American Sniper Ending Scene:

Behind the Scenes with Hollywood Producers Duane Byrge, 2016-06-03 We know what actors do We know what writers do But what does a movie producer do other than arrange financing for films and accept Academy Awards Featuring in depth interviews with 14 top movie producers including eight who have won Oscars for Best Picture this book describes how they nurture a project from concept to casting to screen They are entrepreneurs essentially creating a new business every time they start work on a film They possess an array of skills and talents and the resilience and the fortitude to not take no for an answer The interviewees are Marc Abraham Tony Bill Albert Berger Ron Yerxa Clint Eastwood Taylor Hackford Mark Johnson Arnold Kopelson Alan Ladd Jr Michael London Fred Roos Paula Wagner Jim Wilson and Janet Yang Passport Stamps: Searching the World for a War to Call Home Sean D. Carberry, 2023-08-15 A candid darkly comic and emotionally naked tale of a former NPR journalist who driven by grief loss and the desire to find his tribe seeks solace in the world's most dangerous places and his pursuit to join the ranks of combat tested war correspondents The learning curve of reporting in hostile environments is steep and at times comical at others nearly fatal He encounters a lot of dust ragged infrastructure weaponry scary driving whiskey lust and way too much food poisoning When the assignment ends he is left to confront the mental and emotional impact of the years of danger death and destruction HPI Case Files Book 5 Paul Dale Roberts aka The Demon Warrior, 2015-02-24 Halo Paranormal Investigations gets calls throughout Northern California here are some of their cases The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09 Owen W Gilman Jr stresses the US experience of war in the twenty first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war there will be imaginative responses to it especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Since the trauma of September 11 the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts creative nonfiction and journalism film poetry and fiction These responses Gilman contends have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II's literature and film Like few other books Gilman's volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers's debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay's short stories Redeployment along with the films The Hurt Locker American Sniper and Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk For perspective Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact He contends that Americans inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade According to Gilman where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2020-12-16 Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Popular Cultural Conceptions of War since World War II explores how war has been portrayed in the United States since World War II with a particular focus on an emotionally charged but rarely scrutinized topic combat death Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that most stories about war use three main building blocks melodrama adventure and horror Monnet examines how melodrama and adventure have helped make war seem acceptable to the American public by portraying combat death as a meaningful sacrifice and by making military killing look necessary and often even pleasurable Horror no longer serves its traditional purpose of making the bloody realities of war repulsive but has instead been repurposed in recent years to intensify the positivity of melodrama and adventure Thus this book offers a fascinating diagnosis of how war stories perform ideological and emotional work and why they have such a powerful grip on the American imagination

Through the Crosshairs Roger Stahl, 2018-06-21 Now that it has become so commonplace we rarely blink an eye at camera footage framed by the crosshairs of a sniper's gun or from the perspective of a descending smart bomb But how did this weaponized gaze become the norm for depicting war and how has it influenced public perceptions Through the Crosshairs traces the genealogy of this weapon's eye view across a wide range of genres including news reports military public relations images action movies video games and social media posts As he tracks how gun camera footage has spilled from the battlefield onto the screens of everyday civilian life Roger Stahl exposes how this raw video is carefully curated and edited to promote identification with military weaponry rather than with the targeted victims He reveals how the weaponized gaze is not only a powerful propagandistic frame but also a prime site of struggle over the representation of state violence

German Film after Germany Randall Halle, 2010-10-01 What is the work of film in the age of transnational production To answer that question Randall Halle focuses on the film industry of Germany one of Europe's largest film markets and one of the world's largest film producing nations In the 1990s Germany experienced an extreme transition from a state subsidized mode of film production that was free of anxious concerns about profit and audience entertainment to a mode dominated by private interest and big capital At the same time the European Union began actively drawing together the national markets of Germany and other European nations subsuming their individual significances into a synergistic whole This book studies these changes broadly but also focuses on the transformations in their particular national context It balances film politics and film aesthetics tracing transformations in financing along with analyses of particular films to describe the effects on the film object itself Halle concludes that we witness currently the emergence of a new transnational aesthetic a fundamental shift in cultural production with ramifications for communal identifications state cohesion and national economies of his journey I came to realize that while many GIs experienced extensive combat operations or the trials of being held in a POW camp very few men survived the amount of combat my uncle experienced and six months in a POW camp Frank's five year wartime journey which included three monumental amphibious invasions six major battle campaigns and six months in three different POW camps was breathtaking in scope The odds against his surviving all this or being seriously wounded out of the war are almost incalculable Despite the unusual scope of Sergeant Shaw's tour of duty his day to day adventures are quite typical of what tens of thousands of combat infantrymen experienced during WWII To that extent the character who emerges in this story is a composite or representative figure an American Odysseus whose mission of extraordinary historical significance requires him to define himself through trial suffering courage and perseverance before he returns home in triumph But the similarity ends at the triumphant return Earlier civilizations celebrated their returning warriors at ceremonial feasts These men were expected to show their wounds and relate their adventures to their countrymen so bards might record them for posterity Such rituals insured the warrior a rightful place in history enshrined his virtues and shed his reflected glory on his community No such salutary ritual greeted a battered Frank Shaw when he returned from the war no one saw his wounds or took his testimony And his silence consigned his deeds to the shadows of time and dimming memory But the ancient customs were correct the hero's deeds are not his alone They are his legacy to his family and his country and they deserve to be honored not shrouded Therefore since Sergeant Frank Shaw like so many of his World War II comrades in arms would not and did not tell his story I did Book Review 1 Col Brian H Cundiff USA Ret editor Blue Spader Newsletter I have just finished reading Fellowship of Dust Retracing the World War II Journey of Sergeant Frank Shaw The book was written by Bill Shaw his nephew with a foreword by General Paul Gorman USA Ret Sergeant Shaw served in Company E of the 26th Infantry for five years and survived the horrors of Europe under austere conditions This is a story that needs to be told and is a must read for all Blue Spaders They were truly the Greatest Generation Blue Spader Newsletter Book Review 2 As the foreword said this is a story that deserved to be told Much more than a biography of a courageous soldier in WW II while focusing on the author's uncle Frank Shaw this book vividly captures the horrors of war the emotions surrounding the battles that young men in Frank Shaw's infantry regiment were forced into their fears day by day per the dangers they encountered and the physical and emotional hardships and scars the war the frontline and POW experiences left as a result Having written the book after the subject's death Bill Shaw must have done an incredible amount of research reading letters e mailing old friends interviewing family friends and colleagues piecing in facts from numerous books newspapers and magazines etc to produce such a comprehensive very readable story This was obviously a labor of love and gratitude the author's dedication to a real hero The writing is very even and compelling with interesting relevant details helpful dialogue and scenes of real action and danger I was very moved by this book Writer's Digest Eugene O'Neill and the Emergence of American Drama ,2021-11-15 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence
