A Mountain of Evidence Pastor Randy French,2020-09-01 Wouldn't you like to know today the standard by which you will be judged in eternity tomorrow That is exactly what Jesus does in the greatest sermon ever told The Sermon on the Mount Jesus said For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven Mt 5 20 This opener provides the basis for His sermon which spans three chapters in Matthew In it Jesus provides for us a comparison between two kingdoms the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of self In His sermon Jesus gives us all insight into what a true Christian looks like acts like sounds like and even thinks like The Pharisees were known for their strict adherence to the law and their traditions Jesus makes it clear to them and to us in this sermon that adherence to the law will not count for eternity Only by clothing oneself in Christ's righteousness can one hope for eternal life The world and even the Church at times attempts to redefine a Christian in a way that cheapens Christianity to make it more palatable and pleasing to the unbeliever Pastor and Martyr Dietrich Bonhoeffer called this cheap grace But the true Christian will not be measured by the world's or even the church's standards Each and every person will stand before a righteous Judge and be made to give an account for his or her life according to God's Word This book is a line by line explanation of Christ's expectations for every person who professes to be saved by the blood of Jesus Christ In essence it is a manual to help us all to understand what it means to be a Christian

The Written Dead Kyle William Bishop,Angela Tenga,2017-06-19 From Victor Halperin's White Zombie 1932 to George A Romero's landmark Night of the Living Dead 1968 and AMC's hugely successful The Walking Dead 2010 zombie mythology has become an integral part of popular culture In a reversal of the typical pattern of adaptation the zombie developed onscreen before appearing in short stories and comic books during the 20th century and more recently as subjects of more traditional novels This collection of new essays examines some of the most influential and inventive zombie literature from the early stories to the most recent narratives including some told from a zombie perspective

A Sniper in the Tower Gary M. Lavergne,1997 This volume provides an analysis of American Charles Whitman 1941 1966 an American engineering student and former U S Marine who killed seventeen people and wounded thirty two others in a mass shooting rampage in and around the Tower of the University of Texas in Austin on the afternoon of August 1 1966 Prior to the shootings at the University of Texas Whitman had murdered his wife and mother the night before The author attempts to answer the question why with this historical analysis of the event Using primary sources and photographs the author details the significant events in Whitman's life that led to the massacre The author details the life of Whitman his relationships with his friends mother and father brothers and wife He writes about the victims and where and what they were doing when they were gunned down The author describes how civilians used their own guns to shoot back at Whitman and how an air attack from a helicopter was unsuccessful in gunning down the killer but how Austin police were finally able to end the massacre by sneaking up to the Tower and catching Whitman off guard Jihad Joe J. M. Berger, 2011-04-30 They are Americans and they are mujahideen Hundreds of men from every imaginable background have walked away from the traditional American dream to volunteer for battle in the name of Islam Some have taken part in foreign wars that aligned with U S interests while others have carried out violence against Western interests abroad fought against the U S military and even plotted terrorist attacks on American soil This story plays out over decades and continents from the Americans who took part in the siege of Mecca in 1979 through conflicts in Lebanon Afghanistan and Bosnia and continuing today in Afghanistan and Somalia Investigative journalist J M Berger profiles numerous fighters including some who joined al Qaeda and others who chose a different path In these pages he portrays among others Abdullah Rashid who fought the Soviets in Afghanistan Mohammed Loay Bayazid who was present at the founding of al Qaeda Ismail Royer who fought in Bosnia and Kashmir then returned to run training camps in the United States Adam Gadahn a California Jew who is now al Qaeda s chief spokesman and Anwar Awlaki the Yemeni American imam with links to 9 11 who is now considered one of the biggest threats to America s security

"Breathin' the Sniper's Breath" Sean Michael David Allan, 2006 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 The Secret of Raven Point Jennifer Vanderbes, 2015-04-07 When 17 year old Juliet Dufresne receives a cryptic letter from her enlisted older brother pleading for help and then finds out he s been reported missing overseas she lies about her age and volunteers as an army nurse to find him Shy and awkward Juliet is thrust into the bloody chaos of a field hospital living in a sprawling encampment north of Rome Christopher Barnaby a deserter awaiting court martial may hold the answer to her brother s fate but the trauma of war has left him unable to speak Marvel Comics' Civil War and the Age of Terror Kevin Michael

