs in an otherwise dry northeastern corner of the Valley of Mexico, the ancient metropolis of Teotihuacan was on a symbolic level a city of elements. With a multiethnic population of perhaps one hundred thousand at its peak in 400 CE, it was the cultural, political, economic and religious center of ancient Mesoamerica. A devastating fire in the city center led to a rapid decline after the middle of the sixth century, but Teotihuacan was never completely abandoned or forgotten: the Aztecs revered the city and its monuments, giving many of them the names we still use today. Teotihuacan: City of Water, City of Fire examines new discoveries from the three main pyramids at the site: the Sun Pyramid, the Moon Pyramid, and at the center of the Ciudadela complex, the Feathered Serpent Pyramid, which have fundamentally changed our understanding of the city's history. With illustrations of the major objects from Mexico City's Museo Nacional de Antropología and from the museums and storage facilities of the Zona de Monumentos Arqueológicos de Teotihuacan, along with selected works from US and European collections, the catalogue examines these cultural artifacts to understand the roles that offerings of objects and programs of monumental sculpture and murals throughout the city played in the lives of Teotihuacan's citizens Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco September 30 2017 February 11 2018 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA March June 2018      State, Society, and Religious Engineering Khun Eng Kuah-Pearce, 2009 The book looks at how religion in Singapore is being subjected to the processes of modernisation and change The Singapore State has consciously brought religion under its guidance It has exercised strong bureaucratic and legal control over the functioning of all religions in Singapore The Chinese community and the Buddhist Sangha have responded to this by restructuring their temple institutions into large multi functional temple complexes There has been quite a few books written on the role of the Singapore State but so far none has been written on the topic the relationship between state society and religion It will help to fill the missing gap in the scholarly literature on this area This is also a topic of great significance in many Asian particularly Southeast Asian countries and it will serve as an important book for future reference in this area of research and comparative studies      The Year of Living like Jesus Edward G.
