Gospel Brokenness Clay Werner,2019-12-13 All of our hearts whether we know it or not long to know the deep joy of possessing and experiencing the permanent and passionate favor of God. However, all of our hearts also experience the twisted desires of sin and the foolish bent towards trying to deal with it in our own strength, which usually means somehow trying to cover it up so others, especially God, won't see. This two-step dance of struggling and covering leaves us exhausted and more hardened. Everyone who knows Christ knows about this tiring battle. However, the gospel is so extravagant that even a king like David, who sinned and tried to hide it, can find immeasurable and unexpected grace that restores spiritual vitality and makes one a wise counselor of mercy to the surrounding community. Everyone who knows Christ also has this hope and is invited to experience again the superabundant grace found in this remarkably rich section of the Psalms. This book invites you to step into a new gospel rhythm by exploring Saint Augustine's favorite psalm, Psalm 32. By exploring this psalm, you'll find the healing grace found in gospel brokenness.

Christianity 101 Unit 3 Jason Evans, 2017-03-10. Finally, the third book of the Christianity 101 series. After books one and two, you have heard the bad news: Hell is real, and we are all going there. BUT there is also GOOD NEWS. The Gospel good news is that we can be saved from Hell. So in this third book of the series, we explain how Jesus will save us and what our role is in the whole thing. Some of the questions answered include: What has Jesus done to save us? Is the plan of salvation different now than it was in the Old Testament? Do we have a part to play in our salvation? What does it mean to have faith? What is real repentance? When do we actually get saved? What does it mean to be born again? Why do I still sin? Can you lose salvation? What is the unforgivable sin? Is there a purpose for baptism?

Salvation in African Christianity Rodney L. Reed, David K. Ngaruiya, 2023-10-31. What must I do to be saved? That question raised in the book of Acts by the Philippian jailer is a question for the ages. Yet what even does it mean to be saved? Is salvation for this life or the next? Is it purely spiritual or does it have physical and material implications? Can salvation be lost? Do we determine who will be saved or does God? What role does Christ play in salvation? Such are the seemingly unending questions soteriology strives to answer. In this eighth volume from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology, African theologians articulate their understanding of salvation and its widespread implications for life and practice in conversation with Scripture and the rich diversity of an African cultural context. Salvation is examined from historical, philosophical, and theological lenses, and scholars address topics as wide-ranging as conversion, ethnicity, fertility, poverty, prosperity, the Trinity, exclusivism, African Pentecostalism, rural community, eschatology, wholeness, and atonement. It is a powerful exploration of the holistic nature of salvation as articulated in Scripture and understood by the African church.
