Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives

The Greatest Navy SEAL Stories Ever Told Laurence J. Yadon, 2018-09-01 The Greatest Navy SEAL Stories Ever Told is the first book to place side by side extraordinary stories of SEALs who put their lives on the line and then go out and do it again the next day They illustrate the SEAL maxim The person who will not be defeated cannot be defeated SEALs in action men of courage and ingenuity from the rice paddies and hills of Vietnam to the plains and mountains of Afghanistan Iraq and Pakistan appear in these pages These stories cover the most significant overt and covert operations conducted since the U S Navy established Sea Land and Air Teams SEALs established in January 1962 The one common denominator in these chapters is the courage and ingenuity of those who proudly call themselves Navy SEALs Sometimes SEALs and other participants in these stories recall differing versions of the same events as recounted here for the reader to make his own judgments So far as I know no previously classified or sensitive information is revealed in these pages

U.S. Militarism and the Terrain of Memory John Bechtold, 2024-08-01 This book analyzes how the Iraqi city of Fallujah became registered as a setting for military heroics in American memory In 2004 the U S military conducted two disastrous assaults in Fallujah Iraq More than 1 000 citizens were killed and according to the military's own estimate upwards of 200 000 people were displaced because of the violence Yet despite this human catastrophe the kind of information that emerged in the public domain during the battle foregrounded the soldier's experience in war while effacing the destruction of Iraqi bodies This tendency to foreground the soldier body is a direct result of the military's intervention in what they conceptualize as the information environment This book draws from the second assault in Fallujah as a case study to explicate the military's investment in this perspectival space which is a consequence both of the mediatization of contemporary war and of the need to influence knowledge considered unfavorable to military operations In short the military enlists the media in their targeting process to produce information that is then deployed as persuasive force to modify the beliefs of specific target populations When the cultural texts produced by the media are remediated in the public domain after war they can be thought of as martial constructs because they originated during war through the military's systemized attempt to influence knowledge That is these texts trace to a specific battlefield objective This book reframes the notion of propaganda as a generalized public relations strategy into a more acute and coordinated attempt to decontextualize specific knowledge in the information environment This book will be of much interest
