Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it Research Universities in Africa Cloete, Nico, Bunting, Ian, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa Social Memory as a Force for Social and Economic Transformation Muxe Nkondo, 2023-02-01 This volume of essays is a reflection on social memory as a force for social and economic transformation Written by scholars and organic intellectuals it focuses on the uses of social memory in particular the conflict between the legacies of colonialism and the movement for fundamental change The content addresses both experts and ordinary citizens alike with a view to advancing discourse on where we are right now and how we move on from here to achieve meaningful transformation As scholars and public representatives with a deep understanding of the social economic and political dynamics of modern history of South Africa the contributors offer their unique perspectives and reflections on history politics economics culture education ethics and the arts as well as the links that bind these aspects into an ecology of ideas and attitudes ECSM2015-Proceedings of the 2nd European Conference on Social Media 2015 Dr Paula Peres,Dr Anabela Mesquita,2015-07-06 Complete proceedings of the 2nd European Conference on Social Media Porto Portugal Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Limited

Pushing our Understanding of Diversity in Organizations Eden B. King, Quinetta Roberson, Mikki R. Hebl, 2020-02-01 Few time periods in the past five decades match the intensity of intergroup conflict that people around the world are currently experiencing Polarized attitudes around various sociopolitical issues such as gender equality and immigration have dominated the media and our lives Furthermore these powerful social dynamics have also impacted the places where we work and intensified existing strains on workers and workplaces To address these issues and improve organizational climates more theories research and collaborations to understand these phenomena are needed The volumes in this series will describe and instigate scholarship that advances our understanding of diversity in organizations This volume features renowned scholars who are unabashedly pushing the field by raising the questions that need to be asked by working on topics that have received far too little research attention and by holding researchers practitioners managers organizations and readers to task for doing what needs to be done to maximize social justice and egalitarian behaviors in the workplace The chapters provoke the status quo in society and in scholarship and in so doing push our understanding of diversity in organizations

Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less, Learn More (TLLM) Pedagogies Kumar, Pradeep, Keppell, Michael James, Lim, Chee Leong, 2019-12-27 The current trend of learner centeredness in education has been challenging many of the current ways of working especially in higher education institutions This rapid change in educational institutions demands educators acquire new sets of skills via continuous reflective practices Hence educators in higher education institutions are actively involved in research driven teaching and learning practices This change of role from mere content delivery to learning facilitators could be better achieved through a strong research driven community of practice Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less Learn More TLLM Pedagogies is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the application of practice based learning techniques in higher education institutions This publication establishes a platform for academics to share their best practices to promote teach less learn more pedagogies and learn reciprocally from the community of practice While highlighting topics such as interactive learning experiential technology and logical thinking skills this book is ideally designed for teachers instructional designers higher education faculty deans researchers professionals universities academicians and students seeking current research on transformative learning and future teaching practices

Transforming Teaching and Learning Experiences for Helping Professions in Higher Education, 2023-02-27 Higher education has transformed and continues to transform in this century because of decolonizing the curriculum and the COVID 19 pandemic which have added an indelible mark to the methodology of teaching and learning Learning spaces have become open to more people through privatization massification e learning platforms and internationally mobile academics allowing individuals from diverse backgrounds to enter the academic and helping professions space Educators need to reskill repurpose redesign and reimagine for a world that is rapidly evolving New ways of teaching need to consider nuances of decolonization of the curriculum deep understanding of subjects transformative ways of imparting knowledge and technology enhanced learning needs to be embraced Thus the teaching and learning spaces in developed and developing environments move beyond the classroom to prepare 21st century citizens to embrace life long learning Furthermore the content as well as processes involved in teaching and learning must be explored thoughtfully that includes the perspectives of a more inclusive wave of educators and students Thus this book has implications for a global scholarship specifically during disruptive times in Higher Education It is hoped that the book stimulates reflections so that the reader draws inspiration to find contextual relevance that extends into the real world

Islamophobia and Psychiatry H. Steven Moffic, John Peteet, Ahmed Zakaria Hankir, Rania Awaad, 2018-12-17 The book begins by covering the general and clinical challenges that are unique to Muslims drawing from an internationally ethnically and intergenerationally diverse pool of experts The text covers not only how psychiatrists and other clinicians can intervene successfully with patients but how we as clinicians can have a role in addressing other societally connected mental health challenges arising from Islamophobia The text addresses three related but distinct areas of interest Islamophobia as a destructive force Islam as a religion that is threatened by stigma and misinformation and the novel intersection of these forces with the field of psychiatry Islamophobia and Psychiatry is a vital resource for all clinicians and clinicians in training who may encounter patients struggling with these issues including adult and child psychiatrists psychologists primary care physicians counselors social workers and others
