Dealing with Depression Naturally Syd Baumel, 1995 Discusses the relationship between depression and the environmental factors that can cause it or make it worse. Describes a number of treatments that have been helpful.

Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Savita Malhotra, Paramala Santosh, 2016-11-25 This is a comprehensive volume on issues and concerns relating to child and adolescent mental health in Asia which includes contributions from experts in child psychiatry from Asia and other parts of the world. The chapters provide accurate and detailed accounts of the current state of knowledge integrating research approaches and findings from clinical studies. Each chapter discusses existing information, emphasizes areas of growth and provides fresh insights on a particular topic especially as these might relate to Asian populations. The book integrates various clinical and scientific perspectives on psychiatric disorders in children and adolescents with a focus on Asia. The various sections deal with important topics in child and adolescent psychiatry: the current understanding of mental disorders and the ways in which possible influences might work in the development of psychopathology; substance use disorders; their neurobiological correlates and implications for the developing brain; early environmental influences in the psychopathology of psychiatric disorders in children; issues of parenting, child rearing and cultural practices in Asia which influence personality development and adaptation; life long impact of early parental loss; early diagnosis and intervention in recognizing and treating psychopathology; psychopharmacology of neurodevelopmental disorders in children; non pharmacological treatments for children; mental health gap and telepsychiatry as an innovative model to provide services for children and a pressing need for a comprehensive child mental health policy across nations.

The Myth of the Chemical Cure J. Moncrieff, 2016-04-13 This book overturns the idea that psychiatric drugs work by correcting chemical imbalance and analyzes the professional, commercial and political vested interests that have shaped this view. It provides a comprehensive critique of research on drugs including antidepressants, antipsychotics and mood stabilizers.

Out of the Madhouse Margaret Leggatt, Sandy Jeffs, 2021-01-29 2020 Victorian Community History Award Winner. Larundel Psychiatric Hospital was the madhouse on the edge of town until the 1990s, a Melbourne cultural icon shrouded in mystery in the outer suburb of Bundoora. What was it really like inside this madhouse? This story takes us into the heart of Larundel through the voices of former inmates and staff, exposing the best and worst aspects of the mental institutions of the times. It shows the shifts in psychiatric treatments, the social forces at play and changes driving mental health policy. It explores what de-institutionalisation and care in the community actually meant for those suffering mental illness as well as for those treating and caring for them. What did we lose with Larundel's closure in 1999 and the move to acute psychiatric wards in general hospitals? The notion of asylum. Is the more recent notion of recovery a hopeful signpost towards a brave new world for mental health The authors are Sandy Jeffs a former inmate of Larundel who became an advocate for her mad comrades and is now a poet of distinction and Margaret Leggatt sociologist occupational therapist and activist for the friends and families of mentally ill people A significant and lively contribution to the history of mental health services in Australia offering vital insights for the progress we must work for Jack Heath CEO SANE Australia

Trial Designs and Outcomes in Dementia Therapeutic Research Kenneth Rockwood, Serge Gauthier, 2005-11-23

Given the increased attention of clinicians researchers and the pharmaceutical industry to the management and treatment of dementia not only in the elderly but also in increasingly younger populations the demands for effective evidence based pharmaceutical control of dementia and quantitative assessment of outcomes have increased From the first steps in the early 1960s to the controversial landmark paper of Summers and colleagues to the most recent trials it is clear both that much progress has been made and that much remains to be done This book is written to take stock of what is now usefully known and to speculate on directions for the future

Magic Molecules Susan Aldridge, 1998-09-28 All of us are drug users in the broadest sense of the word Drugs can be medicines they can be used for pleasure and they can also be used to protect our long term health It is important that we are well informed about the drugs we use how they work their benefits and their risks This book is a unique guide for the general science reader to the drugs of everyday life from the main types of medicine through to recreational drugs and food supplements It looks at how drugs interact with their targets in the body where they come from how they are developed and what drugs to expect in the future All the major pharmaceutical medicines are reviewed painkillers antibiotics anti cancer drugs anti depressants heart drugs tranquillizers and hormones However this book is much more than a consumer handbook it also conveys the fascinating science of drug discovery in an easily accessible way
