Assessment And Measurement Of Regional Integration Routledge Warwick Studies In Globalisation:

Assessment and Measurement of Regional Integration Philippe De Lombaerde, 2006-09-27 The book fills a niche in the market for books on regional integration where most of the publications deal with theory or the analysis of specific cases almost no books can be found dealing with analytical methodology The book includes a combination of well known and expert scholars and up and coming young academics The book will appeal strongly to both economists and politics and while the authors present an interdisciplinary approach the economists and political scientists approaches are kept separate The

Southern African Development Community (SADC) and the European Union (EU) Johannes Muntschick, 2017-10-09 This book explores regionalism in the Southern African Development Community SADC and highlights the influence of the European Union EU as an extra regional actor on the organization and integration process The analysis is guided by theory and explains the emergence institutional design and performance of SADC's major integration projects in the issue areas of the economy security and infrastructure It provides in this way a profound assessment of the organization as a whole The study shows that South Africa plays a regional key role as driver for integration while external influence of the EU is ambivalent in character because it unfolds a supportive or obstructive impact The author argues that the EU gains influence over regional integration processes in the SADC on the basis of patterns of asymmetric interdependence and becomes a game changer insofar as it facilitates or impedes solutions to regional cooperation problems Nationalism and Global

Solidarities James Goodman, Paul James, 2006-11-29 Even in the face of neoliberal globalization nationalism remains a significant political force The leading contributors to this new volume explore the extent to which nationalism can be a foundation for alternative solidarities Against the axiom that with globalization all that is solid melts into air this anthology debates the extent to which different forms of solidarity remain viable from the solidarities of local political groups to the solidarities of nationalism internationalism and alternative globalisms Organized into three sections the book addresses the relationship between the contemporary formations of nationalism globalism and solidarity movements Part 1 offers a framework for understanding globalization and discusses the effect of globality on nationalism Part 2 addresses the logics of nationalisms in globalizing contexts respectively liberal nationalism left nationalism post colonial nationalism and revivals of nationalism Part 3 addresses issues of solidarity and integration in a world of nationalism and globalism asking how differing forms of connectivity may be emerging disrupting prevailing oppositions and relations focusing on social movements and solidarity Offering the first detailed study of the relationship between globalization and nationalism Nationalism and Global Solidarities will be of strong interest to students and scholars of politics sociology and international political economy

Managing Regional Energy Vulnerabilities in East Asia Daojiong Zha, 2013-08-29 This book examines East Asia's inter state collaborative energy projects to address energy vulnerability It focuses on projects that have demonstrated effectiveness in addressing vulnerabilities faced by the ten states of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and China

Japan and South Korea in Northeast Asia Including case studies on uncertainties in external sources of oil and gas supply maritime piracy continuation of energy poverty and geographical barriers to cross border electricity interconnection expert contributors highlight how collaborative energy projects have been more successful than the traditional state rivalry in energy related issues The book develops the framework of energy vulnerability avoiding usual securitization approaches instead examining non traditional security conceptualizations in studying energy policies to examine how issue specific cooperation efforts between states arise and develop Using East Asia as a starting point contributors introduce a framework that advances the study of international energy cooperation Managing Regional Energy Vulnerabilities in East Asia will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian studies sociology development studies and international political economy particularly the political economy of East Asia energy and development studies regional and global governance of energy and the environmental economics Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F.
