Through the Crosshairs Roger Stahl, 2018-06-21 Now that it has become so commonplace we rarely blink an eye at camera footage framed by the crosshairs of a sniper's gun or from the perspective of a descending smart bomb But how did this weaponized gaze become the norm for depicting war and how has it influenced public perceptions Through the Crosshairs traces the genealogy of this weapon's eye view across a wide range of genres including news reports military public relations images action movies video games and social media posts As he tracks how gun camera footage has spilled from the battlefield onto the screens of everyday civilian life Roger Stahl exposes how this raw video is carefully curated and edited to promote identification with military weaponry rather than with the

A Global Racial Enemy Saher Selod, Inaash Islam, Steve Garner, 2023-11-28 Prejudice against Muslims has a long and complex history In recent decades discrimination violence and human rights abuses against Muslims have taken a significant turn with rising reports and discussions of Islamophobia across the globe However much of the conversation has missed the key features of this increasingly insidious phenomenon This original book puts race at the center of the analysis exposing the global racialization of Muslims With special attention paid to the United States China India and the United Kingdom the authors examine both the unique national contexts and crucially the shared characteristics of anti Muslim racism They uncover how a range of counterterrorism policies from hyper surveillance to racialized policing and the ensuing representation of Islam have taken a decisive role in shaping social life for Muslims and have worked across borders to justify and institutionalize an acceptable state sponsored face of racism Ultimately A Global Racial Enemy argues that anti Muslim animus is a symptom of a global and powerful form of twenty first century racism

Mortal Threat A.J. Tata, 2024-10-08 Medical school student Amanda Garrett and American doctors working secretly in Africa have found a cure for the Ebola and Human Immunodeficiency Viruses Leaders of the Islamic State want the cure so they can show the world Islam is a benevolent religion that all Africans should follow The President of the United States believes an alleged 30 000 year old Sub Saharan religious text called The Book of Catalyst identifies him as being of divine origin As Amanda operates her portion of the clandestine CIA Project Nightingale in a Tanzanian orphanage she is attacked and chased by brutal killers called The Leopard and The Cheetah Amanda has 48 hours to escape across the Serengeti Plain before the remaining vials of the cure expire The Islamic State escalates attacks across the Middle East using freshly converted fighters from Africa The American

President however chooses not to deploy sufficient troops to save U S Special Forces including Amanda s husband assisting in the air war against ISIS As Amanda attempts to save the rapidly decomposing formula for the Ebola and HIV cures she finds herself at the center of a clash between warring media titans Jonathan Beckwith and Zhor al Rhazziq who are following her every step toward the Olduvai Gorge which some scientists claim to be the origin of human life Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer s Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper Military Review ,2015

Homicide, Gender and Responsibility Kate Fitz-Gibbon,Sandra Walklate,2016-03-22 The crime of homicide has long animated academic debate community concern and political attention The discussion has often centered on the perceived inadequacy of legal responses to homicide questions of culpability and divergent representations of victims and offenders Within this notions of gender responsibility and justice are pivotal This edited collection builds on existing scholarship by examining these concerns not only in the context of the private world of domestic murder but also in the more public world of the state the corporation war and genocide In so doing this book draws from key frameworks of criminological thought legal analysis and empirical evidence to critically examine the relationship between homicide gender and responsibility Bringing together leading international criminology and legal scholars this collection provides a unique contribution to the academic and policy engagement with what is more often than not an ordinary and mundane crime Analysing the crime in a variety of different social contexts alongside an in depth and critical analysis of the interconnections between the ordinary act of lethal violence gender and notions of responsibility this book will be of interest to students scholars and policymakers working in criminology and socio legal studies Recovering Inequality Steve Kroll-Smith,2018-08-15 A lethal mix of natural disaster dangerously flawed construction and reckless human actions devastated San Francisco in 1906 and New Orleans in 2005

Eighty percent of the built environments of both cities were destroyed in the catastrophes and the poor the elderly and the medically infirm were disproportionately among the thousands who perished These striking similarities in the impacts of cataclysms separated by a century impelled Steve Kroll Smith to look for commonalities in how the cities recovered from disaster In Recovering Inequality he builds a convincing case that disaster recovery and the reestablishment of social and economic inequality are inseparable Kroll Smith demonstrates that disaster and recovery in New Orleans and San Francisco followed a similar pattern In the immediate aftermath of the flooding and the firestorm social boundaries were disordered and the communities came together in expressions of unity and support But these were quickly replaced by other narratives and actions including the depiction of the poor as looters uneven access to disaster assistance and successful efforts by the powerful to take valuable urban real estate from vulnerable people Kroll Smith concludes that inexorable market forces ensured that recovery efforts in both cities would reestablish the patterns of inequality that existed before the catastrophes The major difference he finds between the cities is that from a market standpoint New Orleans was expendable while San Francisco rose from the ashes because it was a hub of commerce

Eastwood's Cinema of Trauma Charles R. Hamilton, Allen H. Redmon, 2017-08-11 Throughout his directorial career Clint Eastwood's movies have presented sympathetic narratives of characters enduring personal trauma as they turn to violence to survive calamity or sustain social order a choice that leaves them marginalized rather than redeemed In this collection of new essays contributors examine his films from The Outlaw Josey Wales to Sully as studies on PTSD that expose the social conditions that tolerate or trigger traumatization and in his more recent work imagine a way through individual and collective trauma
