Nicholas Tampio

Asymmetric Politics Matthew Grossmann, David A. Hopkins, 2016 The Republican Party is the vehicle of an ideological movement whereas the Democratic Party is a coalition of social groups with concrete policy concerns Democrats prefer a more moderate party leadership that makes compromises whereas Republicans favor a more conservative party leadership that sticks to principles Each party finds popular support for its approach because the American public simultaneously favors liberal positions on specific policy issues and conservative views on the broader role of government Learning in the Fast Lane Chester E. Finn (Jr.), Andrew E. Scanlan, 2019-09-17 More than three million high school students take five million Advanced Placement exams each May yet remarkably little is known about how this sixty year old privately run program has become one of U S education s greatest successes From its mid century origin as a tiny option for privileged kids from posh schools AP has also emerged as a booster rocket into college for hundreds of thousands of disadvantaged youngsters It challenges smart kids affects school ratings affords rewarding classroom challenges to great teachers tunes up entire schools and draws vast support from philanthropists education reformers and policymakers AP stands as America s foremost source of college level academics for high school pupils Praised for its rigor and integrity more than 22 000 schools now offer some or many of its thirty eight subjects from Latin to calculus art to computer science But challenges abound today as AP faces stiffening competition especially dual credit curriculum wars charges of elitism misgivings by elite schools and universities and the arduous work of infusing rigor into schools that lack it and academic success into young people unaccustomed to it In today s polarized climate can Advanced Placement maintain its lofty standards and overcome the hostility politics and despair that have sunk so many other bold education ventures Advanced Placement The Unsung Success Story of American Education is a unique account richly documented and thoroughly readable of the AP program in all its strengths and travails written by two of America s most respected education analysts Common Core Nicholas Tampio, 2018-03 Intro Contents Acknowledgments Introduction Do We Need a Common Core 1 Arguments for National Education Standards 2 Arguments against National Education Standards 3 English Standards Close Reading and Testing 4 Math Standards Understanding and College and Career Readiness 5 Science Standards Scientific Unity and the Problem of Sustainability 6 History Standards American Identity and the Politics of Storytelling 7 Sexuality Standards Gender Identity and Religious Minorities Conclusion Democracy Education Standards and Local Control Epilogue Democracy and the Test Refusal Movement Notes References Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P R S T U V W Z About the Author Do-gooders Mona Charen, 2004 In the follow up to her New York Times bestseller Useful Idiots Mona Charen chastises the liberals who pretend their failed domestic policies help the poor U.S. Latino Issues Rodolfo F. Acuña, 2017-01-26 A revision of the popular previous edition published more than a decade earlier this work examines today s U S Latino population now arguably the most important minority group in the country with numbers well over 50 million strong in an increasingly diverse and integrated America Latinos are the largest minority in the United States and as such Latino Americans have a tremendous influence on the culture workforce economy and politics of this country This second edition of U S Latino Issues provides updated content stats and data for each topic and it frames critical questions and multiple viewpoints on Latinos in the United States that will be useful to student researchers The responses to the critical questions come from Latino experts and scholars and other well known subject experts providing readers with insights from various informed points of view all in a single volume The book covers hundreds of topics regarding Latino Americans such as gender sexuality indigenous culture race and cultural identity health and wellness education and interracial dating and marriage and it offers in depth comparisons of the Latino groups and shows how events in their native countries affect them Readers will have access to concise and up to date information on controversial topics such as affirmative action immigration reform open borders policy versus border enforcement changing relations between the United States and Cuba and Puerto Rico s contested status as a commonwealth versus a state
