Polish Foreign Trade ,1993 New Forms of Work Organization in Europe Peter Grootings,BjÅ¶rn Gustavsen,Lajos HÅ©thy, A remarkable development in the sociology of work in recent years has been the explosion of brilliant cross national and cross cultural studies in Europe examining the conditions of labor against the background of different economic systems and differences within each of the major free market mixed welfare and planned economic systems that dot the European landscape In Vienna and Budapest in particular a group of intellectual workers have gotten together for what can only be described as breakthrough studies in the conditions and purposes of work in post industrial society The question of new forms of work organization focuses on job satisfaction participatory democracy in the work place levels of productivity and issues of health and safety in the occupational environment That these elements are important have long been known But what this collection of studies emphasizes is the specific mix that produced specific outcomes It does not shy away from dangerous and tough questions worker control and control of workers political participation in contexts of authoritarian regimes and personal rewards in contexts that once frowned upon private acquisition of capital The volume is rich in empirical studies and draws the theoretical implications that can and already have had vast policy consequences for workers in the modern context Issues relating to job rotation enrichment enlargement and autonomy and others related to new forms of organization starting with the shop floor and extending throughout the management of the enterprise as a whole are dealt with candidly The social character of labor long frowned upon as a mechanism for evading bread and butter issues is now recognized East and West as a dimension of concern that is growing precisely as the size and character of the labor sector is diminishing This is must reading for those interested in new forms of social and policy synthesis and ways of meliorating competing claims of different sectors in modern societies Ntsikelelo's Dream Catcher Ntsikelelo Goodman Ndesi,2020-01-01 This is an inspirational true story extolling the power of a dream The perception of the world with its endless possibilities Regardless of the circumstances and the challenges honest living accomplishes the truest most well deserved victory Identification of self worth is key to a peaceful approach to life and perseverance and the practise of patience can prove to be very rewarding Time rewards tons in the presence of the future Contributions to Library Science ,1990 Functional Grammar in Prolog Simon C. Dik,2011-08-17 No detailed description available for Functional Grammar in Prolog Technological Innovation, Modernity, and Electric Goods in Late State Socialist Poland Patryk Wasiak,2023-12-15 Technological Innovation Modernity and Electric Goods in Late State Socialist Poland deconstructs the public performance of technological innovation and imagined modernity in relation to the home technologies market in late state socialist Poland While doing so Patryk Wasiak sheds light on the politics that accompanied the modes of representations of the new innovative consumer technologies in the public sphere and the agenda of actors who performed such representations This book argues that the central form of the mediation of home technologies was the projection of specific sociotechnical imaginaries that included visions of how these technologies would have an impact on the creation of a desirable future social order and economy Later such imaginaries were re negotiated and challenged as infeasible or undesirable The author demonstrates how expert groups the industry lobby research institutes and non governmental organizations attempted to secure their role as intermediary actors in order to have a tangible impact on not only the production of commodities but more importantly on the definition of which commodity or a product feature is modern and innovative and which is obsolete Doctors in a Divided Society Mignonne Breier,Angelique Wildschut,2006 Many of the goals of South Africa s new democracy depend on the production of professionals who have not only the knowledge and skills to make our country globally competitive but also a commitment to working and living here Despite numerous reforms the South African health system ten years into democracy remains divided first world private care that ranks with middle income countries internationally at the one end and at the other extreme in the rural public sector in particular conditions that are superior only to the poorest of African countries Much work has been done to change medical school curricula in line with the primary health care focus of government policy and international trends towards problem based learning The student profile in medical schools is now not only more representative of the demographics of South Africa but also reveals a significant increase in female students Whether these students will stay in the country after graduating and serve where they are needed most remains to be seen Publisher s website Tripletrap William H. Hallahan,1990-06 Records Maintained by Government Agencies United States. Congress. House. Government Operations Committee,1972 Research in Practice Martin Terre Blanche,Martin J. Terre Blanche,Kevin Durrheim,Desmond Painter,2006 A major shift in research methodology from technical to more contextual and pragmatic approaches this thorough resource incorporates new trends while also providing comprehensive coverage of the full range of established research approaches and techniques skillfully combining epistemology methodology statistics and application in a volume that is both sophisticated and practical Placing a greater emphasis on interdisciplinary and applied research skills this guide encourages the concurrent use of qualitative and quantitative methods and explores such complex topics as ethical issues in social science research inferential statistical methods and Marxist feminist and black scholarship perspectives Bulletin de L'Institut Fondamental D'Afrique Noire ,1974 Black Tertiary Education, 1987 ,1988 New Scientist ,1994 African Studies Abstracts ,2002 Marconi's International Register ,1972 African Business & Chamber of Commerce Review ,1984 Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan,Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso,Toyin Falola,2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism Situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how

Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life opening up new directions for future research