Scott, 2015-09-03 Marvel Comics has an established tradition of addressing relevant real life issues facing the American public With the publication of Civil War 2006 2007 a seven issue crossover storyline spanning the Marvel universe they focused on contemporary anxieties such as terrorism and threats to privacy and other civil liberties This collection of new essays explores the Civil War series and its many tie in titles from the perspectives of history political science sociology psychology literary criticism philosophy law and education The contributors provide a close reading of the series main theme the appropriate balance between freedom and security and discuss how that balance affects citizenship race gender and identity construction in 21st century America Opening Skinner's Box Lauren Slater, 2016-07-28 A century can be understood in many ways in terms of its inventions its crimes or its art In Opening Skinner s Box Lauren Slater sets out to investigate the twentieth century through a series of ten fascinating witty and sometimes shocking accounts of its key psychological experiments Starting with the founder of modern scientific experimentation B F Skinner Slater traces the evolution of the last hundred years most pressing concerns free will authoritarianism violence conformity and morality

Previously buried in academic textbooks these often daring experiments are now seen in their full context and told as stories rich in plot wit and character American Arabists in the Cold War Middle East, 194675 Teresa Fava Thomas, 2016-07-06

This book examines the careers of 53 area experts in the US State Department's Middle East bureau during the Cold War Known as Arabists or Middle East hands they were very different in background education and policy outlook from their predecessors the Orientalists A highly competitive selection process and rigorous training shaped them into a small corps of diplomatic professionals with top notch linguistic and political reporting skills Case studies shed light on Washington's perceptions of Israel and the Arab world as well as how American leaders came to regard and often disregard the advice of their own expert advisors This study focuses on their transformative role in Middle East diplomacy from the Eisenhower through the Ford administrations Selling Sex on Screen Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Catriona McAvoy, 2015-07-16

Whether in mainstream or independent films depictions of female prostitution and promiscuity are complicated by their intersection with male fantasies In such films issues of exploitation fidelity and profitability are often introduced into the narrative where sex and power become commodities traded between men and women In Selling Sex on Screen From Weimar Cinema to Zombie Porn Karen A Ritzenhoff and Catriona McAvoy have assembled essays that explore the representation of women and sexual transactions in film and television Included in these discussions are the films Breakfast at Tiffany's Eyes Wide Shut L.A. Confidential Pandora's Box and Shame and such programs as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Gigolos By exploring the themes of class differences and female economic independence the chapters go beyond textual analysis and consider politics censorship social trends laws race and technology as well as sexual and gender stereotypes By exploring this complex subject Selling Sex on Screen offers a spectrum of representations of desire and sexuality through the moving image This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film but also researchers in gender studies women's studies criminology sociology film studies adaptation studies and popular culture My Turn Doug Henwood, 2016-07-05

Hillary Clinton is running for the presidency with a message of hope and change But as Doug Henwood makes clear in this concise devastating indictment little trust can be placed in her campaign promises Rigorously reviewing her record Henwood shows how Clinton's positions on key issues have always blown with the breeze of expediency though generally around an axis of moralism and hawkishness Without a meaningful program other than a broad fealty to the status quo Henwood suggests the case for Hillary boils down to this she has experience she's a woman and it's her turn Commerce Business Daily, 2000-04

Advanced Reporting Miles Maguire, 2014-07-25 News gathering is a large complicated and often messy task that has traditionally been viewed by journalists as irretrievably idiosyncratic best learned through trial and error Advanced Reporting takes the opposite approach focusing on reporting as a process of triangulation based on three essential activities analyzing documents making observations and conducting interviews In this readable book veteran journalism professor Miles Maguire shows how the best reporters use these three tools in a way that allows them to cross check and authenticate facts to reduce or eliminate unsupportable allegations and to take readers and viewers to a deeper level of insight and understanding This book will help to prepare students for a profession marked by increasing complexity and competition To succeed in this environment journalists must learn to make the most of digital media to intensify the impact of their work At the same time reporters must contend with a host of sophisticated public relations techniques while engaging with news audiences that no longer just consume journalism but also collaborate in its creation Discussion questions and exercises help students put theory into practice
