Argumentative Writing Prompts:

The Argument Writing Toolkit Sean Ruday, 2015-07-16 In order for students to write effective arguments they need to read good arguments In this practical book you ll find out how to use mentor texts to make writing instruction more meaningful authentic and successful Author Sean Ruday demonstrates how you can teach middle school students to analyze the qualities of effective arguments and then help them think of those qualities as tools to improve their own writing You ll learn how to Introduce high interest topics to students to get them interested and engaged in argument writing Teach students to look at multiple sides of an issue and critically evaluate evidence to construct informed defensible arguments Make argument writing an interactive student driven exercise in which students pursue their own writing projects Use mentor texts to help students learn the core concepts of argument writing and apply those skills across the curriculum The book is filled with examples and templates you can bring back to the classroom immediately as well as an annotated bibliography which links the concepts in this book to the corresponding Common Core State Standards Blank templates are also available as printable eResources on our website <http://www.routledge.com/9781138924390> Teaching and Learning Argumentative Writing in High School English Language Arts Classrooms George E. Newell, David Bloome, Alan Hirvela, 2015-06-05 Focused on the teaching and learning argumentative writing in grades 9-12 this important contribution to literacy education research and classroom practice offers a new perspective a set of principled practices and case studies of excellent teaching The case studies illustrate teaching and learning argumentative writing as the construction of knowledge and new understandings about experiences ideas and texts Six themes key to teaching argumentative writing as a thoughtful multi-leveled practice for deep learning and expression are presented teaching and learning argumentative writing as social practice teachers epistemological beliefs about argumentative writing variations in instructional chains instructional conversations in support of argumentative writing as deep learning and appreciation of multiple perspectives contextualized analysis of argumentative writing and the teaching and learning of argumentative writing and the construction of rationalities Agree Or Disagree Alphabet Publishing, Walton Burns, 2019-12 A collection of 52 writing prompts one for every week along with blank pages to respond Each writing prompt is a debatable statement for students to respond to There s a wide range of topics of the sort often found in standardized tests like the TOEIC the IELTS or English class exams This writing journal was designed for ESL and EFL students studying the opinion or argumentative essay in English class But it s perfect for debate club or even as a way of keeping your mind flexible Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers
