This book is for mature adults over 18 Justin I had always perceived myself as a heterosexual male who appreciated the admiration of women and the thrill of fast cars Yet I had never faced a true test of my identity I married the first woman who professed her love for me but we remained childless She was often preoccupied with friends and traveling until my financial success prompted her desire for children which for reasons unknown to me never materialized Perhaps that was due to my relentless work ethic and her inclination to indulge in the wealth I had amassed through my business endeavors However it could be our relationship lacked genuine love I recognized her affection for me was superficial early on yet we maintained our partnership for the sake of my business and her lifestyle as the spouse of a wealthy man With the guidance of my gay mentor I transitioned from a struggling mechanic to a billionaire though I remain uncertain about my journey going forward Now my life is unraveling as I have discovered true love a revelation that took me by surprise The moment I looked into his green eyes and youthful face I realized I wanted him to fill my empty hours and days yet our situation is fraught with complications not due to his lack of interest but rather the complexities surrounding us me as a straight dude who can t afford to lose everything I ve worked hard for This is book 2 in the Influencer series of a straight to gay romance and fake boyfriend with a HEA ending

These carefully selected works can be fiction, non-fiction, historical documents, or even biographies. We will always select for you three great works to instigate your mind. This time the topic is Gay Literature. The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde, Bertram Cope's Year by Henry Blake Fuller, and Joseph and His Friend by Bayard Taylor. The Picture of Dorian Gray is a Gothic and philosophical novel by Oscar Wilde, first published complete in the July 1890 issue of Lippincott's Monthly Magazine. Fearing the story was indecent, the magazine's editor deleted roughly five hundred words before publication without Wilde's knowledge. Despite that censorship, The Picture of Dorian Gray offended the moral sensibilities of

British book reviewers some of whom said that Oscar Wilde merited prosecution for violating the laws guarding public morality

Bertram Cope's Year is a 1919 novel by Henry Blake Fuller sometimes called the first American homosexual novel The story is set on the campus of a university in fictional Churchton Illinois modeled on Northwestern University in Evanston Illinois where Bertram Cope an attractive young English instructor is spending a year completing his thesis While he has a certain sophistication he is socially unaware easily impressed by the wealthy and their comforts Lacking confidence Cope is too careful and self conscious as he tries to find his place in local society

Joseph and His Friend A Story of Pennsylvania is an 1870 novel by American author Bayard Taylor a prolific writer in many genres It presented a special attachment between two men and discussed the nature and significance of such a relationship romantic but not sexual Critics are divided in interpreting Taylor's novel as a political argument for gay relationships or an idealization of male spirituality This is one of many books in the series
