10. In contrast to centrally-located parks, the most-used programs (30.46 percent for tennis) are for activities that could be provided within these off-site settings. The major program (approximately one-third of total program) is tennis. This kind of activity takes the community program system a lot further off-site. In other programs such as swimming, group exercise and athletic field or gym activities, there may, indeed, be the need for taking program participants off-site to the nearest pool, gym, or athletic field.
